PROCEEDINGS

First Day, May 23, 1904.

MORNING SESSION.

Denver, Colorado, May 23, 1904.

The delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners assembled at Odd Fellows' Hall on Champa street, and at just 9:30 a. m. the gavel in the hands of Vice President J. C. Williams of Grass Valley, California, fell smartly upon the pedestal, at which signal all was quiet.

Vice President Williams then addressed the delegates briefly, stating in a few well-chosen words that it was with a feeling of honest regret that the detention of our worthy and able president, Charles H. Moyer, in a military prison, makes it incumbent upon him to preside over the convention until such time as President Moyer shall be released, which he sincerely hoped would be soon.

President Williams then introduced Brother J. C. Sullivan, president of the State Federation of Labor, who extended the greeting of organized labor to the delegates assembled. He briefly reviewed the conditions in the state of Colorado throughout the metalliferous and coal mining districts, depicting the awful conditions existing, saying the press have not dared to portray the outrages that have been perpetrated by the Citizens' Alliance; the newspapers have been afraid to tell the truth. He urged upon the delegates the necessity of acting wisely, justly, fairly and fearlessly, and concluded his remarks by extending to them a cordial welcome, and expressing a wish that their stay might be pleasant while in Colorado, and their deliberations effectual in helping the wage workers.

The president then appointed Brother W. F. Davis of Free Coinage Miners' Union No. 19 to act as vice president temporarily; Brother John Riordan of Phoenix No. 8, and Brother Simon Kinsman of Globe No. 60, as conductors; and Brother Jarvis of Victor No. 32, as warden.

The Credential Committee was then appointed, as follows:

Chairman, W. J. McMackin of Central City No. 3, W. A. Morgan of Excelsior Engineers No. 80, John Lowry of Granite No. 4, Albert Ryan of Jerome No. 101, G. W. Green of Paloma No. 12, Nick Comes of Eureka No. 151, James H. Rodda of De Lamar No. 53.

Convention then adjourned until 3 p. m. to give the Credential Committee time to report.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention called to order at 4:45 p. m.

Credential Committee not ready to report.

President Williams suggests that a message be sent to President Moyer. Fitting remarks were made by various delegates. Secretary was instructed to send a message of condolence and regret.

Adjourned at 5 o'clock p. m. to meet at 9 a. m. Tuesday.

Second Day, May 24th.

MORNING SESSION.

Denver, Colorado, May 24, 1904.

Convention called to order at 9 a. m. by Vice President Williams.

Report of Credential Committee read.

To the Western Federation of Miners, in Convention Assembled:

Whereas, The united labor unions of the city of Denver have watched with admiration the magnificent struggle of the Western Federation of Miners against organized capital and military despotism; and,

Whereas, The confinement of your worthy president, Charles H. Moyer, without due process of law, we believe to be one of the most dastardly crimes ever perpetrated against the right of any American citizen; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the united labor unions of the city of Denver denounce the actions of Governor Peabody, and they brand him as the arch enemy of organized labor and the leader of a band of capitalists and anarchists, who has trampled under foot the most sacred rights of an American citizen; and, be it further

Resolved, That the united labor unions of the city of Denver do extend their heartfelt sympathy and support to the Western Federation of Miners.

E. J. O'NEILL, President.
S. G. FOSDICK, Secretary.

Denver, Colorado, May 23, 1904.

W. D. Haywood, Secretary Western Federation of Miners, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sir and Brother—Kindly ask all members of your organization not to patronize William Geno's barber shop at 1014 Seventeenth street, between Curtis and Arapahoe, and the Detroit barber shop at 925 Seventeenth street, next to the Union Pacific railroad office. Wishing you all success with your convention, I am, fraternally yours,

[Seal.]

JOHN E. CONNELLY, Secretary.

The following communication from President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers of America was read:

Indianapolis, Indiana, May 21, 1904.

Mr. W. D. Haywood, Secretary, Western Federation of Miners, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sir and Brother—In accordance with action taken by our last annual convention (the fifteenth) I am issuing credentials to Chris Evans of Ohio and John P. White of Iowa to attend your coming convention, endeavoring to bring about a better feeling between your organization and the United Mine Workers of America. I trust that your convention will seat these delegates. I am, yours truly,

JOHN MITCHELL,

President United Mine Workers of America.

Pueblo, Colorado, May 23, 1904.

W. D. Haywood, Secretary Western Federation of Miners, Odd Fellows' Hall, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sir and Brother—At the fifteenth annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America a resolution was passed authorizing the national president to appoint delegates to attend the next convention of the Western Federation of Miners, with the end in view of trying to bring about a better feeling between the Western Federation of Miners and the United Mine Workers of America. In accordance with this resolution John P. White, president of District No. 13 of the state of Iowa, and Chris Evans, financial representative of the United Mine Workers of America, have been appointed as said committee by President Mitchell to attend your convention for the purpose named. If convenient, we should consider it a favor to appear at the same time and in conjunction with the committee appointed by the American Federation of Labor. Yours very truly,

CHRIS EVANS,
JOHN P. WHITE.

Denver, Colorado, May 23, 1904.

Mr. W. D. Haywood, Secretary-Treasurer Western Federation of Miners, City:

Dear Sir and Brother—In compliance with the resolution adopted at the twenty-third annual convention of the American Federation of Labor, held in Boston, Massachusetts, the undersigned committee has been appointed for the purpose of presenting to your convention the invitation contained in the resolution. We are now awaiting the pleasure of your convention. An early hearing will be appreciated. Fraternally yours,

W. D. MAHON,
R. CORNILIUS,
CHRIS EVANS,
MAX MORRIS.

Moved and seconded that the communication be received, placed on file and the request complied with. Motion carried.

The president appointed those members of the Executive Board who were not otherwise engaged a committee to call upon the representation of the United Mine Workers and American Federation of Labor, and advise them that the convention was ready to receive them. Members appointed were Baker, Simpkins, Murphy, Lewis and Kirwan.

The following communication from Photographer Nast was read:

Denver, Colorado, May 23, 1904.

*Gentlemen of the Convention:

Dear Sirs—I am very anxious to make a large group of negatives of the delegates in a body. If agreeable, I suggest the steps of the Capitol building on Sherman avenue. Yours respectfully,

CHARLES NAST.

Moved that this body go to the steps of the capitol building and have our pictures taken.

Amended: That we go to the court house. Amendment carried.

Larium, Michigan, May 17, 1904.

To the Convention of the Western Federation of Miners, to Be Held at Denver, Colorado on May 23, 1904:

Greeting—We, the officers and members of the Amygdaloid Miners' Union No. 217, Western Federation of Miners, having discussed the question of sending delegates pro and con, we have come to the conclusion that we cannot see our way clear to send any representatives this time, for several reasons. For instance, being only in our infancy, we are not strong enough financially, and if we send a delegate at this time he would lose his position with the mining corporations and be blacklisted in Houghton county; and, as unionism is only in its incipency here, we could not demand his reinstatement or any other form of redress. Therefore we send this statement with Brother Pollard, who we fully believe will capably represent the interests of the copper country miners and give you all the particulars concerning the organization here. We hope that at our next convention we may be represented by intelligent, class-conscious workmen. We think that we have made great headway since we first organized here on January 10, 1904. We have now five locals in Houghton county, with a membership of at least 1,100. We assure you that we appreciate the grand work done by Brother Pollard, who was sent here by the Western Federation of Miners of Colorado. Much as we deplore the sad conditions which the class struggle has brought about in Colorado, yet we recognize that had it not been for the Colorado strike we might not be to-day standing shoulder to shoulder in the serried ranks of organized labor. We recognize that in this struggle the working class will win. Industrial freedom will be gained. Classes will disappear. All will become workers and, finally, the human family will be blessed with lasting peace. The workers must become one race, one nation, one loyal, united class, that will submerge all others and make the workers the rulers of the world. For the working class must become the dominant class, because it is the producing class, the constructive class, the only indispensable class, supporting, sheltering and uplifting all, and in the evolution of mankind its immediate mission is to unify the human family. Therefore, workers of the world, unite with the ever-increasing members who are consecrated to industrial freedom. March to the polls and vote for that for which every hero and every martyr died. To be with them is duty, and precious privilege, too. So, beneath the arm and torch—the arm of the worker holding aloft the torch of enlightenment—vote you with them in this last struggle of man with man, to end all strife and dedicate the world to human liberty.

MARTIN NORTVEDT,
LOUGHLIN J. KELLY,
PATRICK SHEA,

Resolution No. 1. Communication from Trades and Labor Assembly of the Cripple Creek District read. Moved and seconded that the same be referred to the Committee on Good and Welfare. Motion carried.

Resolution No. 2. Communication from Terry Peak Miners' Union No. 5 read and referred to Resolution Committee.

Resolution No. 3. Communication from Henson Miners' Union No. 50, Lake City, Colorado, read and referred to the Special Committee.

Resolution No. 4. Communication from Deadwood Miners and Millmen's Union No. 14 read and referred to Good and Welfare Committee.

Vice President Williams now reads his annual report.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Brothers—Being installed vice president, I accepted the same, determined to do my whole duty to the best of my ability. After visiting the Cripple Creek district with the other members of the board, I left Colorado City June 19th and arrived at McCabe, Arizona, on the 22nd, and pleased to find the men working on fair terms. The next day went to Walker, where the strike was on in full force, and with the exception of the Monroe mine, which was working about twenty-five men, the mines shut down tight; about 170 out. Held a meeting that afternoon and that evening at McCabe. Believing that their union would be weakened if the employees of Iron King were granted a charter, McCabe Miners' Union advised the men at that mine to wait until the trouble was settled in that vicinity. Met with the Executive Committee of the Yavapai District Union, and they decided to advertise the operators of Arizona in their true light if they did not pay the union scale of wage within thirty days. On the 25th went to Iron King mine and promised to attend a meeting they had called for the next evening. Visited Poland Union that evening. On the evening of the 26th, at a called meeting of the employees of the Iron King Company, only seven out of about seventy present were in favor of applying for a charter at that time. Again held a meeting at McCabe on the 27th, and on the 29th held a very interesting meeting at Walker. On my arrival at Prescott the following day was informed by Secretary-Treasurer Hugh Burns of the Yavapai District Union that the sheriff had received a dispatch from Walker stating that Vice President Williams of the Western Federation of Miners was there advising the men to do desperate deeds, and that he should be on the grounds to prevent it. However, he did not appear. July 1st visited Jerome Miners' Union. Arrived at Searchlight July 3rd, just in time to attend a regular meeting of that union, and regret very much that the members were not working harmoniously together; and I was told by the president and several of the members that if I was not present some of the brothers would have made a rough house out of the meeting. But, after considerable discussion, I believe the members left the hall better friends than they had been since the strike began. Met with the Executive Committee on the 4th, 5th and 6th. On the 7th I received a dispatch that the operators were willing to treat with me at Los Angeles. Held a meeting that evening and decided on terms of agreement, if a settlement was effected. Left Searchlight the next morning; arrived at Los Angeles on the 9th at 10 a. m. That afternoon held a conference with the operators, and, while we could not come to any agreement, I was favorably impressed, for they were anxious that I should meet them again the next day; but when they told me the next day that the mines at Searchlight would not warrant $3.50 per day for miners, that settled it. On July 22nd I organized Mokelumne Miners' Union at Mokelumne Hill, California. On the 23rd visited Paloma Miners' Union and advised them to take action against an engineer who refused to become a member of their union because he had joined the International Union of Steam Engineers at Sutter Creek. Within three days an engineer of the Western Federation of Miners took his position at the Gwin mine and he left without bidding the boys good-bye. I thought the International Union of Steam Engineers at Sutter Creek would take up this case and give us a chance to show them "who the Western Federation of Miners were," but they passed it by. On the 24th, 25th, 26th and 27th held special meetings at Jackson, Sutter Creek and Amador City to induce the engineers to become members of the Western Federation of Miners. On the 28th visited Mokelumne Miners' Union; 29th attended a regular meeting of Amador Miner's Union; 30th organized Jackson Engineers' Union at Jackson, California. Arrived at Campo Seco 5 p. m. July 31st and at 9 p. m. a buggy arrived from Amador City to take me back that night, as the engineers at the Keystone mine were creating considerable disturbance. Arrived at Amador 4:30 a. m., August 1st, and being advised to go to San Francisco and interview the manager of the Keystone mine, left on the stage at 6 a. m. for that purpose, and, from the fact that the engineers employed at the Keystone mine who refused to become members of our organization were discharged in two weeks, proves that success had crowned my efforts. August 12th ordered to French Gulch on account of a lockout of employees of the Gladstone mine. Arrived there at 1 p. m. the 14th; regular meeting the 16th, public meeting the 17th. In an interview with the manager of the Gladstone mine he said that when a mine ceases to be profitable they close it down; but the Gladstone is acknowledged to be the best gold mine in that part of the state, and it was shut down because he would not grant his employes the same wage and hours as the other mines in that district. Out of the seventy that were locked out only twenty-five are staying with the fight; but I feel confident that the mine will start up in the near future with union men and the requests granted.

With instructions to settle up the accounts of the Smeltermen and Miners' Unions at Keswick and Iron Mountain, I arrived at Keswick at 7 p. m. August 23rd, and to say that the majority of the people there are bitter against the Western Federation of Miners is putting it very mild indeed. The Mountain Copper Company put a gate across the road at Fielding, and unless a man can give the scab signal he cannot enter therein. After paying bills to the amount of $245.88 I learned that the business men had been kicking themselves for the stand they took against the Western Federation of Miners, for the men that had been shipped in there since the strike didn't spend any money with any one up there but the company. August 27th I arrived at Fort Jones and was surprised to find the union there disbanded. The acting secretary, C. E. Wayne, was anxious that I should send the charter back to headquarters, but, realizing what a job it is to plant charters in the northern part of the state, I persuaded him to solicit members, and I believe this winter they have a fair membership. Organized Dedrick Miners' Union at Dedrick, Trinity county, California, August 31st. September 9th organized Campo Seco, California. Organized El Dorado Miners' Union September 14th and on the 16th the manager of the Union mine discharged all the miners because they had joined the union, and said that he would not let a union man go down the shaft again; but within two weeks he started up with nearly all union men. Organized Placerville Miners' Union September 20th.

Receiving orders to go to San Francisco and solicit aid for our members on strike, I arrived there on the 23rd and appealed to the San Francisco Labor Council, Machinists' Union, Building Trades Council, Alameda Trades Council at Oakland, City Front Federation and Teamsters' Union for financial aid for our members on strike and locked out.

October 3rd I received a telegram from the secretary of Calaveras Miners' Union at Angel's Camp, to come there as soon as possible. On my arrival there the next day was informed by the president of the union that the manager of the Utica company said that he would discharge every union man employed by that company within thirty days, if the union did not withdraw the committee appointed to solicit members. The following day the secretary, J. S. Wheeler, and myself interviewed the superintendent and manager of the Utica company, and, while they denied saying that they would discharge the union men, they admitted that the company was opposed to the Western Federation of Miners, but stated that they never had discharged any one for joining the union nor didn't intend to. At the regular meeting I was requested to meet with the soliciting committee Sunday evening the 11th, and I believe the committee has been dealing with a few individuals since that meeting instead of with the company. October 12th I attended the convention of the Liberty District Union at Stent and was surprised to find several of the delegates instructed to vote to demand an eight-hour work day in California. With about half of our members idle in Calaveras and Tuolumne counties on account of the scarcity of water, it would, in my opinion, be a wrong time to make any demands, and I was pleased to see the proposition voted down. Visited Jamestown Miners' Union on the 13th. On account of a misunderstanding between the members of Soulsbyville Miners' Union, was requested to visit them on the 15th. The majority voted at that meeting not to make any demands. On the 16th visited Summerville Miners' Union at Carters. The 19th appealed to the federated trades of Stockton for financial aid for our members on strike. Was informed by several of our members at Angel's Camp that it would be an easy matter to organize at Hodson and Copperopolis, but after giving both places a fair trial regret to say was unable to get them in line. On the 29th appealed to the Building Trades Council at Sacramento for financial aid for our members on strike and locked out. Was ordered to solicit funds from the local unions of San Francisco until the meeting of the Executive Board, November 30th, 9 a. m.

On account of the train being eighteen hours behind time I did not arrive at Denver until noon on the 30th. On December 11th President Moyer appointed me to take charge of the strike at Telluride and that evening left Denver for that place. As I fully expected to be ordered back to California (and, in fact, the board during the session had outlined my work there), I must confess I was not interested as much about Telluride affairs as I would have been had I known that I was to be ordered there. However, President Moyer stated that he would visit Telluride in a few days, and I felt satisfied that after his arrival everything would run smooth. I arrived at Telluride December 12th, 8:30 p. m., and after supper was escorted to the Miners' Union hall, where the members had assembled to hold their regular meeting. The members of Telluride Miners' Union were not working in harmony with each other, and at this meeting the secretary-treasurer, O. M. Carpenter, admitted that he said in a joint meeting with the federal union that the strike was lost; that they didn't have 10 cents in the treasury, and that they didn't know whether the Western Federation of Miners would allow them any money or not. It was moved and seconded that the secretary-treasurer be requested to resign. Before the question was put I kindly asked the mover of the motion to lay it on the table for one week, as I had not been in town two hours and did not fully understand the situation. My request was granted. The instructions given to me by the Executive Board of the Western Federation of Miners were explained to the strike committee Sunday morning, and that evening attended a meeting of the Ophir Miners' Union at Ophir, Colorado. On the 17th Brother Carpenter asked my advice in his case, and I frankly advised him to tender his resignation to the Executive Committee and have them present it to the meeting the next evening; but he refused to do it and said unless requested by the Executive Board of the Western Federation of Miners he would not resign. At the next meeting, rather than have a rough house, the motion was postponed indefinitely. On December 22nd nineteen of our members were arrested and put in jail on a blanket warrant sworn to by one of the bad men from Wyoming, and at 4 a. m. the next morning eleven of them were deported to Montrose jail. The excuse given to me by the judge was that there wasn't room for them all in the Telluride jail. Their preliminary hearing was set for the 29th and I wired our attorney, General Engley, who was at Colorado Springs at that time. On the 23rd the undersheriff told me that I would save myself considerable expense and lots of suffering if I would leave Telluride, as the people felt very bitter against any one coming there to take charge of the strike. I told him that it was impossible for me to leave, and that it was an easy matter for him to find me at any time. On Sunday evening, December 27th, while we were holding a social entertainment in the hall, he appeared and ordered me to get my overcoat and go with him; but after we got out on the street he told me that information was filed against me, and if I did not leave on the train in the morning I would be put in jail. I asked him what time the train left in the morning, and he said 8:25. Then I told him that I did not think I could get up in time for that train. On the 28th the district attorney annulled the charges that the men were arrested on on the 22nd, which shows the dirty work the authorities were doing. Our brothers that had been deported to Montrose were notified that they would not be allowed to return to their homes and soldiers and deputies were ordered to force them off the train before they got into San Miguel county. One member, who was out on bail, was forced off the train by three soldiers at Placerville. Knowing that the boys would have a hard time getting back to Telluride from Montrose, I felt duty bound to give them some advice and encouragement. So, on the 29th I wrote to O. M. Carpenter, secretary of No. 63, and one of the eleven that was deported, stating that our attorney, General Engley, was working on their cases, and when they got ready and willing to come back their fares would be advanced; that their restaurant and lodging bills would be paid, but no saloon bills would be allowed. This letter cut deeper than I expected, for I received an answer the following day that made me feel as though I had been sleeping with a tarantula. He gave me to understand that they would go hungry if they depended on me, and that they needed no criticism from me or any one else. From the start I knew I was not a favorite with these kind brothers, but was determined to do my whole duty just the same. On the evening of January 3rd, while our social entertainment was going on, the soldiers surrounded the building and six of them with the captain marched to the head of the hall, and after showing how slick they could handle a gun, the captain read the proclamation of martial law and said that several men would be arrested before any one would be allowed to leave the building. Immediately after I was placed in the care of the soldiers, the noble undersheriff, who had twice notified me to leave Telluride, took the liberty to tell me that I would get up early enough for the train the next morning. I replied that "every dog will have his day." After gathering up thirty men they marched us down to Major Hill's headquarters, and after he got satisfaction out of the questions he asked, we were paraded around the principal street for about an hour, with a thing with a bayonet on each side of us giving strict orders not to speak. We were then searched and put into jail. About midnight when our entertainment was about concluded the iron door was opened and Gen. Eugene Engley, our attorney, was admitted. At 8 o'clock the next morning we were lined up with the soldiers and marched to the depot, put aboard the cars and, under guard of the boys with the bayonets, taken to Ridgway. Before releasing us the captain warned us not to return to San Miguel county or we would be put in a bullpen and suffer severely, for the soldiers had strict orders, and they would obey them to the letter. As we could not find accommodation for our crew at Ridgway we purchased tickets for Montrose, arriving there at 12:50 p. m. Receiving word from President Moyer to make arrangements for keeping our men, I rented the Home restaurant and meals were served the same as at Telluride. On January 6th the secretary of Ouray Miners' Union notified me that it was my duty to take into my confidence the secretary-treasurer of Telluride Miners' Union, Brother O. M. Carpenter. I frankly told him that after the many disgraceful acts he had committed it was impossible. Refusing to obey Brother McLean's orders, he, with the kind aid of others, had a petition circulated for my removal. But I was given a fair chance to save myself, for at a meeting held on the 9th at the court house, the kind brothers that were begging signatures for the petition stated that they would gladly put the petition in the fire if I would promise to take Brother O. M. Carpenter into my confidence. I kindly thanked the brothers and requested them to forward the petition to headquarters. To investigate the cause of this petition President Moyer arrived at Montrose January 22nd, and on the 26th I was ordered to California and instructed to visit every local of the Western Federation of Miners in the state and urge the members to amalgamate closer than ever before, to sink all differences that might exist and stand together solidly. For this purpose I visited the following locals: Jackson Engineers and Miners' Union, Sutter Creek Miners' Union, Amador Miners' Union, Mokelumne Miners' Union, Calaveras Miners' Union, Wood's Creek Miners' Union, Jamestown Miners' Union, Columbia Miners' Union.

While holding a meeting at the latter place, I received this telegram from headquarters: "Locked out at Harrison Gulch. Go there as soon as possible." On my arrival at Harrison Gulch, I learned that the manager of the Midas gold mine had locked out one hundred and eight of his employes to uphold a scab that admitted that he scabbed at the Union Iron Works at San Francisco, at Keswick and French Gulch. The committee that waited on him demanded that he leave the mine as he had been a traitor. He readily agreed to do so and requested his time, but told the superintendent that the miners insisted on him quitting. The superintendent said that he didn't care if two thousand miners wanted him to quit, the company would protect him against them, and the next day posted notices for the employes to come to the office for their time. The manager told a committee that went to interview him that if they wanted to work in that camp they would have to burn their charter. As it was impossible to treat with such a thing as this manager, I advised the Executive committee to communicate with the principal stockholder of the company and request an interview, which was granted and three of the committee sent to Sacramento to present the facts in the case. The day before I left California to attend the meeting of the Executive Board, I received a letter from Harrison Gulch stating that the manager of the Midas mine requested the president of local No. 188 to send the members to the foreman, who would put them to work as soon as he found places for them and that the scab who had caused the trouble was shipped from the camp.

Continuing, I visited Winthrop Miners' Union No. 167, French Gulch Miners' Union No. 141, Selby Smelter Workers' Union No. 173, Mojave Miners' Union No. 51, Randsburg Miners' Union No. 44, Tuolumne Miners' Union No. 13, Wood's Creek Miners' Union No. 127, Jacksonville Miners' Union No. 202, Sierra Gorda Miners' Union No. 39, Pinion Blanco Miners' Union No. 48, Soulsbyville Miners' Union No. 109, Summerville Miners' Union No. 87, Bodie Miners' Union No. 61, Placerville Miners' Union No. 206, El Dorado Miners' Union No. 120.

While at the latter place I received a dispatch from the secretary of Amador Miners' Union No. 135 to come there immediately; strike on at the Gover and Fremont mines. I arrived there the next day and learned that the men refused to work at the above named mines while the company employed a man that would not pay up his arrearages and defied the union. The company upheld this man, but as soon as the strike was called he was turned out in the cold and I look for a favorable settlement at Amador City.

Again continuing, visited Sutter Creek Miners' Union No. 133, Paloma Miners' Union No. 12, Campo Seco Miners' Union No. 204.

While attending the meeting at Sutter Creek, received a telegram from Secretary-Treasurer Haywood, stating that the Executive Board would meet at Denver May 11th. To attend this meeting I arrived here on the 10th.

JOHN C. WILLIAMS,

Member Executive Board, Western Federation of Miners.

Committee who called upon the representatives of the United Mine Workers and American Federation of Labor reported that the representatives of these organizations will be pleased to come before the convention at 10:30 to-morrow. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Member of the Executive Board, J. T. Lewis, reads his annual report.

To President Charles Moyer and to the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:
Dear Sir and Brother—In compliance with the instructions as prescribed in article III., section 2, of the constitution of the Western Federation of Miners, I herewith submit a report of my official duties, since my election to the Executive Board of the Western Federation of Miners in June, 1903.

Immediately upon the adjournment of the Executive Board, June 17, 1903, I, together with the other members of the board and yourself, went to the Cripple Creek district (as per instructions of the eleventh annual convention) and met with the Executive Committee of District Union No. 1 in the hall of Free Coinage Miners' Union at Altman. The situation at Colorado City being thoroughly discussed, it was unanimously decided to leave the matter in the hands of Bros. Haywood, Copley and yourself and the Executive Committee of District Union No. 1, with full power to act.

On the 19th I left Cripple Creek for Randsburg, California, where the members of Randsburg Miners' Union had been on strike against the Yellow Aster Mining Company since June, 1903, for an increase of wages. Upon my arrival there I met with Bro. Nelson, president, and Bro. Jones, financial secretary. After going over the situation in detail, we decided that the best course to pursue was to arrange a meeting with the officials of the company, if possible, and try to settle the differences existing between the union and the company. We succeeded in meeting with Mr. Barton, superintendent of the company, and upon informing him of our mission, he told us that he had been instructed by his company to not recognize any committee from the union, and that they were going to operate the mine under the old scale of wages, and fight the Federation to the bitter end. At a special meeting of the union the same evening the matter was discussed thoroughly and the membership decided unanimously to stand by their demands; but as many of the members had been personal friends of the president of the company, Mr. Singleton, before "Dame Fortune" had smiled upon him, believing him to be friendly disposed toward his employes, thought that if he could be seen, and the matter put before him in its true light, that he would concede to the demands of the union, or that a satisfactory adjustment of the differences could be arrived at. So in compliance with the wish of a great majority of the membership, I, together with the president, Bro. Nelson, went to Los Angeles for the purpose of meeting Mr. Singleton. We succeeded in meeting with him upon the 29th and presented the demands of the union. He assured us that he would lay the matter before the directors, at their meeting upon July 1st, assuring us that he would use his best efforts to have them act favorably on our demands, also that we would receive a definite answer on July 3d. We waited in Los Angeles until then, and upon meeting the gentleman again, we were very much disappointed to find that he had changed front and absolutely refused to have anything whatever to do with us, saying that he "intended running his mines in his own way and would not be dictated to by any band of damned agitators."

I returned to Randsburg July 4th, met with the union at their regular meeting on July 5th, and made the necessary arrangements for relief of the strikers. We also formulated an aggressive plan of campaign, which has been vigorously prosecuted ever since. I had occasion to visit there in October last, and I am satisfied that the officers and members have used their best efforts to reach a settlement. Yet, I am sorry to say, there seems to be no more chance of reaching a settlement of their difficulty than there was when the strike was declared last June.

On July 7th I received a letter from Bro. A. A. Moross, president of Mojave No. 51, stating that he wanted to see me at once. Leaving Randsburg that evening, I went direct to Mojave and Bro. Moross informed me that the treasurer of the union, Davis, was short in his accounts $297.00. We talked the matter over and decided that if the money was not refunded that we would prosecute him to the full extent of the law. The same has been done and Davis was found guilty of embezzlement and dealt with accordingly.

While there I received a telegram from Bro. E. W. Weare, secretary of Liberty District Union No. 6, stating that there was trouble at Stent, and requesting my presence. I left at once, reaching Stent on July 9th. I found that the Tuolumne Miners' Union No. 73 was on a strike against the various mining companies operating in their jurisdiction for an increase of wages. I met with the Executive Committee of the union, also with the union at their regular meeting that night. It was decided to visit the superintendents of the various mines and endeavor, if possible, to bring about an adjustment of the difficulty; so, in company with the Executive Committee, we waited upon the various managers and met with some encouragement. The result being that after having many conferences, a settlement was effected July 19th between the Jumper, Santa Ysabel and Dutch mining companies, which was ratified by the membership, the men returning to work on the 20th.

The App company refused to settle with us on the same terms, and up to the present time have failed to operate.

During my stay in the district in July, in connection with the strike at Stent, I visited the following unions: Woods Creek, Jamestown, Soulsbyville, Sommerville and Confidence and found them all in very good shape. I received a letter from Bro. J. C. Williams, dated Jackson, California. We arranged to meet at Jackson and I left Stent on the 27th. Met with Calaveras No. 55 at their regular meeting that night and had a very enthusiastic meeting. Arriving in Jackson on the 28th, I met with Bro. Williams and I decided to stay there for a few days with him, and render what little assistance I could towards effecting a settlement of the differences then existing between the Engineers' Union and the Federation. In company with Bro. Williams I visited Jackson, Amador, Mokelumne Hill and Bay State Unions. Seeing that Bro. Williams had the situation well in hand, and was doing all that could be done to bring about a settlement, and was acting for the best interests of the Federation, I left for Searchlight, Nevada, having received a communication from Bro. Higgins stating that he thought there was a likelihood of a settlement being effected in the controversy, then and now, pending between the Searchlight Miners' Union and the mining companies of that district. Reaching there on August 5th, I found that the members of the union had the situation well in hand and in company with the Executive Committee, tried to meet with the mine operators, but met with no success. Though I have had occasion to visit Searchlight three times during their struggle, I have always found the officers and members of the union determined to fight their battle to a fare you well, and in view of the fact that the fight is the only one we have had to contend with this year, in the state of Nevada, too much importance can not be placed on the outcome of the struggle. The outcome looks rather gloomy, but I can not see any course left open to the Federation but to stand by them. Unfortunately, there has been a slight misunderstanding between headquarters and Searchlight Union in the question of relief. Funds have nearly always been a month late in getting in, causing considerable inconvenience in the payment of bills, etc.

I remained there until August 7th, and, realizing that the Executive Committee had the situation well in hand, I left for Globe, Arizona, on the 8th, reaching there on the 10th. I remained at home until the 20th. Having received a letter from Bro. Haywood stating that he had received word from a member of the U. B. of R. R. that it would be a very easy matter to organize the miners at Bisbee and the smeltermen at Douglas, I went there. I did my best to organize the men in both places, staying in Douglas from the 22d to the 26th, and in Bisbee until October 1st. In view of the fact that the Copper Queen Mining Company has always met our organization with united opposition, the men that were unfortunate enough to be working for them at that time absolutely refused to have anything whatever to do with a labor organization.

From there I went to Prescott to investigate the exact conditions of the controversy then existing between the Yavapai District Union and the mining companies of Yavapai county. Upon my arrival there, September 3d, I met with Bro. F. P. Starr, business agent of Yavapai District Union. He informed me that the most serious part of the difficulty was the blanket injunction that had been issued by Judge Sloan, restraining all union men and their supporters from interfering in any manner (advertising the strike or otherwise) with the mining companies in the operation of their mines.

As per instructions from headquarters, the officers of Yavapai District Union had engaged the services of the firm of Wilson, Ross & O'Sullivan, attorneys, to defend their interests. The first hearing of the case was set for September 8th, and, notwithstanding the fact that not a single act of violence had been committed during the strike, on November 14th Judge Sloan handed down a decision making the injunction permanent.

September 4th I visited Walker Union and found the membership determined to stand with the battle for better conditions until the last. At this stage of the game it was deemed advisable by the officers of the different unions involved to get union men from other parts of the Federation to obtain employment in the unfair mines, which plan met with my approval, and has been worked successfully ever since; the result being that at this time the mines in Yavapai county are paying the scale of wages demanded by the union and are being worked by union men.

On September 5th I visited Groom Creek Union and had a very good meeting. On the 7th I went to McCabe and took part in the Labor Day celebration held by McCabe Miners' Union, returning to Prescott on the 8th in company with the officers of Yavapai District Union to take part in the first hearing of the injunction, intending to visit Tiger Union the next day. But I received a telegram from A. J. Higgins to come to Searchlight. I left at once for that point, arriving there on September 11th. I found that the mining companies were making preparations to ship in strike breakers and the membership wanted my advice as to what to do. From that date until the 20th we were successful in preventing the companies from getting any men. On that day, with the assistance of Jake Johnston, sheriff of Lincoln county, and nineteen armed deputies, the Quartette Mining Company succeeded in bringing sixteen strike breakers across the desert from Manvel. I remained there, directing the most aggressive policy that we could conceive of, until September 28th, when I received a wire from you instructing me to proceed to Mojave at once. Reaching there on September 30th, I met with the union at a special meeting that evening. The cause of the controversy was the refusal of the mining companies to pay the increase of 50 cents per day for sinking and raising. The demand for the above-mentioned increase had been presented to the different operators, but so far, in view of the fact that the mines at Mojave are worked by tunneling, and previous to the time the union made their demands, sufficient ground was opened up, so as to enable them to operate without sinking or raising from June till October. Now the sinking and raising had to be done and they wanted the miners to do so at the rate of $3.00 per shift. This, the members of the union refused to do. The matter being thoroughly discussed, it was the unanimous opinion of the membership that if a committee was appointed and the scale of wages as decided upon, presented to the different superintendents, that it would be possible to arrive at a settlement that would be satisfactory to all concerned. The committee being appointed, the meeting adjourned. Next day, in company with the committee, I met with the superintendents of the Echo and the Exposed Treasure mines. They would be very willing to concede the increase asked for if we would allow them to sink and raise at so much per foot. This we refused to do. Seeing that it was impossible for us to get all the superintendents together before the 14th, I met with the union at their regular meeting, October 3d. There was a great deal of dissatisfaction among the members owing to the fact that the companies had endeavored to have some of the miners sink for the old scale. In view of the fact that we were involved in so many strikes, I urged the members to weigh the matter carefully and to go on strike only as a last resort. As it was the wish of the union for me to be present with the committee at the conference on the 14th, I left for Randsburg the 6th. While there I met with the unions and found the men just as determined as ever. The Yellow Aster company was running the small mill of thirty stamps, the mill of one hundred stamps being idle.

October 12th I left for Mojave to be on hand at the conference to be held on the 14th as previously arranged. The 13th met with Bro. Moross, but owing to his having met with an accident and being confined to his room, we decided that Bro. McCarthy and myself would meet with the operators and endeavor, if possible, to effect a settlement. On the 14th met with superintendent of the Exposed Treasure. He assured us that he was sorry that he could not grant us the conference on account of the absence of the other superintendents that were interested. However, he said that he would notify the union when they were ready to meet the committee and discuss the wage scale. Since that time I was notified that the committee and the operators met on October 22d and that an agreement had been reached and same ratified by the union, whereby a certain scale of wages was to be paid for a period of one year, and I feel satisfied that in accepting the agreement that the union acted wisely and for the best interests of our organization.

October 15th left for Searchlight; found upon my arrival that the union had settled with the Good Hope company, granting all the union asked for, also that there had been some delay as to relief funds, the union at that time being short of funds and in debt. Notifying headquarters to that effect, I left for Arizona October 25th. I had received several letters from Gold Roads Union that they were in a bad shape. I decided that as that union and Snowball had not been visited since the time of their organization, that I would visit them. On October 29th I met with Snowball Union and found it in excellent condition. The membership fully alive to their own interests and the members standing up for their rights like men.

Upon my arrival at Gold Roads, October 30th, I found conditions very different. From the very inception of this union it had been controlled body and soul by the mining company there. The two officers that had been elected when the union was organized were wholly responsible for such a state of affairs.

I used my best efforts to stir the membership up to their duties, had Bro. Welch, financial secretary, resign, on the grounds that he was negligent in the performance of his duties. Held three meetings with them, had new officers elected, but I am sorry to state that the conditions have not improved any. The company still persists in discharging any of their employees that take an active interest in union affairs.

On November 3d I left for Jerome, Arizona, reaching there on the 4th. Met with the union at their regular meeting. Had a good meeting. Though the officers of the union are doing their best to build up the union, and have every man that is eligible to membership join, they have a great opposition to contend with on the part of the company.

November 6th I went to Prescott; from there to McCabe. Met with the union on their regular meeting. The books of the union seemed to be in a bad state, owing to the carelessness of Business Agent Starr. The books have been carefully audited since then and

I am pleased to say that there was no shortage. In view of the fact that the Executive Board was to meet in Denver on the 30th, I decided to stay in Yavapai county and give what assistance I could to the various locals. November 8th and 9th I was in Poland rustling members; the 15th met with Groom Creek; had a very good meeting; found the union to be building up rapidly and all the mines in their jurisdiction paying the scale.

November 16th at Walker, and met with the union; found it gaining in membership, and the mines all paying the scale of Yavapai District Union. The 17th went to Iron King and met with the union. The question of affiliating with the District Union was brought up and discussed. Bro. J. P. Ryan did considerable electioneering against it and had the matter laid on the table.

Notwithstanding the fact that he knew he was working against the constitution of the Federation, he worked against it.

When the attention of the membership was called to the constitution of the Western Federation of Miners they decided to affiliate at once.

November 18th left for Crown King; met with Tiger Union on the evening of the 19th. This union is situated sixty miles from Prescott and can only be reached by stage. Too much credit can not be given to the membership of this union, for their indomitable energy in establishing a local under the conditions they had to contend with there.

Returning to Prescott on the 21st, met with Poland, had good meeting; though this union has had to meet the opposition of the Congress Gold Company, they are still doing business at the old stand.

On the 25th I went to McCabe and met with Yavapai District Union. The only business of importance that was transacted was the reducing of the per capita tax from 50 cents to 25 cents, and dispensing with the business agent. Bro. Starr reported that he had been informed that the financial secretary of Poland was short in his accounts. I expressed my willingness to go with him and examine the books that night, but he very suddenly discovered that he had a prior engagement. November 27th I left Prescott for Denver to be on hand at the meeting of the Executive Board on November 30th, the board being in daily session until December 12th.

As per your instructions, I left for Bisbee, Arizona, on the evening of December 12th. Owing to delayed trains, I failed to reach Bisbee before the morning of the 16th. Met with Bro. Kennedy and he explained to me that he thought it was possible to organize a local there when he sent the telegram to headquarters. But upon the companies getting the news that he was going to organize, he was met with opposition he had not looked for. All of the fraternal societies took sides with the companies and his crowd of men was reduced from 300 to about twenty-five in less than two days. Believing that it would not be to the best interests of the Federation to start a local with so few men, I left Bisbee en route for Hodson, California, December 18th.

Arrived at Hodson on the 20th and found that the Royal Consolidated Company had declared a lockout against their employes, because they had the audacity to affiliate with our organization. Previous to my arrival at Hodson, preparations had been made to furnish relief to the men on strike by the Executive Committee of the union. The company had succeeded in having Judge Hanford of the United States Circuit Court issue a temporary restraining order, same being served on all members of the union and all their sympathizers in Calaveras county, Bro. J. B. Fulmer, president of Liberty District Union, having engaged J. G. Maguire and Hermann Walker, attorneys, to fight the case, previous to my being on the ground. No other course was left open to me but to let them proceed. I made preparations to cut off the supply of men from the company, having committees in Stockton, San Francisco and other places for that purpose. From then until January 15th we had decidedly the best of it. At that time the company had got sufficient strike breakers so as to enable them to resume operations on a small scale. On the 20th, seeing that it was useless to keep union boarding house open and support the members for an indefinite period, I deemed it advisable to withdraw the financial support of the Federation and divide what provisions were left among the men with families that were involved and let the single men go and obtain employment elsewhere. After arranging all details, I left for home on the 26th, intending to remain out of the field for a month at least. On the 31st I received a telegram from Bro. Edgar Middleton, whom I had left to do some work at Hodson, requesting my return at once. Not knowing what was the matter, I left home on February 1st, meeting with Bros. Middleton, Meehan and McNamara on the 3d. They were of the opinion that if the Federation would keep up the fight against the Royal company by calling off their supply of men, also by keeping a man stationed at Hodson to keep the few men that were employed at the other mines in line, that we would eventually succeed in establishing a local there. After giving the matter careful consideration and figuring the cost would not exceed $200.00 per month, I submitted same to headquarters, and on it meeting with approval, I acted accordingly. It is also pleasing for me to say that up to the present time we have had very good results. Though it is four months ago since the fight against the Royal company was inaugurated, they have never run more than twenty stamps at one time, though the capacity of their mill is one hundred and twenty stamps.

During my stay in the district I visited Calaveras Union, being called there on January 2d to explain why the assessment of $3.00 was levied.

On the 5th I met with the union at Sutter Creek and found that there was much dissatisfaction among the membership over the settlement of their difficulty in the latter part of December.

On the 13th went to Jamestown in connection with the difficulty that had been existing between Tuolumne Miners' Union and the App Mining Company and met with Jamestown Union; on the 14th met with Tuolumne Union. Had good meetings at both places. Met with the Executive Committee of Liberty District Union and went over the situation in detail. Decided that if we could bring Captain Nevills to terms without involving the members of Jamestown Union we would do so.

On February 11th I received a telegram from the Executive Committee of Tuolumne Union to come to Stent at once, stating that new developments had arisen in connection with their controversy with the App company. Arriving there on the 12th, I met with the officers of Jamestown No. 185 and Tuolumne No. 73. We discussed the situation and owing to the fact that Captain Nevills persisted in his efforts to operate the App mine under the old scale, also that he was shipping men to the Rawhide mine and transferring them to the App, thereby using the membership of the Jamestown Union as a club with which to fight Tuolumne Union in their strike at the App, we called a special meeting of Jamestown Union on the 16th and presented the situation to the membership. The union voted unanimously to stand by Tuolumne No. 73, who had been fighting for eight months to better their conditions. A strike was declared against the Rawhide mine on the morning of February 17th. The walkout as far as the union was concerned, was complete. The company's first move was to ship in men. Next day they appealed to the federal court for an injunction. Though with all their efforts, they have not obtained a sufficient number of strike breakers to work either mine. March 16th three of the brothers, namely, Bros. S. Marsden, president No. 185, A. Sciaroni and Robert Garth, were served with notice to appear in the United States Circuit Court to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court. Realizing that we have a hard man to deal with in Captain Nevills, and that nothing would suit him better than to railroad the brothers to the penitentiary, I immediately communicated with Attorney N. G. Walker and made arrangements for their defense. In compliance with your instructions, I left Jamestown on February 17th for Searchlight, Nevada, arriving there on the 20th, remaining there until March 2d, and as I have already reported to you on the conditions there, at that time, I hardly think it necessary to refer to it further. I left Searchlight for Tuolumne county on the 2d, reaching Jamestown on the 4th. Since then I have been directing a most aggressive policy against the Rawhide and App mining companies. March 15th I visited Jacksonville No. 202, and found them very much alive in the matter of rustling membership. From March 16th to April 24th, I remained at Jamestown in charge of the strike at Rawhide and App mine. During that time I was collecting evidence in our behalf in connection with the injunction and contempt proceedings then and now pending in the United States Circuit Court. While there I visited Wood's Creek Miners' Union and found it in a fairly good condition. On the 24th I left for home, remaining there until May the 8th, when I left to be on hand at the board meeting May 11th.

From June, 1903, until May 23d, I have traveled 13,618 miles at a cost of $590.50. I have sent forty-three telegrams and have written over six hundred and fifty letters at a cost of $30.00. I have visited twenty-six unions. Many of them I have met with from two to four times. Have received $1,480.00 in salary. During the year I have received $600.00 for strike relief purposes from the secretary-treasurer and will return an itemized statement of how same was expended.

As I have been compelled to be brief in my report, any part that is not clear to you I will explain to you upon request. Should you want any references let me know. I have notes of my daily work and all letters since my election. Owing to my time being taken up in the many difficulties confronting the Federation in California, Arizona and Nevada, I have necessarily had to neglect the work of organization, though from my knowledge of this district, there are many mining camps where locals should be established. Many of these places are owned and controlled by one mining company, and it may be rather difficult to organize against their opposition, as the institution would be very apt to bring on a lockout.

Speaking from experience in my district, I believe that our organization must adopt a more direct and aggressive political policy, if we wish to live and carry on the work of educating and uplifting the working class. I quite agree with your opinion as to the futility of the strike and boycott as weapons of offense and defense, and suggest that you bring this question up in your annual report and endeavor to formulate a more feasible plan of action.

In conclusion I wish to say that although we have differed in our opinions on certain minor affairs, I can assure you that I am always ready and willing to go the limit and act in harmony with you in any proposition looking towards the betterment and uplifting of the working class in general, and our organization in particular.

Thanking you for all past favors, I am, Yours fraternally,

J. T. LEWIS,
Member Executive Board.

Delegates now listen to the reading of the annual report of Secretary-Treasurer W. D. Haywood.

SECRETARY-TREASURER'S REPORT.

Denver, Colorado, May 23, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Gentlemen—For your consideration and approval I herewith submit my financial statement and report for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1904, endeavoring to show every feature relative to the finances of the organization during that period. Commencing with receipts, the smallest sum is itemized and a receipt issued for the amount; the expenditures have also been carefully itemized and can easily be audited by referring to the bills, vouchers and cancelled checks. When making remittances I have, as a rule, purchased bank drafts, which has proven a safeguard, as the same can be duplicated in case of loss in the mails. That you may readily understand what each amount has been expended for, I have compiled a tabulated statement showing the cost of relief, salary, office supplies, organizers, and under the head of "Miscellaneous" is presented other disbursements in detail.

The expense of maintaining members of the different unions on strike and lockout during the year has been very large. Under the head of "Tabulated Expenditures" I have shown the amounts furnished the locals, with the totals for each month's relief. In the Cripple Creek district I believe that the cost of maintaining the members on strike has been reduced to a minimum. As a strike measure, at an early date, it was deemed advisable to enter the grocery business. This was done, commencing on a small scale. Four different stores were installed, and have since been operated with splendid success, with the twofold effect of embarrassing our worst enemies, the Citizens' Alliance, to the extent of closing many of its members out of business, at the same time establishing a method of distributing relief and demonstrating the spirit and ability of union men to co-operate in maintaining, operating and conducting a commercial enterprise. I have attached statements from the managers of the four different stores showing the condition of business, the liabilities and assets on April 1, 1904. These statements show that by careful management and safe investment you have accumulated and built up a business in that district worth in hard cash at least twenty-five ($25,000) thousand dollars. The possibilities which these facts present should receive the earnest consideration of every member of the Western Federation of Miners, if the old axiom "dollar saved is a dollar earned" stands for anything. Here is the opportunity for every member to increase his wages, by judiciously investing the funds of your union in co-operatively owned stores, that you may purchase the necessities of life at prices you dictate, or if deemed advisable, a fund could be created for the express purpose of establishing as rapidly as possible the Western Federation of Miners' stores in favorable localities, operating under the immediate supervision of the general organization. I offer these suggestions, believing that the time is opportune for action retaliatory to a system that regards a workingman and his family as the lawful prey of all commercial interests.

I have also included in my report a statement of all moneys received as donations to the eight-hour strike fund. The liberal contributions have materially assisted us in maintaining our people.

Although the organization has been involved in the most serious and prolonged strikes ever experienced in its history, these conditions have in no way impaired the strength of the Federation; in fact, more new unions have been organized during the last year than for any previous twelve months. On the 11th of April last the United Mineral Mine Workers, composed of twenty-two local unions, by unanimous vote in convention, agreed to affiliate with the Western Federation of Miners. The work of installing and chartering the unions is being done at this time.

The union at large has grown but little during the year. It would seem that with some energetic work much good could be accomplished in this direction.

The funds of the defunct Diamondville Union, amounting to $1,248, with interest accrued, is still subject to bond. Suit should be instituted to secure the certificate of deposit now in possession of Mrs. Kinghorn of Kemmerer, Wyoming, wife of one of the trustees, now deceased, and also to enjoin the National Bank of Rock Springs from renewing or paying the money on certificate. This done, the money can be placed in the general fund.

A casual glance at the general summary of my report showing the large amount of finances handled by your officers during the year should demonstrate the necessity of electing careful, painstaking and worthy men to positions of trust. Your officers should be safeguarded in every possible way.

During the year I have sent out 16,379 letters, 113,560 circulars, 355 express packages, 758 pieces of registered mail, 1,600 newspapers and 189 telegrams. It is impossible to transact this volume of business without some errors, though I am pleased to say that, judging from complaints received, the mistakes have been but few.

To the local secretaries I owe a debt of gratitude for the kind, courteous and prompt manner in which business has been conducted with headquarters. In explanation I would say that if my responses have not been as prompt as usual it is owing entirely to the very unusual conditions under which we have been laboring.

While your officers have been called upon to shoulder considerable of the burden and responsibility arising out of the most bitter industrial conflict ever waged against a labor organization, it is to the valiant members of the local unions that have been on strike that you must sing your praises; to the brave miners of Cripple Creek and San Juan, to the courageous mill and smeltermen of the state of Colorado and their Spartan wives are the credit due, for the victory now so nearly won. They have borne unflinchingly the brunt of the fight, always loyal to the cause, true to their obligation, at all times standing shoulder to shoulder in a struggle that has been more cruel than war. Every local officer, every man or woman that has been in any way prominent during the strike, has suffered untold hardships, indignities, such as only blackest brains could invent; your president incarcerated in a bullpen, not for crime, but for doing his duty as a man. In face of all these frightful conditions our members are more closely amalgamated, the spirit of brotherhood and fraternity permeates us as never before, our cause is just and right, and we are going to win a victory that will mean the ultimate abolishment of wage slavery.

Upon surrendering the office as your secretary-treasurer to, I hope, a worthy successor, it is with a sense of having done my duty; more than this no man can expect. If my feeble efforts will ever in any way better the condition of humanity, my fondest hopes will be fulfilled. I thank you for the honor that has been conferred upon me, which makes it possible in years to come to say that I have been an officer of the Western Federation of Miners, the grandest of all organizations.

Trusting that my report will be satisfactory and prove correct in every detail, I remain, yours fraternally,

WILLIAM D. HAYWOOD, Secretary-Treasurer.

WILLIAM D. HAYWOOD.

Report of secretary-treasurer was referred to the Auditing Committee.

Moved that the hours of daily session be from 9 a. m. to 12 m., and from 2 p. m. until 5 p. m. Motion carried.

Adjourned at 5 p. m. until 9 a. m.

Third Day, May 25th.

MORNING SESSION.

Denver, Colorado, May 25, 1904.

Convention called to order at 9 a. m., Vice President Williams in the chair.

Roll call finds the following delegates absent: Max Malich of No. 93, sick; W. A. Gracias of No. 93; Albert W. Carter of No. 196; Louis Roberti of No. 199.

Minutes of previous day read, corrected and approved.

President appoints Brother H. L. Lane on the Grievance Committee in place of H. H. Keays.

Member of the Executive Board J. C. Murphy read his annual report:

To the Officers and Delegates of the Western Federation of Miners in Twelfth Annual Convention Assembled:

I desire to submit at this time a report of my doings for the past year as member of the Executive Board.

June 22.—I arrived in Butte from Denver. I went to Anaconda, attending a meeting of the Smeltermen's Union, being disappointed, as I expected to meet President Moyer. There was a message from President Moyer read at that meeting. The message read is as follows: "Train delayed; can not attend meeting." Came back to Butte next morning; met President Moyer in Butte; went back to Anaconda with him; stayed in Anaconda that night; came back to Butte next day. I sent in a communication to the Blacksmiths' Union, asking them to turn in their charter to the American Labor Union and take out a charter from the Western Federation of Miners, stating that at a joint meeting of the Executive Board of both organizations they concluded those were the proper steps to take. I also went before the Ropemen's Union and asked them to affiliate with the Western Federation of Miners. They promised me they would as soon as Dan McDonald would come back, he being then out of the city. I received a letter from Mr. Freyler of Corbin, saying they were ready to organize a local of the Western Federation of Miners, asking me to go there.

July 4.—Myself and the secretaries of the Butte Miners' Union, with several other members from Butte, went to Anaconda to attend the parade given by the Smeltermen's Union.

July 8.—I went to Helena; from there to East Helena; attended a meeting of that union. I found that half the members of that union were willing to make a demand for an increase of wages and go on strike if not granted. I thought it a dangerous proposition, as half the members were against it. Being directed by the constitution and by-laws of the Western Federation of Miners, and advised by some of the members who voted in the affirmative, I thought it best to let the matter drop. I advised them to get every man working in and around that smelter into the union, and sometime afterwards we might be able to accomplish something. I was told at that meeting that the company never did recognize organized labor. I came back to Corbin and met Mr. Freyler. He told me that they had applied for a charter. I gave him all the information I could; furnished him with a copy of the constitution and by-laws of the Western Federation of Miners. I asked those men what they intended doing after they were thoroughly organized; they said the miners of that locality were getting $3.50 per day, and that those men working in and around the mines had no grievance, but the millmen were getting only $2.50 per day. They said as soon as they were thoroughly organized they would make a demand for $3.00 per day for those millmen. I advised them before going on strike to be sure to have their action sanctioned by at least three-fourths of their members and approved by the Executive Board. I came back to Butte and notified President Moyer that those men in Corbin intended making a demand for an increase of wages, and if not granted, would go on strike. President Moyer answered my letter, saying that at any time those men wanted to make a demand and strike to better their conditions, they had his approval and the support of the Western Federation of Miners. I notified the boys at Corbin of President Moyer's communication. I met Mr. Doyle, a member of the Machinists' Union of Butte, and asked him to bring the matter of affiliating with the Western Federation of Miners before his union. He said he would and that he knew the proper organization to be affiliated with was the Western Federation of Miners. He said when the machinists organized they applied at headquarters of the Western Federation of Miners for a charter and could not get it on the grounds that some of their members were working at contract shops and could not become members of the Western Federation of Miners.

August 4.—I attended a meeting of the Ropemen's Union of Butte and asked them to affiliate with the Western Federation of Miners. They promised me to take action as soon as Dan McDonald came back, he being out of town at the time. I went to Bozeman that night; went to Chestnut next day, met a number of the coal miners of that district, all members of the United Mine Workers. I went to Storrs next day and met a few miners having Federation cards in their pockets; those men told me they would be ready to start up the coal mines about the 1st of September; said they would speak to as many men as they could depend on about organizing a local of the Western Federation of Miners. I promised them I would be back again as soon as the camp started up. I went to Livingston, Chestnut and then back to Butte. When I arrived in Butte there was a letter for me in the Miners' Union hall from Corbin Union saying they were on strike there since the first of the month. I went to Helena that day and came back to Corbin next morning; met the president of the union; he said they made a demand of $3.00 per day for those millmen who were getting but $2.50. The company told them they could not get it; they walked out and shut up the works. I advised them to stay with it and pull together. I went to Helena and back to Butte.

August 21.—I received a letter from Corbin saying the strike was called off; that the company granted them their demand and the men went back to work, getting 50 cents a day more than they were getting prior to going on strike. Those boys were out three weeks and didn't ask the Federation for a dollar. I notified President Moyer of the success the union men of Corbin met with.

September.—I received a communication from President Moyer, asking me to attend to the East Helena Union. I went to East Helena on September 2d; attended a meeting of their union and found things in poor shape; the members told me that it was the opinion that the Citizens' Alliance of Helena and East Helena, which was at that time operating in a flourishing condition in those towns, was trying to break up their union; they also said that it was due to the action of the Citizens' Alliance that their membership was decreasing every day. I advised them to do the best they could and try to get them back, and whenever they were thoroughly organized and ready to better their condition, they had the support of the Western Federation of Miners. Secretary of the union, Bro. Groose, stated at that meeting that he had received a communication from headquarters assuring them that they had the support of the Federation at any time they wanted to better their condition. I went with a committee from the Smeltermen's Union of Butte to Dan McDonald and asked him to instruct the secretary of the Workingmen's Union to transfer all men working around mines and smelters to the Smeltermen's Union, as they were working within the jurisdiction of the Western Federation of Miners. Dan McDonald granted our request.

October 10.—I went before the Ropemen's Union and again asked them to affiliate with the Western Federation of Miners, and on the 16th a committee from the ropemen told me they took a vote on the matter of affiliating and it was carried unanimously that they notify me to attend the next meeting as they were ready to organize.

October 18.—I went to Iron Mountain, organized the Iron Mountain Miners' Union. I came back to Butte, organized the Ropemen's Union. Went before the machinists and asked them to affiliate with the Western Federation of Miners. They promised me that they would notify headquarters of the International Association of Machinists and that they would consider the matter thoroughly.

November 25.—I left Butte for Denver to attend a meeting of the Executive Board, which was in session until December 12th; came back to Butte, Bro. Simpkins and myself being instructed to go to Great Falls to investigate the stamp system, as it was reported at headquarters that the Great Falls Union were not using stamps. We found the matter as reported at headquarters to be correct. I was told they didn't intend to cheat the Federation and gave us their reasons for not using stamps. They didn't have a paid secretary; that all their dues and assessments were collected at their meetings and didn't have time to put on stamps. I told them it was necessary that stamps should be put on those cards. They promised us they would do this in the future. Bro. Simpkins and myself came to the conclusion that the members of Great Falls Smeltermen's Union did not intend to cheat the Federation and I am of the same opinion yet. I came back to Butte; received a communication from the Blacksmiths and Helpers' Union of Butte stating that they would not affiliate with the Western Federation of Miners at that time. I again attended several meetings of the Blacksmiths' Union and told them their members would not be recognized throughout the jurisdiction; they promised me they would take the matter up again.

January 17.—I received a letter from Bro. Harmon, secretary of Horr Miners' Union, stating that their union was decreasing in membership every day, and asking me to go there. I also received a communication from headquarters instructing me to go there. I went there and found the men working at the coke ovens would not join the union and those who did belong to the union were in arrears. After holding several meetings and going through the works with a committee from the union, we talked with those men and asked them to join the union. We also asked those members who were in arrears to be sure to come to the hall and place themselves in good standing. By holding meetings every evening and going around the works every day, we got several new members, and as many more to place themselves in good standing; others promised to join at the next meeting. I came back and notified headquarters of conditions as I found them.

January 24.—I received a communication from President Moyer asking me to investigate the conditions at Wickes, as there were men working around there who wanted a charter from the Western Federation of Miners. I notified the president of Corbin Union if the men around Wickes got a charter of their own on what standing it would it leave Corbin Union. I received a letter from him stating that the men at Wickes were members of Corbin Union, and if I wanted to get them a charter to do so, but in his opinion the union would not be self-supporting. I also received a letter from Gallagher, secretary of Corbin Union, advising me not to give them a charter as they could not exist. I thought it better not to give them a charter. I notified the blacksmiths and helpers of Butte that I would attend the next meeting of their union. I again asked them to affiliate with the Western Federation of Miners. They told me right there that they would not; some of the members at the meeting speaking in favor of international organization, saying the Federation cards were not recognized anywhere outside of a mining camp, which made it impossible to get work in a seaport town. However, they were not favorable to the Western Federation of Miners; some said there were too many assessments attached to it. They promised me to have a committee at the convention of the Western Federation of Miners. Notified headquarters of their action, and as there was so much trouble in Colorado and in other states at that time, I thought it best not to start any trouble in Montana.

February 1.—I took up the proposition of raising funds for the Colorado strike with Dan McDonald, and a committee from the Silver Bow Trades and Labor Assembly. We got up an entertainment to be given for the benefit of the Colorado strike relief fund. We went before the locals of Butte, asking them to sell tickets for the entertainment. Being appointed as one of the committee at the Miners' Union meeting to canvass the mines of Butte, I went to every mine in the camp, sold 3,027 tickets at $1.00 each, and turned checks over to the general committee for that amount. The miners, engineers, smeltermen, ropemen and the locals of the American Labor Union did all in their power in helping us along. I went to Anaconda to arrange for an entertainment to be given in that town on March 7th. Went to Philipsburg to arrange for an entertainment to be given there. Went to Granite, Montana, and left tickets with the secretaries of the union to sell. Came back to Butte, checked up all business with general committee, and on April 9th I left Butte for Telluride to see President Moyer, who was then in the bullpen. We discussed the advisability of holding a convention. We came to the conclusion that it was impossible to hold it in Butte, the president being in jail and the secretary-treasurer in the custody of a sheriff at headquarters and could not leave the state. The only place a convention could be held was in Denver. I came to Denver and went back to Butte; attended a meeting of the Miners' Union, telling them the conditions in Colorado as I found them, asking them not to insist on the convention being held in Butte, as it was almost impossible under the conditions above stated; asking them to place themselves on record by going to Denver, if necessary.

May 6.—I received a communication from President Moyer, asking me if it was satisfactory with the Butte people to come to Denver to the convention, he would have a call issued to that effect. I sent in a communication to each of the locals of Butte and a copy of President Moyer's communication, asking them to take action on the president's communication, which they did, each union complying with his request.

Thanking you for past favors, I remain, Fraternally yours,

JAMES P. MURPHY,
Butte, Montana.

Denver, Colorado, May 24, 1904.

To the Western Federation of Miners in Convention Assembled—
Greeting:

We desire to call the attention of the delegates present that the various labor organizations of Denver are to give a ball for the benefit of the members of your organization, who are now and have been on a strike for the past six months or more, and we most heartily extend to the delegates of this convention an invitation to accept the hospitality of the united labor unions of Denver at the Coliseum hall next Saturday evening, May 28, 1904. The badge of the convention will be considered a passport, and we will hope to have the pleasure of seeing the entire convention present, promising our best efforts to make it an enjoyable affair for all.

Trusting that your organization will be successful in its undertakings, we remain, Yours in union,

CHARLES GREENHALGH, Chairman,
HARRY B. WATERS, Secretary-Treasurer.

Moved that each delegate purchase a ticket to the ball. No second.

Moved that we accept the invitation to attend the ball, and that the secretary acknowledge receipt of invitation and advise the ball committee of our action. Motion carried.

Adjourned at 12 m. until 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention called to order at 2 p. m. by Vice President Williams, and password taken up.

Roll call showed A. W. Gracias, Edgar Pattee and Max Malich absent.

Moved and seconded that a committee of seven be appointed to meet the committee from the American Federation of Labor and the United Mine Workers of America, and get their views on ways and means of bringing the organizations they represent, and the Western Federation of Miners together. Motion carried.

Committee—W. T. Stodden, Fred Leonard, Sherman Parker, H. D. Calvin, Arthur Filion, Nick Comes and William Giffels.

The secretary was instructed to telephone that the committee washed to call upon them at 5:30 p. m.

The following resolution was read:

For the past two days the Post has spread broadcast the misrepresentation that the miners and engineers from Butte in attendance upon the convention of the Western Federation of Miners are here in opposition to the present executive officers, and here to antagonize that which pertains to the action of these during the past year. In order that no one may be misled by these wild speculations, the delegates of No. 1 and No. 83 make this statement:

First—That they are not in Denver in any spirit of faction nor in opposition to any individual, or officer, or policy, or principle of the Federation that has the aim or object to better the condition of the wealth producer.

Second—That they propose to be guided by the aggregate opinion and wisdom of the assembled delegates as to what is the best course to pursue in the present crisis to bring about a condition that will mean success to the struggling workers in Colorado, or wherever found.

Third—That they hope to so act that not only complete harmony will dominate the Western Federation of Miners, but that the rank and file can respond in all matters as one man to that challenge given by the minions of capitalistic greed in Colorado, and so stand shoulder to shoulder until the last vestige of the odious rule of Peabodyism is buried in oblivion.

Fourth—That in coming to what was once a part of the great American Republic, but now more properly styled the "Empire of Peabodyism," and all that that implies in usurpation, military despotism and constitutional violations—a form of rule in which the lowered civic character of the money bag dominates, whose corruptions and debaucheries in public and social life are responsible for those crimes that are being perpetrated daily in the name of "law and order;" a style in which the mischievous and meddlesome qualities of an imbecile tyrant are mainly responsible for those disturbances that shame civilization within the geographical lines of this empire founded in the heart of what was once the pride of republics; a form of rule under which tyranny attempts to fortify itself under the delusive cry of "law and order," an impudent and arrogant rule that is absolutely in opposition to the expressed will of a people as proclaimed at the ballot box; a style of anarchy more despicable and abhorrent than the anarchy that is the result of ignorance or the outgrowth of that oppression that is practiced by the tyrant in authority or the swag-gener who may be decorated with epaulets; that by no act of theirs do these delegates propose to accord any succor to such enemies who are using the governmental powers to strangle the rights of its citizens, as expressed at the ballot box, and who would traduce into further servitude those who in the sweat of their brow earn their living; enemies who are blind rulers and useful tools in perpetuating their masters' outrageous acts—acts that make a prey out of social order and invite the devastation that comes from blind rage.

MALCOLM GILLIS.

Moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted as read.
Motion carried.

Annual report of the Executive Board was read by the secretary.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Denver, Colorado, May 23, 1904.

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners in Convention Assembled:

Gentlemen—We, your Executive Board, are pleased to present for your consideration a brief outline of our doings for the year just passed, also such recommendations as in our judgment are worthy of your most serious and earnest consideration.

We have used our very best efforts to discharge the duties placed upon us by you to the lasting benefit of the organization, and hope that the future will show that our efforts have not been in vain.

Notwithstanding the fact that we have continuously been confronted with the most gigantic struggle known to organized labor, we have forged ahead beyond the expectations of the most enthusiastic, every day adding strength and prestige to our position in the labor world.

To the everlasting praise of the men who have so nobly stood by their unions and assisted your officers in carrying out the principles and policies of the Federation may it be said no truer or braver band of men ever existed under the blue dome of heaven.

We feel called upon to mention with a feeling of pride the generous manner in which other labor organizations in all sections of the country have come to our assistance with liberal contributions of funds, regardless of their affiliations or location. The metalliferous miners of Mexico have contributed several thousand dollars. Members of all labor organizations are fully awake to the condition and realize that once the Western Federation is defeated, the relentless onslaught will be centered upon some organization which stands for justice, and one by one we who labor will be sacrificed on the altar of Mammon.

To the individuals who have contributed of their personal funds, we have nothing but words of praise and commendation. Their acts, if possible, are of more importance and farther reaching than their very liberal contributions.

As it is required to keep valid the bond of your secretary-treasurer, we have, since the eleventh annual convention, twice audited in detail the books and accounts of the secretary-treasurer and are pleased to report that we find that the business of his office has been administered in an able and businesslike manner, being correct to the smallest detail which has materially assisted us in going over the same. When we consider the unusual amount of work which has been of necessity handled in this office as a result of the strikes at various points in the jurisdiction, we feel that none but those of known ability should be entrusted with these duties.

We are pleased to report that since the last convention there has been added to our organization fifty-three locals, with several more in sight in the near future, also a district union at Joplin, Missouri, which is represented in this convention. In addition to the fifty-three locals organized, above mentioned, we have admitted into the Federation twenty-one locals of the United Mineral Mine Workers of America, which constituted all of that organization, who are at this time being chartered. These locals are located in Michigan, Missouri, Illinois and Alabama.

The work of organization is steadily going forward and we have every reason to expect that the time is not far distant when we will have membership in every state of the Union where mining is in operation. We deem it wise that the work of organization be pushed to the limit at all times when funds will permit. Not alone the organization in new fields, but that all territory now covered shall be more thoroughly and solidly organized.

After having gone over the constitution and by-laws carefully, we find that many changes, additions and erasures are necessary in order that the same may conform to the amendments adopted by the last convention, and the referendum vote, also some changes, which, in the light of our experience, would be beneficial, therefore we recommend the following:

That the Federation shall hold its biennial convention on the fourth Monday in May and that all places in the constitution and by-laws where the word annual appears it shall be changed to biennial.

ARTICLE III.

Section 1, line 2, page 9, strike out word "nine" and insert the word "ten," to provide for a member of the board in District Seven.

Section 3, add "He shall receive $5.00 per day for his services besides such an additional amount as may be necessary to defray his transportation and other expenses."

Section 9, line 8, page 13, erase word "nine" and insert "ten."

Section 11, line 4, page 14, erase the word "traveling" and insert "transportation."

ARTICLE IV.

Section 2, line 18, page 14, after the word "date," "on receipt of the same the secretary-treasurer shall issue to the local union the required number of stamps for the quarter."

ARTICLE IX.

Section 1, line 19, page 18, after the word "by-laws" insert "or desire some specific action not covered by the constitution and by-laws." Line 23, page 18, after the word "two-thirds" insert "of the members."

Section 2, line 38, page 18, "or in the manner provided in section 1, article 9."

BY-LAWS—ARTICLE I.

Section 6, strike out all of section 6 and substitute therefor the following: "The membership card of the Federation shall contain a space for each month of the year, with the month printed thereon, where stamps shall be affixed when dues are paid, also space for receipting assessments and shall be uniform throughout the jurisdiction of the Federation. In all cases stamps must be affixed to the membership card when dues are paid, regardless of whether the payment is made to cover arrearages or current dues, and the same shall be the only recognized traveling card of the Western Federation of Miners."

Section 7, line 28, page 20, after the word "dues" insert "and assessments."

Section 8, strike out all of section 8 and substitute therefor the following: "Any delegate to a convention failing to answer roll call without offering satisfactory excuses to the president, shall for the first offense be fined in the sum of $1.00 and for the second offense the sum of $2.00 and for the third offense the sum of $5.00 and shall be reprimanded by the president and his local union notified of his action.

"Any delegate appearing in convention under the influence of liquor or absenting himself from convention on account of intoxication shall be permanently expelled from the convention and his local union shall be immediately notified of the action taken."

DISTRICT UNIONS—ARTICLE I.

Section 10, strike out all of section 10 and substitute therefor the following: "Where two or more local unions exist they may, if they deem it advisable, organize a district union for the purpose of doing business for the district. They may apply to the Federation for, and receive, a special charter, said charter to be issued at cost. Such district union shall be subordinate to the Federation and state union (if such exist), but shall be of higher authority than the local unions of the Federation in its jurisdiction. Each local union of the Federation within the jurisdiction of a district union shall be a member of said district union and recognize the authority of same. The jurisdiction of the district union shall be defined by the president of the Federation, subject to the approval of the Executive Board."

STATE UNIONS—ARTICLE I.

Present section 11 shall be known as section 12. province deem it advisable to organize a state or provincial union, they may apply to the Federation for, and receive, a special charter, said charter to be issued at cost. Such state or provincial union shall be subordinate to the Federation, but shall be of higher authority than the district or local unions of the Federation within the state or province. All local unions of the Federation within the state or province shall be members of the state or provincial union and recognize the authority of the same."

Section 11, present section shall be known as section 12.

REINSTATEMENT—ARTICLE II.

Section 1, line 3, strike out the words "to take a." Line 4, strike out the word "card."

Section 2, line 22, strike out the words "or traveling card."

TRAVELING CARDS.

Section 4, strike out all of sections 4 and 5 of this article and section 6 shall become section 4.

INTERCHANGEABLE CARDS.

Section 4, line 21, strike out the word "Western" and insert the word "American."

AMENDMENTS—ARTICLE IV.

Section 4, line 14, after the word "convention" insert "or as provided in article 9, section 1, of the constitution."

The experience of the past as recorded in the history of all organizations shows us plainly and conclusively that the strike and boycott are but primitive and crude methods for the settlement of controversies between employer and employe and that something more effective and lasting must be used as the weapons in the hands of the producers of wealth before we shall share even moderately in our own production. The organization of capital into the Employers' Industrial Association and Citizens' Alliance, coupled with the Corporation Auxiliary, and these reinforced by corporation-owned state officials who do not hesitate to delegate to themselves far more power than is guaranteed to officers or citizens by the constitution of any state or nation, even going so far that while holding up to the gaze of the public that they are the law and order element, they have committed the most flagrant violations of law ever imposed on any people. Therefore, after scanning the field north, south, east and west, we fail to discern on the horizon even one ray of light to indicate the breaking of the morning of peace, and we feel it a duty to recommend that independent political action be the slogan of the wage earners, as we see in this alone the solution of the problem.

Being well aware that the strike situation will be fully outlined and discussed upon the floor of the convention, we believe it unnecessary to go into details in this report upon this subject, more than to say that at this time there are nineteen locals on strike and locked out, with a total of nine thousand persons receiving relief.

We desire here to recommend that the weekly publication of the Miners' Magazine be continued, and that all delegates at this convention pledge themselves to, upon their return to their respective locals, use their very best efforts to have it placed in the hands of every member of our organization, which, in our opinion, will materially assist in the education of the membership of our organization. As a fitting example of carrying out this recommendation, we urge that each delegate to this convention who is not already a subscriber to the Magazine, be enrolled as such before the adjournment.

The co-operative stores established by the Federation in the Cripple Creek district at the commencement of the strike have prospered beyond the most sanguine expectations. The Citizens' Alliance, organized for the sole purpose of disrupting the labor organizations of the country, have learned a bitter lesson. Many of the members of this disreputable organization have been forced into bankruptcy, while the remainder are tottering to their doom. The Federation stores in the Cripple Creek district are practically handling the business of that locality and are well equipped at the present time to carry on the business indefinitely. We would therefore recommend that local unions investigate the Rochdale system of co-operation in retail stores, with a view to the establishing of stores in every locality where we have membership.

It is our painful duty at this time to place before you a circumstance unparalleled in the history of organized labor: Our most worthy, fearless and self-sacrificing president, C. H. Moyer, for more than two months past has been deprived of his liberty at the hands of a military mob, owned and controlled by the most despotic combination that this country has ever known. At the present time we are denied both the pleasure and benefit of his presence with us on this occasion of such vast importance not only to ourselves, but to all humanity as well. This circumstance has not been brought about through any unlawful act of our president. He is guilty of no crime and has violated no law or custom of the state or nation. It should be plainly apparent to the delegates here assembled that the only reason for this lawless and inhumane action is the hope and belief that the enforced absence and confinement of President Moyer from his duties would at this time greatly confuse the business of the organization and create much discouragement in the ranks of the members, and thus be a strong factor in carrying out the threat made by the triple combination composed of the Mine Owners' Association, the Citizens' Alliance and the executive and military power of the state; that the strike would not be ended until the Western Federation of Miners is driven from the field. Resolutions are wholly futile in dealing with a circumstance of this nature, therefore, we cannot too strongly urge upon you the necessity of immediately outlining such plan of action as will forever prohibit a repetition of the anarchistic atrocities which have been and are now being inflicted upon us.

In conclusion, we would most urgently impress upon you the importance of your mission at this time. Never in the history of our organization have conditions confronted us of more vital importance than those of the present. On your action at this time not only depends the fate of our brothers, who are denied the right of existence by those corporation monsters whose sole composition is greed and crime, but you occupy the enviable position of having the opportunity of becoming a most potent factor in shaping events to the end that the human family may be enabled to enjoy the privileges that God and nature designed they should. The eyes of a large portion of the civilized world are at this time upon you and asking you to show the way. Let it not be said that they have been disappointed in you. Lay aside all sectional and personal motives and act the true principle of honesty with yourself and each other and we will have no fear of the result.

In the transaction of your business and election of your officers, be sure to see to it that no interests are served except those of the Western Federation of Miners.

Report of Executive Board was referred to Committee on President's Report.

Member of the Executive Board James Kirwan of the Fifth District read his report.

To President Charles H. Moyer and the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Brothers—I herewith submit a brief report of my work since my appointment as member of the Executive Board for District No. 5.

November 20, 1903, I received official notice of my appointment as member of the Executive Board to succeed Brother Thomas J. McKean, who had tendered his resignation. November 26th I left Terry for Denver to attend the Executive Board meeting and remained during the entire session. December 12th I left Denver for Cripple Creek district with brothers Copley and Baker on business connected with the Federation. One of our objects of this mission was to purchase a stock of goods and establish a Federation store in Goldfield, as the union store in Victor was unable to handle the trade in that locality. After the necessary arrangements had been made I returned to Denver December 15th and left for the Black Hills December 18th.

December 19th I visited Hill City Miners' Union No. 170. This union had been organized a little over one year, but two or three months previously to my visit all the mining properties in that vicinity had suspended operations and the members of the union had left for other points. I instructed the financial secretary to send in the charter and other supplies to headquarters, which he promptly did. If the mines should reopen in the future, no doubt the union could be reorganized with very little trouble.

I arrived in Terry December 20th and visited the Terry Peak Miners' Union No. 5, December 23rd.

December 23rd I received instructions from headquarters to proceed to Minneapolis and other points in Minnesota to solicit financial aid for the strikers in Colorado. I left Terry December 24th and arrived in Minneapolis December 26th. I visited sixty labor unions in that city and went to St. Paul January 18, 1904, and remained there three weeks, appearing before forty unions. February 8th I left for Duluth and visited nearly all the labor organizations in that city. February 22nd I left Duluth for the Black Hills and arrived in Terry February 24th.

February 27th I visited the Central City Miners' Union. This union, although not the largest in membership, is one of the most progressive and up-to-date unions in the Hills. February 29th I visited the Lead City Miners' Union No. 2. The officers and members of this union are doing everything possible to increase its membership, and are initiating new men at every meeting, but are having a hard, uphill fight, as so many of the Homestake employes, for certain reasons, are opposed to joining Lead Miners' Union; but a determined effort will be made during the coming summer to bring those men under the banner of the Western Federation of Miners. March 30th I visited Black Hills Engineers' Union No. 146. This union has been recently organized and is composed of engineers, firemen and pumpmen of the Black Hills. An effort will be made to bring every man engaged in the above occupations into this organization in the near future. March 31st I visited Deadwood Mine and Millmen's Union No. 14. Since the closing down of the Golden Reward Smelter the membership of this union has been decreased, but the remaining members are active and energetic and are keeping the organization alive and intact.

The suit instituted by Harry Collings against Terry Peak Miners' Union has been settled satisfactorily to all concerned, and all proceedings have been dismissed.

During my stay in northern Minnesota I made several inquiries as to what could be done in the way of organizing the several thousand men engaged in the iron industry in that section. I would recommend that if the finances of the Federation will permit that organizers be sent into northern Minnesota and Wisconsin during the coming summer, as there are at the present time thousands of men employed in and about the iron mines who have never had an opportunity to affiliate with any labor organization, and in my humble opinion this field could be successfully worked by the Western Federation of Miners.

I have not had an opportunity to visit all the local unions in the Hills as yet, but will do so within the near future.

Thanking you for the many favors received from yourself, Secretary Haywood and other members of the Executive Board, I am, fraternally yours, JAMES KIRWAN.

Member of the Executive Board L. J. Simpkins read his report:

To the President, Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Dear Sirs and Brothers—As a member of the Executive Board I beg leave to submit my report to this honorable body for labor performed since the adjournment of the eleventh annual convention.

Immediately after the adjournment of the eleventh annual convention I was instructed by our president, Charles Moyer, to go to Grand Encampment. I left Denver for Grand Encampment on June 17th and arrived in Grand Encampment on June 21st; but, owing to the fact that the smelter was not ready to blow in, could not do anything in the line of organizing and on June 24th started for Rambler and helped James Manson and G. Niece to reorganize there. On the 25th went to Dillon, as there was trouble there with the men and company, and it looked good to organize, which I was successful in doing, getting nearly every man to join the union, and then we started in to adjust the trouble with the company, which we succeeded in doing by getting an eight-hour shift, which was the cause of the trouble. The wage scale was fixed at $3 for outside work as a minimum scale and $4 for machine men; helpers $3.50 and blacksmiths and engineers $4 for nine hours.

On June 27th started for Encampment, and from there I went to Atlantic City to organize a union there, as the men were having trouble. I arrived in Atlantic City all O. K. and I succeeded in organizing a union there with forty-five members, and they succeeded in settling their trouble on an eight-hour basis and a minimum wage scale of $3 and $4 for machine men and helpers.

On July 1st I started for Kemmerer, Wyoming, to try and adjust the affairs of the defunct union there. I found Mr. Kinghorn, who was one of the trustees, there and had a talk with him in regard to the matter. He said that he would be willing to turn the certificate of deposit over, providing that the other trustee would do the same. I went to Kemmerer (Diamondville), where the other trustee was, and found that he was dead and that his wife represented him. She informed me that her husband had burned the certificates of deposit, but on investigating the matter I found out that she had lied, and after getting the two together they said that they would not turn over the property unless legal proceedings were brought to compel them to do so. The property consists of $1,248 in cash, one double lot in Diamondville, with a good stone foundation for a building 40x60 feet and four steel girders, which, in my opinion, are worth from $9 to $12, and I would advise that such legal action be taken as is necessary to turn the property over to the Western Federation of Miners. From Kemmerer I returned home, remaining until August 5th, when I started to Index in answer to a call from that union, as they were having some trouble there, and I got things straightened out all O. K. on August 11th, and from Index I went to Monte Cristo to organize there and succeeded in organizing a union of thirty-six members.

On the 14th I visited Silverton Union and on the 15th I arrived in Everett and tried to organize the smeltermen; but, owing to the fact that the smelter was closed down, it was impossible to do anything there. The 20th started to Baker Mountain to try to organize a union there, but owing to the fact that there were only thirty-five men working, and they were the owners and their relations, it was impossible to do anything with them; and from Baker Mountain I started for Wardner, arriving on August 30th.

On September 18th I started to the Buffalo Hump country to organize a union there in which I was successful, and the members started off in good shape. From the Hump country I went to the southern part of the state, but owing to the scattered conditions of the mines and prospects, and the small number of men working in that locality, it was impossible to do anything in that line. The only place that had enough men to organize a union was the Greenback mine, which works from fifty to sixty men, and they are all Mormons, with $2.50 as the maximum wage scale; and, when talking to them, they claimed that it was against their religion to join a union. But since then I have learned that boys from Colorado and California have gone in there, and this coming summer it is quite likely that a union may be organized.

Receiving a call from headquarters to be in Denver on the 30th of November to meet in regular session of the board, I arrived on that date and remained in session until December 12, 1903. At the adjournment of the board on December 13th I left with Brother Murphy of Butte with instructions from the board to visit Great Falls, Montana, to ascertain the reason why the Great Falls Union No. 16 did not use the Federation stamps. After meeting with the men, which was largely attended by the members, and after the stamp system was discussed, the union adopted the system and agreed to send in all old stamps and start in on January 1, 1904. From Great Falls I returned home, not going out in the field to organize, owing to the fact that the board decided that on account of the various strikes on hand, and the expenses attached thereto, it would be better to discontinue organizing at present.

In my opinion there is an opportunity to organize a number of unions in Washington, Oregon and Idaho as soon as the financial condition will permit.

In conclusion, I thank my fellow brothers of the board for their kind and courteous treatment which was at all times extended, as was also the considerate advice always cheerfully given when occasion required.

Thanking the members of the Federation for the confidence, honor and trust that they have placed in me, this report is respectfully submitted.

L. J. SIMPKINS,

Member Executive Board, Western Federation of Miners.

Member of the Executive Board D. C. Copley read his report. To the Officers and Delegates of the Western Federation of Miners, in Convention Assembled:

Dear Sirs and Brothers—As prescribed by the constitution of the Western Federation of Miners, I herewith hand you a report of my doings since the eleventh annual convention.

Immediately after the adjournment of the eleventh annual convention, June, 1903, the Executive Board went into executive session at the headquarters of the Western Federation of Miners, 625 Mining Exchange building, Denver, Colorado, and remained in session from day to day until June 17th, at which time they adjourned, having completed the work of carefully considering and passing upon all matters in hand. Before adjournment it was decided that the members who could spare the time from other duties should go to Colorado City and the Cripple Creek district and meet with as many of the locals as time would permit, in an effort to familiarize themselves as thoroughly as possible with conditions existing there; therefore, on the morning of June 18th all members of the board left Denver for Cripple Creek. Brother W. F. Davis of the Cripple Creek District Union accompanied us and we spent the day at Cripple Creek and other points in the district. On the morning of the 19th Brothers Williams, Lewis and myself went to Colorado City. We found the members of Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 125 anxious to strike on account of the failure of the managers of the mills to cease the impositions they had been forcing upon them in violation of the promises they had made the Advisory Board.

Vice President Williams and Brother Lewis left for their respective districts on the evening of June 19th, Brother Davis and myself remaining at Colorado City to meet with Local No. 125, to try and induce them to push organization and get in better shape before going on strike. We wished to get a more solid organization of the United States Reduction and Refining Company's property, so as to be able, when the men were called out, to get a complete tieup of their mills. On Sunday, the 21st of June, I went to Denver and laid the situation before President Moyer and Brother Haywood. On the 23rd I went to Idaho Springs, and with Brothers Alcott, Bean, Chandler and Reily, drove over the range to Russell Gulch and met with Pewabic Miners' Union, where about 100 were in attendance. The matter of men going up that side of the range to work on the unfair mines was fully discussed, and I requested that union to use every possible means to keep men from going up from that side to work. It was learned that two members of Pewabic were working on the unfair properties and action was taken against them. We returned to Idaho Springs, driving back over the range that night. On the following day, June 24th, I had a lengthy meeting with the Executive Committee of Idaho Springs Union and at night met with the union. At this meeting the Trocadero, a pleasure resort, was declared unfair, which action put them out of business for the balance of the season. On the next day, June 25th, I again met with the Executive Committee and outlined plans for handling the strike.

June 27th, Saturday, I went to Denver in the morning and to Colorado City in the evening to meet with No. 125, and on the following morning went to Independence and the Cripple Creek district. On the 29th of June, in the afternoon, met with district union at Miners' hall, Altman, and at night met with them again at the hall of Engineers' Union No. 75 at Independence. I learned that on the morning of July 1st a committee from Denver smeltermen waited upon Manager Frank Gulterman, and he refused their request for an eight-hour day, although they were willing to accept a reduction in wages. July 2nd, in order to carry out the plans decided on, I went to Florence, remaining there until the 7th, when I went to Colorado City, remaining there until the 12th, when I again went to the Cripple Creek district, met with district union, and on the 13th went to Denver. On the 15th went to Pueblo, remaining there until July 19th, in an effort to organize the smeltermen. But we met with so much opposition on the part of the company through its hired emissaries among the Austrians and Italians, that we were compelled to abandon that field for the time being; therefore, I went to Leadville on the 20th to assist the smeltermen, who had been organized shortly before that, to build up their organization. We were able to add a few members to that Union, notwithstanding the fact that the company had deputy sheriffs on our trail at all times. On meeting nights the sheriff and his deputies were on hand and picketed the meeting place; nevertheless we had a fairly good attendance, initiating ten candidates. On the 23rd I met with the Cloud City Union No. 33 and urged them to put forth a more vigorous effort to get the men in, and suggested that they put on a special man to work on the outside. I remained here, doing what I could to assist the smeltermen. On the 25th J. C. Sullivan arrived. Had a meeting of the the smeltermen on this date. On the morning of July 28th President Moyer and Attorney John H. Murphy arrived. By advice of President Moyer and Attorney Murphy I filed the cases of Predovich and Schultz against Sheriff Long and his bondsmen for false imprisonment.

On the 29th we learned of the blowing up of the Sun and Moon transformer house at Idaho Springs, which happened the night of the 28th. From this date my time was spent in Leadville, Salida and Florence until August 8th, when I returned to Cripple Creek and met with No. 40 and with the district union on Sunday the 9th.

Monday morning, August 10th, the men in the Cripple Creek district were called out. President Moyer and I met with the Strike Committee at Victor. Men came out readily, samplers given twenty-four hours to clean up. July 11th I went to Colorado Springs and presented the demands of District Union No. 1 to Manager Fullerton of the Telluride Reduction Company, requesting an immediate answer, which I was unable to get, he wishing a conference, which fact I communicated to the district union and President Moyer.

I returned to Cripple Creek on August 15th. Settlement was made between Strike Committee and Manager Hower of the Dorcas mill. On this date, in the afternoon, the famous Pinacle Park meeting was held, at which the strike and the causes leading up to it were fully gone over, and in my belief this meeting did more to keep the rank and file in line than anything that was done in the early part of the strike. On the morning of August 29th Committeeman Kennison found scabs working in the drainage tunnel under guard, having gone in under cover of darkness; otherwise quiet prevailed in the Cripple Creek district.

Tuesday the 25th I went to Kokomo; visited Ten Mile Union No. 41. There was a good attendance, and while this union is small, having only forty-two members in good standing at this time, they maintained an eight-hour day and minimum of $3 on every mine in the district. Received information from headquarters that the smeltermen at Durango had come out on strike on the 29th, and it was thought best for me to go there; so I left home Sunday night, arriving at Durango on the evening of Tuesday, September 1st. Received information from Telluride that the millmen on all the mills had come out on this date. Found Frank Schmelzer in Durango under bonds for calling a man "scab." His trial came up on the next day and the case was dismissed. Schmelzer arrested again at once for carrying concealed weapons, to which charge he pleaded guilty, as he had the gun. I found the smelter trying to operate with all sorts of scabs, but not making much of a success. The callout was not as much of a success as was expected. A majority of the membership of this union are Mexicans and but few can talk or understand the English language. They show little inclination to return to work, and they came out better than the Americans. On the 3rd of September a few Navajo Indians were put to work. I held a meeting; had about 120 present, the majority being union men. Got only six to join the union, as most of the Mexicans contemplated leaving the camp if the strike continued any length of time. Joe Hernandez reported being trailed by a stranger on this date. Succeeded in getting two Mexicans out of the smelter, who remained when the call was made. Friday, September 4th, developed little change. Mexican boss reported furnaces choking up on the inexperienced men. Saturday, the 5th, got two more men out of the smelter. Went to Silverton and met with No. 26. It was election night and the hall was well filled. Schmelzer and Clifford were re-elected president and secretary, respectively.

Next day was partly spent in going over the books with Secretary-elect Cox, and instructions to him and others as to the future management of the strike. Found 106 members in good standing on the books; that there were about 440 men in the jurisdiction of this union, including smeltermen, coal miners, coke oven men and quartz miners, who should be in this union, and instructed secretary to get out among them and make an effort to get them in. September 14th the last furnace of the smelter is down on account of incompetent men. One Indian, who was a leader among them, took several more out with him because the smelter people had agreed to pay him $2.50 per day and gave him only $2. On Tuesday, the 16th, several Indians quit, and the report came to me that if the men hung on a few days longer they would get the eight hours. This came from a boss in the smelter. The following day, the 17th, brings no change, except one Mexican quit. Left Durango this date; learned just before leaving that the company was trying to persuade the men working in the smelter, and eating at the improvised boarding house, to go home to their meals, as they were getting tired of the expense of feeding them.

Arrived at Florence at noon, the 19th, remaining over Sunday, the 20th, to look up the millmen's condition. I found that the Union mill had received eleven cars, all told, since the trouble began, these eleven cars being all ore house sweepings. I called President Moyer up on the 'phone, and by his instructions I went before various crafts soliciting funds for the eight-hour strike fund. On the 29th I went to Colorado Springs to solicit. On reaching the Springs I called up President Moyer by 'phone and he asked me to come on to headquarters, as he thought perhaps I had best go to Missouri and relieve W. M. Burns, who was sick and asking for immediate relief. I left Denver 8 p. m., October 1st, arriving at Joplin on the 3rd. I learned that the employment agents had shipped twenty scabs on that morning for Searchlight. Burns and I went to Aurora on this date and organized a local, returning to Joplin the next day. We stopped at Carthage to ascertain if the employment agents there were making any attempts at getting men, but could learn of no effort on this line at that place. I got hold of miners who were strangers and sent to the various agencies in Joplin on this date. There was only one agent who would talk about hiring men for Colorado, but all were anxious to secure men for Nevada, Arizona and California. Met with Joplin Local in the evening.

I remained in the vicinity of Joplin until the 22nd, using my best efforts to prevent the shipment of scabs from there to all points where our locals were on strike, and I am safe in saying that not to exceed a half a dozen men left that vicinity who were practical miners. There were, however, quite a few of the riff-raff and never-sweats—old men, boys and cripples—shipped. At one time there were two car loads brought from St. Louis and shipped as miners from here, so as not to put the stigma on St. Louis. During my stay at Joplin the Southwest Missouri Lead and Zinc Association ordered the closing of the majority of the mines about Joplin, Webb City, Chitwood; in fact, the whole district, for the double purpose of curtailing output to raise the price of their product and put the men in a financial position so that they could not pay initiations or dues to the Western Federation of Miners. We must admit that it had the desired effect, as it relates to the Federation, so much so that many of the members got behind for the months of November, December, January and February. But when I visited in that district during my stay in District 14 of the United Mine Workers last month, I am pleased to report that the miners were working again and things were looking brighter. Members were paying up their arrearages and the locals were again adding new members.

Taking District 7 as it looks to-day, with the addition of the locals, which we are taking over from the United Mineral Mine Workers, and with the locals in the Joplin fields, also a district union, also with the election of a representative for that district, which should be done at this convention in order that the business there will be at all times looked after, I feel that the Federation has no reason for regretting the organization there. We surely must realize that at present we have prevented almost wholly the shipment of men from there and the seeds of unionism sown there will grow and Joplin shall redeem itself of the odium that has so long attached to her, and finally become one of the strongholds of the Federation.

On November 22nd President Moyer and myself reached Iola, Kansas, in the Gas Belt smelter district. We found the unions at Gas City, Iola and La Harpe in a discouraging condition. There seemed to be a great lack of interest. I remained there three days and held special meetings of all the locals in an endeavor to liven them up, but unable to get up much enthusiasm, and since that time the Gas City Union has sent in its charter. I hope the member of the board for that district, whoever he may be, will look after the unions in the Gas Belt, as I am satisfied that they can again be put on their feet. I returned on November 26th to Joplin and came to Denver, to be on hand at the semi-annual meeting of the Executive Board, which convened on November 30th. I was in attendance at board meetings daily, when I went to Georgetown to plead in the Sun and Moon conspiracy cases. Returned to headquarters and was at board meeting December 8th until 1 p. m. December 12th, at which time, having disposed of all business before us, we adjourned. Members Baker and Kirwan, with myself, went to the Cripple Creek district, arriving at Victor at 9 o'clock p. m. Went at once to the union hall of No. 32, where their regular meeting was in session. After making a brief address before the meeting, I went to the house of Mrs. Luella Lyons, treasurer of the Women's Auxiliary Christmas Committee, delivered her a check, and from there went to the union store, remaining there until 11 o'clock, when I took an electric car for Independence, arriving home at 11:20. My wife sat a lunch for me, and while I was partaking of the same the militia surrounded my house, arrested me and took me to the bullpen, where I remained until noon of the 14th, when I was released, no charge having been placed against me, being released, no doubt, for the reason that I was under bond to appear at Georgetown on Tuesday, the 15th, for trial. Was in attendance at court in Georgetown until January 16th, on which date the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty for all defendants.

January 17th returned to Denver and was in Denver on the sick list until Friday, February 5th, when I went to Pueblo to assist the smeltermen, with whom I met Sunday afternoon, and at night got them fixed for a hall to meet in and left for Colorado City on Monday the 8th. On February 12th I went to my home at Independence, Cripple Creek district, where I remained on the sick list until March 1st, when I again took up the duties of my office in the Cripple Creek district.

On March 8th I went to Florence to learn of the conditions there relative to our Local No. 184 of millmen, and after thoroughly canvassing the situation, instructed that local to send a representative to the district union; also a daily report of strike conditions, including number of cars of ore received and treated, to the secretary of the district union.

I returned to Victor and reported the conditions in detail to President Moyer, who was there at the time, and to the district union and Strike Committee. I remained in the district until March 17th, when I went to headquarters. On March 20th I went to Colorado City, by request of President Moyer and members of Colorado City Union No. 125, and checked up the accounts and books of the union, making a report of the same to the union and to headquarters. This was done to settle a controversy which had arisen. However, will say that, barring a few clerical errors, which any one is liable to make, I found accounts and cash correct.

President Moyer and myself had arranged to go to Telluride district together on March 24th, but as I was detained one day longer at Colorado City than I had expected, Brother Moyer did not wait for me to accompany him to San Miguel county, which, no doubt, accounts for my being at liberty at this time.

On March 25th it was decided that I should go into District No. 14 of the United Mine Workers and solicit funds; therefore, I left Denver on that evening. Arriving in Pittsburg, Kansas, I called on the officers of District Union No. 14.

I found the president of the district, Mr. Richardson; the secretary, Mr. Gilmore, and one member of the Executive Board there, and I am pleased to report that these gentlemen treated me with every courtesy. The secretary gave me a list of all the locals in the district, with the secretaries' names and addresses and how they were most conveniently reached—by steam or electric line or by team. The member of the board, Mr. Barker, accompanied me to a couple of meetings and assisted me materially. I remained in District No. 14 of the United Mine Workers soliciting for the eight-hour fund until April 21st, on which date I received a telegram from John M. O'Neill asking me to come to Denver at once, stating that Haywood had been arrested by the military. I arrived in Denver on the 23rd and found Secretary-Treasurer Haywood in the county jail, where he was permitted to have his stenographer visit him, taking his mail to him and getting instructions as to answers. I visited him daily and the business of the office was done in this way through him. On April 29th he was permitted to go to his office with an officer and I was no longer needed at headquarters. I went to the Cripple Creek district on May 1st. I remained in the district, meeting with the locals and the district union until May 10th, when I came to Denver to be on hand for the meeting of the Executive Board May 11th, at which time the Board went into executive session at headquarters.

I have been in daily attendance at the meetings of the board until May 23rd and at this time I wish to say that while there are many conditions in my district, and especially in Colorado, not what we would have them, nevertheless, I do not lose hope that we will ultimately win a complete victory in our present struggle against capitalistic anarchy and oppression. Many indications at this time point to a weakening on the part of our enemies and I consider our chances better now than at any time during the strike. Nothing in the situation at this time gives me as much concern as the detention of our worthy president and brother in the military prison. I am impatient with the courts for their unnecessary delay in rendering a decision; but we are powerless to hasten their action. I hope that he may be released in time to participate in the proceedings of the twelfth annual convention, as we shall miss his congenial countenance and wise counsel. Respectfully submitted, D. C. COPLEY, Fourth District.

Communication from George G. Merrick, vice president of the United States Monetary League, was read.

Denver, Colorado, May 24, 1904.

To the Convention, the Western Federation of Miners, Now in Session:

Gentlemen—If this great convention of labor representatives, here assembled from many states, would voice their views on the leading national issues, declare for the constitution; for the American standard of money, both silver and gold; for American liberty and against holding a nation of vassals; for civil enforcement of the laws, instead of military despotism, as exemplified in this state; recommend reaffirming the Kansas City platform as the most potent means for establishing these inalienable rights, it would flash over the country, published far and near, and electrify the nation, and go far toward turning the tide for a presidential candidate who will stand for just what you gentlemen contend for, "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none." Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE G. MERRICK, Vice President.

JOSEPH N. STEPHENS, Secretary.

That you may know what our Colorado comrades are up against, we submit the following statement for your consideration:

In their effort to crush out union labor in Colorado the mine officials, assisted by a lawless mob, known as the Citizens' Alliance, together with other bodies of organized capital and backed by a bigoted and despotic governor, with the state militia at his beck and call, have overridden popular government and our free institutions and have converted a peaceful and quiet commonwealth into a military province, and have instituted instead of civil law and authority a reign of terror and despotism. Time-honored laws and customs, and even the authority of our national constitution, have been broken and abrogated by this horde of gormandizing human leeches in the once proud state of Colorado. Honest, patriotic and loyal citizens, against whom no charges were ever brought, except that they were union men or labor sympathizers, have been ruthlessly seized by the Citizens' Alliance mob or the corporation-hired military and thrust into foul and loathsome prisons or forced into banishment from their families and homes; wives and mothers of union men have been forced to endure indignities at the hands of corporate hirelings which well might make them envy the "liberty and freedom" of the prisoners of darkest Siberia. Beneath the folds of our honored flag, in this, the boasted "land of liberty," the home of brave and free, are being enacted scenes more tragic, deeds more vile than those which caused our fathers of 1776 to throw off the yoke of tyranny that bound them subjects to King George III. To-day, in Colorado, for a union man to call for a guarantee of those grand and inalienable rights, as set forth by our revered constitution, procured by the blood of martyrs, a priceless legacy to posterity, they are answered by the lash and a "To hell with the constitution." Such is the war being made by capital and the powers of government in Colorado against the Western Federation of Miners of that state. United and organized, the Federation has stood its ground; it has successfully met and defeated every charge of violence and anarchy that has been hatched in the fertile and imaginative brains of their heartless persecutors. In every instance where charges were brought and tried in the civil courts the Federation has maintained its integrity. Only through the unjust and unlawful use of mobs and military and the overthrow of civil authority have these pampered and blood-fed vultures succeeded in thus prolonging a conflict that might have long since been peacefully and amicably settled. To the mobs and military hirelings under control of the mine owners, and permitted by the chief executive of the state of Colorado, we lay the charge of arson, murder, anarchy and the overthrow of constitutional authority. To our comrades, the members of the Western Federation of Miners, we commend you as heroes and martyrs to a just and righteous cause, suffering only the inevitable fate that sooner or later must be the lot of all laboring men, unless we rise in unity, as the mighty army that we are, and assert our independence from the masters that seek to forge the galling fetters of wage slavery upon us, and the millions of posterity yet unborn. To assist our comrades in their right to live and maintain their organization, the Trades and Labor Council of Herrin, Illinois, hereby extends a most cordial invitation to all friends of organized labor to attend our grand picnic and labor celebration in Herrin, Monday, May 30, 1904.

L. E. JACOBS, President.
H. R. DIAL, Secretary.

Moved and seconded that we send to Trades and Labor Council of Herron, Illinois, our thanks and appreciation for the stand they have taken.

Resolution Committee report on Resolution No. 22 and recommend that resolution be not concurred in.

Communication No. 22.

Denver, Colorado, May 25, 1904.

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Realizing the burning necessity, of thorough co-operation and united action on the part of all wage earners, we hereby offer the following resolution:

That the American Federation of Labor have annually, for some time past, extended us an invitation to affiliate with that organization; that we now offer to the American Federation of Labor a counter-proposition showing to them the true reasons why we have not considered their proposition heretofore; also to point out the existence of those same impediments and to explain to them that when they demonstrate to us that they have eliminated from their organization every taint of corporation control and influence, which will carry with it, among other things, the relegation of all officials who have participated in this alliance, then, and not till then, can we consider the proposition of affiliation.

J. A. BAKER,

Denver, Colorado, May 26, 1904.

Your Committee on Resolutions beg leave to submit the following regarding the resolutions offered by Brothers J. A. Baker and L. J. Simpkins, to-wit: That after duly considering the contents of the said resolutions, we recommend that they shall be non-concurred in, because the propositions therein contained are inconsistent and detrimental to the good and welfare of Western Federation of Miners, inasmuch as they would tend to widen the breach between the two organizations.

C. E. MAHONEY, Chairman.
J. C. HAMMITT, Secretary.
P. W. SULLIVAN,
THOMAS NELSON,
JOHN A. PETERSON,
C. B. DUKE.

Moved and seconded, That the report be adopted. Motion carried.

Grievance Committee report on jurisdiction.

Communication No. 24.

To the Officers and Members of the Western Federation of Miners, in Convention Assembled:

Whereas, The constitution of the Western Federation of Miners provides that a miner shall belong to Miners' Union, provided there be such a union in the locality in which he works; and,

Whereas, Mr. Malcolm Gillis, a delegate to this convention from Engineers' Union No. 83, has stated on the floor of this convention that he is a miner, and has been for some months past; and,

Whereas, There is a Miners' Union in Butte, the locality in which he works; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Western Federation of Miners, in convention, that Mr. Gillis be and is hereby instructed to transfer his membership to the Butte Miners' Union No. 1, Western Federation of Miners; and, be it further

Resolved, That the secretary of No. 83 be notified of this action, and if the transfer is not called for by Brother Gillis, the secretary be requested to forward him the same.

Telegram from Mother Jones read.

San Francisco, California, May 26, 1904.

Miners in Convention, Denver, Colorado:

Greeting. Honor to labor's martyr, President Moyer. The slumbering giant is fast awakening.
MOTHER JONES.

Communication from Frank A. Severman, organizer of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, requesting the privilege of the floor for a few minutes was read.

Denver, Colorado, May 26, 1904.

William D. Haywood, Secretary Western Federation of Miners:

Dear Sir and Brother—Three thousand shoe workers of Chicago are locked out since May 1, 1904, because they refuse to surrender their rights as union men and women to the D. M. Parry association of would-be crushers. As a representative of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, which has taken up this fight for the shoe workers, I desire to enlist your sympathy and active moral support in behalf of our locked-out brothers and sisters. I would appreciate the opportunity to explain to your delegates how and why their support should be given. Fraternally,

FRANK A. SEVERMAN,

Organizer Boot and Shoe Workers' Union.

Moved and seconded that he be given the floor to make a short talk. Motion carried.

Brother Severman was admitted and ably presented the cause of the Boot and Shoe Workers, and urged that all wage earners subscribe to that principle that says all the production of labor belongs to the producer thereof.

Request of the Executive Board in the Stewart Forbes case:

Denver, Colorado, May 27, 1904.

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Western Federation of Miners:

Brothers—We, the Executive Board, desire to inform you that Brother Stewart Forbes, late of Telluride, Colorado, has appeared before the board and stated as follows: That a protest was made to this convention against him being here seated as a delegate, without explaining the nature of the same; that H. A. McLean of Ouray, Colorado, stated to him that the deported miners of Telluride, now at Ouray, unanimously concurred in this protest, and further stated that grave charges would be preferred against him at a future date; that rumors to the above effect have been circulated, thereby placing him under the pale of suspicion with his associates, and that he has no conception of what the said insinuations refer to. He has, therefore, appealed to this board, asking for an immediate investigation.

We desire to further inform you that, owing to the present conditions at Telluride, it is impossible for that local to transact any business, and we firmly believe that a grievous wrong has been done by Brother Forbes, or else that there is at this time a conspiracy arranged for his individual persecution.

We therefore recommend that you authorize this board to summon before them without delay the said H. A. McLean, and demand of him a full explanation of this matter, and to summon all such other available information as may apply to this case, in order that Brother Forbes may be exonerated from the stigma of those accusations, or else that he be deprived of a seat in the convention.

SIGNED BY THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Moved and seconded that the request be complied with. Motion carried.

Resolution No. 38 request of Max Malich of No. 93, conferring proxy on Joe Mahelich, while he is sick, and unable to attend the convention, referred to Credential Committee.

Resolution No. 39. By John Barron, amendment to Art. 3, Sec. 4, By-Laws. Referred to By-Laws Committee.

Resolution No. 40. By F. L. Reber, referred to Constitution Committee.

Resolution No. 41. By F. L. Reber, referred to Constitution Committee.

Resolution No. 42. By Kinsman and Tyack, referred to the By-Laws Committee.

Resolution No. 43. Reference to request for a charter for a state union for California. Referred to Grievance Committee.

Resolution No. 44. From Randsburg Union No. 44 in reference to re-instatement of members and re-election of member of the Executive Board from their district. Referred to Resolution Committee.

Resolution No. 45. In reference to union bartenders wearing the blue button, and the house displaying the union card. Referred to Organization Committee.

Report of committee on president's report.

Denver, Colorado, May 26, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

We, your Committee on President's Report submit the following:

First—We recommend that the amendments offered by your Executive Board to the constitution shall be referred to the Committee on Constitution.

Second—We also recommend that the amendments offered by the Executive Board to the by-laws be referred to the Committee on By-Laws.

Third—We further recommend that the suggestions offered by the Executive Board in relation to the co-operative stores shall be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Fourth—We would recommend that the report of the Executive Board be placed on file for future reference and the following in reference to President Charles H. Moyer shall become a part of the records of this convention:

It is our painful duty at this time to place before you a circumstance unparalleled in the history of organized labor. Our most worthy, fearless and self-sacrificing president, Brother Charles H. Moyer, has for more than two months past been deprived of his liberty at the hands of a military mob, owned and controlled by the most despotic combination that this country has ever known. At the present time we are denied both the pleasure and benefit of his presence with us on this the occasion of such vast importance, not only to ourselves, but to all humanity as well. This circumstance has not been brought about through any unlawful act of our president. He is guilty of no crime and has violated no law or custom of the state or nation. It should be plainly apparent to the delegates here assembled that the only reason for this lawless and inhumane action is the hope and belief that the enforced absence and confinement of President Moyer from his duties would at this time greatly confuse the business of the organization and create much discouragement in the ranks of the members, and thus be a strong factor in carrying out the threats made by the triple combination composed of the Mine Owners' Association, the Citizens' Alliance and the executive and military power of the state, that the strike would not be ended until the Western Federation of Miners is driven from the field. Resolutions are wholly futile in dealing with a circumstance of this nature; therefore, we cannot too strongly urge upon you the necessity of immediately outlining such plan of action as will forever prohibit a repetition of the anarchistic atrocities which have been and are now being inflicted upon us.

Brother Ryan introduced the following:

Resolution No. 49.

Whereas, The Shoe Manufacturers' Association of Chicago, Illinois, a branch of the D. M. Parry Association of would-be union crushers, have, on May 1st, 1904, locked out 3,000 members of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union because they refuse to submit to a reduction of wages and to the vicious "open shop" rule; and,

Whereas, It has come to our knowledge that Chicago-made shoes are sold extensively in sections of the country in which the Western Federation of Miners are strongly organized; and,

Whereas, We deem it our duty to render all assistance possible to the lockedout shoe workers of Chicago; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the Western Federation of Miners, in convention assembled, hereby endorse the stand taken by the boot and shoe workers on behalf of organized labor; that we extend to them our heartfelt sympathy and support in their conflict with organized capital; and, be it further

Resolved, That we call upon our members everywhere to refrain from purchasing Chicago-made shoes, as well as all other shoes made by unfair employers.

Report of President Charles Moyer read and referred to Committee on President's Report.

Bullpen at Telluride, Colo., May 24, 1904.

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Gentlemen—As the time draws near, when, in compliance with our constitution it will devolve upon me to again report to you the conditions of your organization as I view them at the present time and to briefly review the past twelve months, I will take advantage of my confinement in military prison, which makes it impossible for me to take an active part in conducting the affairs of our organization, so that, should I be so fortunate as to be released prior to your meeting, my time may be spent in other work which must necessarily be neglected during my enforced absence from headquarters. In outlining to you the work done by your Executive Board and officers during the past year it shall be my desire to be as brief as possible, touching only on such points as I believe you should be informed upon. The few recommendations which I shall make are for your consideration and if, in your wisdom, their adoption should appear to be for the best interests of our organization you will undoubtedly use them in the future government of the Federation. I only request that they, as well as all other matters that may come before this convention, be given due consideration, that you may at all times act in full harmony, that each delegate express his views upon all questions coming before the convention, that you may at all times remember that only by honest differences of opinion can we arrive at sound conclusions and correct judgments. The constitution which governs our organization provides that the Executive Board and officers shall have full power to conduct the affairs of the Federation between conventions; therefore I feel that upon your convening my stewardship is at an end and in turning over to you the office to which you have twice honored me, I can only say that I have done my best to honorably fill it and while I have undoubtedly made mistakes, my every act has been for what I considered the best interests of our cause. While the temptation may at times have been great, I am proud to-day to return to you the office of president of the Western Federation of Miners unsullied and free from a dishonorable act of any nature and it is my fervent hope that my successor, whoever he may be, will ever have in mind the honor of the organization which we all love and for which we have so gallantly fought.

Continuously since the adjournment of the eleventh annual convention the Western Federation of Miners has been engaged in such a battle as has never before confronted a labor organization. The issue on the part of the Federation: the eight-hour work day and the right to organize, met by the Mine Owners' Association, the mill and smelter trusts, supported by the governor of the state of Colorado, the entire military power of the state at their command, determined to not only defeat the just demands made upon them, but fully determined to exterminate and drive from the state the miners' organization, to you delegates who have undoubtedly kept fully in touch with the struggle, through the Miners' Magazine and the many circulars sent out from headquarters, it is unnecessary that I go into details. Some have claimed that the strikes in which we have been involved in the state of Colorado should never have been called, that the miners, having no grievance, should not have been asked to enter into a struggle for the mill and smeltermen. In my report to the eleventh annual convention I fully stated my position in relation to this matter and I have had no reasons for changing that position to this date. If the workman who reduces the ores produced by the miner is, as prescribed in your constitution, eligible to membership in the Western Federation of Miners, then he is entitled to the full benefits as provided in said constitution. If, as has been argued by some, a local or locals composed of miners should not be asked to discontinue the production of ores which are being shipped to mills and smelters where the employes are members of a local composed of mill and smelter workers, both locals affiliated with the Western Federation of Miners and the latter being on strike for living conditions and the right to organize, then I believe the miner should be honest and honorable enough to say to the mill and smeltermen: "A mistake has been made; you are affiliated with the wrong organization; while we welcome you as taxpaying members, you can not expect us to sacrifice our position in your behalf."

If, in the wisdom of the delegates of this convention, the metaliferous miner would be more benefited by an organization composed exclusively of the miner, then let us be candid with our fellow-worker, the mill and smelterman, and assist him in establishing an organization for his own protection; on the other hand, if we believe that the interests of every wage worker employed in and around the mine, mill and smelter are identical, that by one compact organization we can better protect the interests of all, then let it go out to the world from this convention that the concern of one member of the Western Federation of Miners is the concern of all, that upon this principle we will ever stand and should we go down to defeat, let that defeat be one of honor and let it never be said that any part of the membership of our grand organization was sacrificed that another part might prosper. Since the adjournment of the eleventh annual convention your organization has been engaged in such a battle as was never before confronted by a labor organization. In making this statement I do not mean to infer that the opposition presented in the beginning of the struggle by the mine owners and the mill and smelter combinations of the state of Colorado materially differed from that presented by other employers under like circumstances. From all outward appearance it seemed the intention of the operators, rather than concede to the demands made by the unions, to permit their properties to remain idle or possibly endeavor to operate them with non-union labor, the failure of which under ordinary strike conditions we were assured. Being almost thoroughly organized in Telluride and the Cripple Creek district and as our membership had promptly responded to the strike order, thus practically closing all the properties in those districts, we had every reason to believe that the struggle would be of short duration, but we were soon given to understand that the strike was not an ordinary one, that it was not a question of a struggle between employer and employe, to be fought out along the lines which have governed a difficulty of like nature in the past, but that the chief executive of the state, with the people's treasury and military power at his command, had entered into the struggle, not as a disinterested party, representing all the people engaged, not for the purpose of standing between the contending forces and saying to the employe: "You have the right to demand different conditions of working and the right to discontinue work if you so desire," and to the employer, "You have the right to refuse to concede to such demands and to either close down your properties or operate them with such labor as you can secure, but I, as the representative of all the people of the state of Colorado demand that the laws be strictly adhered to and that the rights and privileges of no citizen, be he ever so humble, be abridged." On the contrary we find the governor on the day of September 4, 1903, in the face of the vigorous protest from the civil authorities and hundreds of the foremost citizens of Teller county, sending almost the entire National Guard to the Cripple Creek district and declaring in no uncertain language that they would remain there until the strike was broken and every member of the Western Federation of Miners driven back to the mines or out of the state. Then began such a prostitution of the powers of the state executive as was never before known and I trust to God that we, as citizens of the United States, will never see repeated. The use of the National Guard as provided by the statutes was entirely forgotten. The military in the field were at the beck and call of the Mine Owners' Association, the officers received their orders from the executive committee of that organization and no plot was too damnable to receive the endorsement of Governor Peabody. You are all informed as to how your brothers were persecuted, how the enlisting department of the military was used as an employment agency for the mine owners, hundreds of members of the state militia "farmed out to scab," in fact, the great power of the state placed in the hands of a combination of capitalists to be used as they might desire, to defeat and destroy an organization of wage workers. Without James H. Peabody the mine owners of the state of Colorado would have gone down to defeat and have been forced to give justice where justice was due. With the power of a great state at his command and a burning desire to exterminate organized labor, a struggle was commenced which must and shall go on until the laboring people of this great state are at least conceded the same rights and privileges accorded to citizens of other states in our Union.

In reviewing the condition of your organization and outlining its policies and possibilities for the future you should not take the Colorado situation as a criterion of what will confront you in the future. While under the present system it will always be possible to place a Peabody in power and such a possibility should be given due consideration by you, still our country has produced but few such enemies toward the wage worker as has been produced in Colorado. The great institutions established throughout the world having for their purpose the research for every specie of animal have failed to discover another Peabody and at this late day I firmly believe that no other part of the globe will be able to wrest from Colorado its claim of discovery. Should there be others, you have it in your power to relegate them to the cage in which they belong and after the cold-blooded outrages perpetrated by this one which should be burned deep into the memory of every liberty-loving American citizen, should there again be placed in power a Peabody, then I can only say that the suffering of the brave men, the anguish of the wives and little ones for months in the state of Colorado has been in vain, that I have laid for weeks in the miserable hole called a military "bullpen," compelled to write this report surrounded by stone walls and iron bars and that the system and policy of him or them who are responsible has the endorsement of my class.

In the past the wage workers have been called fools many times; it has been a grave question as to whether the appellation was not well applied; still, knowing the intelligence which will make up the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners and with which organized labor in general is possessed, I can not bring myself to believe that the great array of toilers in this, the grandest country on God's footstool, will much longer continue to tolerate a system under which honest and industrious citizens can be pilloried to telegraph poles in the cold wintry winds, hundreds of others driven from their homes and families, forced to become exiles and all for the heinous crime of having demanded their rights as American citizens.

Brothers, upon you and other representatives of organized labor, while you are still permitted to assemble as you have here, devolves the duty of outlining a policy to which you can all subscribe; one which, when you return to your constituents, you can and will advocate with a vigor, which will make failure an impossibility, one which will make the repetition of a Peabody administration as impossible as the bridging of the great Pacific. You may ask for my remedy; in answer permit me to say, should I be so fortunate as to be present and take part in your counsels, willingly will I give you my views; in my absence it is my wish that you be free to act and after these important questions receiving the careful consideration which I am confident they will be given, your verdict will receive my endorsement and untiring support. In your deliberations the question of politics will undoubtedly enter, and, regardless of the opinion and advice of the president of the great American Federation of Labor to steer clear of politics, given in the city of Denver a few days ago, given at a time when, through the manipulation of politics, an administration was slowly but surely driving organized labor from one of the strongest organized states in the Union, when a corporation tool, placed in power through politics, was driving hundreds of union men affiliated with the organization which he represents, aboard cars and dumping them into the adjoining states, when political conventions were, to his knowledge, daily in session praising the action of their chief, who had declared that to hold membership in a labor organization was a declaration of anarchy and that the military of the state should remain in the field until the members of organized labor should bow to their masters, in the face of the opinion of Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and others, I again reiterate my statement made in my report one year ago that even though the names of each and every wage worker of the world were enrolled on the roster of organized labor, the class struggle would still go on, the wage system become more unbearable, and there can be but one outcome, either labor must control the reins of government, which can only be accomplished through politics, or, as Mr. Gompers says in the Denver press of April 22d, after investigating the condition of affairs in the military-ridden districts, that the persecution of the unoffending miner was intolerable and if persisted in it must inevitably lead to revolt and great bloodshed.

Mr. Mitchell, leader of the great Mine Workers' organization, whose members are to-day fully realizing what political power can accomplish, is a firm advocate of no politics in unions. At the same time, if he be correctly quoted, he advises that members of the United Mine Workers leave nothing undone to defeat James H. Peabody for re-election. Can Peabody be defeated unless labor goes into politics? Who would these gentlemen have to select the successor to Peabody? Every effort is being put forth to bring the unorganized into the ranks of organized labor. Should this be accomplished, then I challenge the sense of any argument which may be produced claiming that organized labor, having it in their power to elect, should not be the more competent to select those whom they desire to represent them in office. Mr. Gompers has said that a continuation of the Peabody policy will eventually lead to revolt and bloodshed. With his long experience he should be able to outline some plan whereby such damnable practice could be prevented. He advocates thorough organization of labor forces. Can labor be more thoroughly organized than were the miners of Cripple Creek and Telluride? In the history of the labor movement have men ever responded more promptly than did the coal miners of District 15. If thorough organization be a failure in Colorado will it be less a failure in other states? Mr. Mitchell is credited with having no peer as a manager of labor difficulties, yet, with as determined a body of men as ever responded to a strike order we find the United Mine Workers of District 15, after a nine months' struggle, no nearer success than upon the day on which the strike was inaugurated. No one can charge the conditions which prevail in Colorado to-day to lack of organization or determination on the part of union men. On the other hand, no one can deny that the successful manipulation of politics by the capitalistic class, their placing in power a Peabody, ever ready to do their bidding, is wholly responsible for the long-drawn-out struggle and the terrible suffering of organized labor.

Mr. Mitchell advises to keep out of politics, but defeat Peabody. Does he believe that the money power which controls the Republican party of Colorado will select as Peabody's successor one who will fail to do their bidding? Mr. Mitchell is a Republican and as such must believe the Republican party to be the party for the wage worker; still he denounces that party in the state of Colorado, for in denouncing Peabodyism in this state he denounces Republicanism. I can not believe that Brother Mitchell would advocate the election of a Democrat, therefore I am unable to determine what the gentleman means when he declares for the Republican party and in the same breath repudiates the administration of one who is receiving the unstinted praise and endorsement of the acknowledged leaders of that party. Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and others are fully aware that just so long as the producing class permits the money power of this country to control politics, just so long will Peabodyism be possible, just so long will organized labor be confronted with militarism and the injunction and the damnable system inaugurated by the Republican administration in the state of Colorado be permitted to spread until the prophecy of Mr. Gompers can not be avoided. There are but two ways to meet the policy as outlined and put into effect by the corporations and Citizens' Alliance, one, the rifle, the other the ballot. Which will organized labor choose? Which will the leaders of the great army of organized wage workers advise to be placed in the hands of their followers, There can be but one answer—the ballot. Were I the anarchist claimed by those who would destroy our organization, if my only desire were the destruction of property and the taking of human life as has been charged, then would I surely advocate the rifle. Organized labor is advised against entering into politics, its membership may still exercise the right to cast their ballot, but in the outlining of a policy by which they are to be governed they must take no part. They may go to the polls on election day and cast their ballot for those who are to make and administer the laws, but are warned that to discuss politics in their unions means disruption; if this be true, then I can only say, "God pity the wage worker!"

In the labor movement is to be found the intelligence, the determination and every qualification required to meet and solve the most difficult problems and I firmly believe that this intelligence, realizing, as it must, the hopelessness of relief through the strike and the boycott, the only weapons in the hands of organized labor, will, in the near future, meet the issue face to face, and, instead of the never-ending strife a march will be made to the ballot box and a system which makes it possible for a Peabody to assassinate justice end forever. While I fully realize the great benefits to the wage worker which have been derived through organization in the past and the necessity for a more thorough organization under the present system in the future if we would retain the few privileges we are still permitted to enjoy, neither can I forget the great suffering of the thousands of union men, the destitution and hardships of the noble women and the sacrifice of hundreds of lives. Has organized labor nothing to offer but a continuation of the past struggle? I, for one, answer yes.

I believe that the great majority of the membership are thinking to-day as they never thought before. The strongest advocates of pure and simple trades unionism, be they honest, can not deny that a crisis is to-day confronting organized labor which can not be successfully met with the strike, the ancient weapon of unionism.

The employing class keep fully abreast of the times, while organized labor stands with folded arms. Capital has organized as it has never organized before. In the hands of a comparative few the entire power of government, both state and national, which meets organized labor at every turn, cries "Halt!" and no one can successfully deny that during the past year our greatest organizations, both numerically and financially, have been forced to heed the command. If the same old unions be equal to cope with the new policy of the employing class, then, under a reign of prosperity, why the acceptance of a reduction in wages and increase in the hours of toil? Was the laborer receiving more than his due, or can it be possible that organized labor is at last awakening to the fact that the strike, the only weapon of defense, pitted against the rifle in the hands of the military, martial law, the bullpen and the injunction, no longer means success. If politics injected into the union means its demise, then am I willing to attend the funeral, for if organized labor be an obstruction in the path which leads to the ballot box, then I can have no regrets if it pass away.

Two years ago a convention of the Western Federation of Miners endorsed a policy of education amongst its members. Against this policy the fire of the capitalistic class has been aimed and the finale has been the war of extermination waged in Colorado during the past year. The great war governor of this state, representing the sentiments of one of the powerful political parties, states, "We have nothing against organized labor, but when they go into politics it is time for their suppression." And here you have the explanation as to why the representatives of capital are praising Peabodyism. They have no greater fear of unionism than they have had in the past, but, knowing the power of politics, they will retain it at any cost, and woe be to the individual or organization who questions their right to rule.

Brothers, has the lesson been sufficient or must each individual feel the point of the bayonet, must the chains encircle your wrists as they did brave Harry Maki's, must you take your turn in the bullpen and be dragged from your homes in the dead hour of night and sent into exile before you can realize the necessity of action? If this be so, then continue to proscribe for a system under which all these things are possible. Steer clear of politics, and just so sure as night succeeds the day, your time will come, and though this plan of education seems slow, the lesson once learned can never be forgotten. Further, I desire to call your attention to a magazine article contributed by Mr. John Mitchell and published in the Denver Times of May 3d, in which Mr. Mitchell, speaking of strikes, says as follows: "It is sometimes claimed that no strike can be won without physical force. I do not believe this to be true, but if it is, it were better that the strike be lost than that it succeed through violence and the commission of outrage. The struggle for labor is not for a day, nor a month nor a year and the cause of unionism is not lost through any single strike or through any number of strikes. If it were true that all strikes would fail if physical force could not be resorted to, it would be better to demonstrate that fact and to seek remedy in other directions than to permit strikes to degenerate into conflicts between armed men. If it can be shown that strikes can not be won without violence, then it will be necessary to secure reform for workmen exclusively through political action." It appears to me that in these few words Mr. Mitchell has said and admitted much, first, that trades unionism offers no permanent relief, that the struggle of labor must go on from day to day, month to month and year to year; second, he holds out a possibility of a remedy in other directions and in conclusion, after all else has failed, if I interpret his meaning correctly, admits that the much-sought-for reforms may be secured through political action.

In referring to Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and other leaders of organized labor, it is not my intention to criticize. I have said that only through honest difference of opinion can we expect to arrive at correct judgment and I firmly believe that the time has arrived in the labor movement when all of its forces must come together, when with one object, one policy for all, the wage workers of this great commonwealth must vote as they strike, and when this is accomplished and then only will organized labor have accomplished its mission.

Coming back to the Cripple Creek strike, I feel that, owing to my enforced absence during the past two months, I am not sufficiently in touch with the present situation to undertake to advise as to the future policy to be pursued in that district, and, as delegates, you will have the Executive Committee, selected by District Union 1. These brothers have been in charge of the strike since its inception and will be prepared to give you every detail, for these brothers I have none but words of praise. They have met the persecution of the enemy unflinchingly; the bullpen and prison has never dampened their ardor, but at each time after their release they were found back at their post shirking no responsibility. To the noble men in the Cripple Creek district who have stood by the banner of unionism for more than nine long months must be given the plaudits of organized labor throughout the land. Confronted by unheard of opposition, they have never faltered, threatened with deportation from their homes, the military bullpen and the hirelings' bullet, defeat or retreat has never been considered. For those who, at the first volley, surrendered their honor, violated their obligation and deserted their brothers in time of need, we can have nothing but contempt. To these traitors can be charged the long-drawn-out struggle in the Cripple Creek district and they will surely receive their reward. A man who will violate his sacred oath will not defend the honor of his family and should be banished from all honorable society.

After being fully informed as to the present situation by the delegates from that district, and your Executive Board, who will undoubtedly investigate prior to your convening, upon you will devolve the outlining of a policy for the future. As to the past I can say without hesitation that the interests of your organization has at all times since the inauguration of the strike, been intelligently, honestly and faithfully conducted. The system of contributing relief by establishing union stores has saved you thousands of dollars and proved beyond a doubt the great benefit to be derived through the co-operative system and I earnestly recommend that this convention advise and encourage the establishing of such institutions at every point reached by the Western Federation of Miners. The lesson taught by the business element in the Cripple Creek district, the almost immediate withdrawing of all credit, the organizing of Citizens' Alliances, should be convincing evidence that the friendship of this class reaches no farther than the pocketbook. It took the business man of the Cripple Creek district but a very short time to betray his true colors; always in favor of union wages, because they brought more money to his till, like the non-union man in the times of peace and the scab in times of trouble, ever willing to share the benefits secured by organized labor, yet at the first alarm that his profits might be affected or some union man whom he had robbed for years might ask for a dollar's credit, he cries, "The Cash System," but the same old profits. In your consideration of the Cripple Creek situation, the conditions in Colorado City and Florence will necessarily enter, therefore it will be unnecessary for me to take up your time in a review of the past farther than to say that every honorable means was resorted to by your representatives to avoid a conflict with the United States Reduction and Refining Company until the time came when there was no choice other than defending or abandoning the principles of your organization and I am proud to say that representatives of the unions in the Cripple Creek district and your Executive Board chose the former. What their position may be to-day I am unable to say; as to myself, regardless of what your verdict may be, I have no regrets, no apology to offer for an act of mine in connection with any strikes which have received the endorsement of the Executive Board during the past year. Too much praise can not be given the members of the Florence Millmen's Union when presented with an ultimatum delivered by the Mine Owners' Association demanding the surrender of their union cards or discontinuing work. There was no hesitation on their part; to a man they declared for their union and the combination who became black in the face advocating the rights of men to work when, where and for whom they pleased, enforced their ultimatum and these men who were highly satisfactory to their employer, who had taken no part in the strike, their only offense their refusal to violate their obligation and to permit their rights as American citizens to be trampled under foot, the penalty, deprived of their job and of the opportunity of earning an honest living, and here you have another example of the power of the few who own and control the jobs.

As soon as possible after the adjournment of the eleventh annual convention I visited Anaconda, Montana, to investigate the conditions confronting the Smeltermen's Union of that place and while there received a telegram from Secretary Haywood informing me that the refusal of the governor to incorporate in his call convening the legislature a recommendation for the enactment of an eight-hour law had resulted in the Denver Smeltermen becoming very impatient and I immediately returned for the purpose of using my influence in avoiding a strike, if possible. After meeting with the men, finding them almost thoroughly organized, and hearing how they had worked for years the long twelve-hour shift for a mere pittance, how they had waited patiently for relief through legislation, how the great majority of the voters of the state had told them they were entitled to the eight-hour work day and how the American Smelting and Refining Company and other corporations had controlled the Fourteenth General Assembly and throttled the will of the people, I endorsed the appointment of a committee who, on June 17th, presented to the general manager of the American Smelting and Refining Company the following petition:

PETITION.

Denver, Colo., June 17, 1903.

To the American Smelting and Refining Company:

We, your employes, holding membership in the Denver Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 93, Western Federation of Miners, desire to call your attention to the fact that thousands of the members of our organization are enjoying the privilege of an eight-hour work day and are receiving for the same a compensation in many instances far above that being paid by your company for ten and twelve hours for the same class of labor. Not only is this so, but the large majority of workmen engaged in producing the ores which are reduced in the smelters operated by your company are working but eight hours and are receiving for the same a wage exceeding that of the highest paid twelve-hour workman employed in said smelters.

After due consideration, we have concluded that, owing to the hazardous and unhealthful nature of our employment, we are at least entitled to the same condition and system of working as others employed in the production and reduction of ores and hereby request that, beginning July 1, 1903, a day's work, which now consists of ten and twelve hours in and around the smelting plants known as the Globe and the Grant, located in the city of Denver, be reduced to eight hours.

We believe this request to be a just and righteous one and sincerely trust that your company may see the way clear to granting the same. Respectfully,

JOE SCOTT,
ANTONE STANSKE,
ROBERT WITHERS,
PATRICK F. HAMAWHY,
WILLIAM L. SMITH,
HANS OLSON,
CHARLES NARDIS,

Committee.

To this petition the company gave no consideration, not even offering to put the furnace men on the eight-hour shift or to make any concession whatever. But a few days later an article appeared in the Denver papers signed by Mr. Gulterman, general manager, informing the public why it was impossible to change the hours of working. On July 3d a meeting of the union was held which was largely attended and by a unanimous vote the smeltermen of Denver decided to never again work the twelve-hour shift. At 11 p. m. of that date their decision was put into effect, which resulted in the complete closing of the larger plants—the Globe and the Grant—which have never successfully operated to this date, the Grant not attempting to resume. At the Globe scab labor has been introduced and the delegate from that local can best inform you as to the condition there at the present time. The expense of carrying on this strike has been comparatively small. During the summer and fall many of the members secured employment and only through the winter months, when impossible to secure work, have the brothers asked for assistance. The Western Federation of Miners and organized labor in general can not but be proud of the determined stand for justice made by the Denver smeltermen. No honest citizen in the state of Colorado, even the most bitter enemy of organized labor, dares say that the demands of these men—that the American Smelting and Refining Company comply with the will of the people—were unjust demands. In your consideration of the smeltermen's fight you can arrive at but one conclusion, that the fight for the eight-hour work day must go on, and, regardless of corrupt Legislatures, organized labor will yet place the great state of Colorado in the list of eight-hour states, as they have many others.

The eleventh annual convention instructed your Executive Board to continue the strike at Idaho Springs. Here the union had demanded the eight-hour shift in and around the mines, and a minimum wage of $2.75 per day. An agreement had been reached with some of the operators and it looked possible that the entire matter might be adjusted, when an explosion occurred at the Sun and Moon mine which resulted in the destruction of a power house. Later Philip Fier, an Italian miner, was found dying on the side of the mountain, and, upon examination, he was found to be a member of the Miners' Union. This seemed to be sufficient evidence and the crime was immediately laid at the door of the Western Federation of Miners. Prior to this time there had been established in the city of Denver an organization which for some reason the originators had christened the Citizens' Alliance. When the constitution was given to the public it was found to be an alliance of a certain class of citizens only, this class to be composed of the employers of labor, headed by such men as J. B. Grant, Dennis Sheedy of the American Smelting and Refining Company and the representatives of other corporations who were planning a war on organized labor, their fighting force to be selected from what is known as the "business element," but who should be termed the "charges of the wage workers," for, were it not for the hard-earned dollar of the laborer the great majority would indeed be objects of charity. This long-suffering combination, with a few non-union wage workers who were willing to swear away their manhood, also a small force of scabs who were anxious to assist the corporations in defeating the eight-hour work day, composed the army which was to be placed in the field, backed by the savior of his country, James H. Peabody, with his Krag-Jorgensons and Gatling guns. One of the cardinal principles of this combination, as stated by the president, J. C. Craig, was to be the encouragement of friendly relations between employees and employers and to protect the small merchant and manufacturer from the unjust demands and unlawful violence of the labor unions. This great law and order organization, as it wishes to be known to-day, had established a branch at Idaho Springs and included among its membership all the mine managers of that district who were stubbornly contesting the demands of the union for the eight-hour work day and a living wage. Immediately following the trouble at the Sun and Moon mine this combination, headed by Mr. Lafe Hanchett, one of the principal mine operators and president of a banking institution, decided that the time had arrived to protect the small merchants. A meeting of the Alliance was called and as a means of establishing friendly relations between employers and employees it was decided that a large number of members of organized labor should either be put to death or driven from the community. Fearing that the former action might meet with the disapproval of the "Czar of Colorado," they decided on the latter and with their law and order banner flying, they marched forth in the dead of night to drag from their homes eighteen innocent citizens whose only offense had been the right to affiliate with organized labor. These men were marched for miles down the canon, followed by a howling mob, and warned never to return. Finding their way to Denver, they were cared for by your officers and the matter immediately laid before the chief executive of the state with an appeal for protection, and what think you was the reply of this miserable corporation tool, the man who is to-day receiving the praise of the Republican party, who a short time later, in the face of a vigorous protest from the civil authorities of Teller county, sent the military to that country, placing the state under almost a million dollars indebtedness, who, to shield a mob of members of the Citizens' Alliance and Mine Owners, declared martial law in San Miguel county?—when informed that mob law prevailed in Idaho Springs and the lives of certain citizens of that community were in danger, though the sheriff and other so-called officers of the law were acting in conjunction with said mob, plead no authority, and the men were referred to the civil authorities. Later an order was secured from the court restraining the Citizens' Alliance from interfering and the men returned to their homes, but the persecution still continued. Some were arrested for conspiracy and all were denied the privilege of working in the district. At the regular term of court those who had been charged with complicity in the explosion, after determined effort on one part of the mine owners to convict, were exonerated in such a manner as left no doubt of their innocence. Attorney Richardson, who had been called into the case in the absence of Mr. Murphy, permitting their case to go to the jury without having produced any evidence in their behalf. This was not sufficient for the law and order gang, but there being some question regarding the county line, near which the power house was located, a number of the acquitted men were followed into the adjoining county and thrown into jail on the same charge. These men were all released on bonds and will be tried during the June term of court. There can be no question as to their acquittal, the only object of their persecutors being to confine them in jail as long as possible. It was the general opinion that this mob had violated the laws of our state and should be made to answer to the courts. Acting on this presumption some eighty informations were filed against those who were known to have played an active part. When court convened we were given to distinctly understand that while union men would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law the mine owners had nothing to fear. The cases were all dismissed and the first raid of the Citizens' Alliance received the approval of the district attorney and also of the chief executive of the state. The strike at Idaho Springs has never been declared off, and a number of the companies operating there are still unfair to organized labor. The conditions which have prevailed have made an aggressive policy impossible and under the present conditions I know of nothing this convention can do other than to instruct your incoming Executive Board to keep in close touch with the situation, endeavor to build up the union there and the time will surely come when the grievous wrongs done organized labor in that district will be righted.

The Telluride situation, I feel, needs no lengthy review. The cause of the strike and the conditions which have prevailed here can be more intelligently outlined on the floor of the convention by delegates from San Juan, your secretary-treasurer and your Executive Board. In the month of March, believing that my duty as president of your organization required that I visit this part of our jurisdiction, I unhesitatingly came. On the 26th of March, acting under instructions of Peabody, the sheriff of San Miguel county came to Ouray, where I had gone to advise with deported members of Telluride Union. I was placed under arrest upon a trumped-up charge and brought to Telluride, where I was turned over to the military, or, rather, the Citizens' Alliance and Mine Owners' Association, and have been held a prisoner by them to this date. As I have said, what has transpired during the past nine months in connection with the situation here will be fully outlined on the floor of the convention. It then becomes your duty as delegates to unflinchingly meet the situation as it exists to-day and determine what shall be the policy of the Western Federation of Miners in the future. Cold facts, as they will undoubtedly be submitted to you as delegates and which the past and present actions of the Citizens' Alliance, Mine Owners' Association and governor of the state will prove beyond a doubt and satisfy you of the intention on their part to drive from San Miguel county, Colorado, every vestige of your organization. In carrying out this policy all law has been cast aside, and mob, or martial, which means no law, has taken its place. It might be well for me to say, for the information of delegates, that this has been without any exception the most conservative strike ever engaged in by the Western Federation of Miners. At the inauguration of the strike your officers counseled conservative action and at all times have advised the members engaged to confine their every act strictly within the laws of the county and state, and that this advice has been fully adhered to cannot be contradicted by any individual in the state of Colorado.

Now, let us see how this policy was met by the Mine Owners' Association. First, men were arrested and thrown into prison charged with intimidation, inciting riot, assault, and every conceivable charge possible for cunning brains to invent. Men with thousands of dollars' worth of property being charged with vagrancy and sentenced to hard labor on the public streets. A refusal to comply with terms of sentence meeting with such punishment as would seem impossible for one human being to inflict upon another. Then, the deporting of men and women, and finally the gathering of an armed mob, a hundred men dragged from their homes and their families, driven into the mountains like animals and warned that their lives would pay the penalty should they return. This all sanctioned and encouraged by the majority of the civil authorities and the chief executive of the state. To-day in Telluride all members of organized labor are designated by this combination as "agitators," and from day to day certain ones are selected by the mine owners and Citizens' Alliance, who are in charge of the military, deported from the county and warned never to return.

zens' Alliance under a Republican administration in the state of Colorado to meet the conservative strike of organized labor. One man in this state has delegated to himself the power to determine who shall take up his residence and remain in the state of Colorado, also to designate the county in which he shall reside, if permitted to remain. Not only this, but the chief executive of this state has decided that he is superior to the courts, both high and low, and only at his pleasure will their mandates be enacted. He reserves the right to deprive of their liberty for his entire term of office any individual who may meet with his displeasure. Not only is this so, but if the constitution of the state of Colorado gives to the chief executive the power claimed and put into practice by James H. Peabody, which practice has received the endorsement of the Republican party upon which the supreme judiciary of the state is silent, then he not only has the power to deprive of their liberty such citizens as he may desire, but he may order their execution at his pleasure. If this be law, then I can no longer subscribe to its execution or advise others to do so. I have advised peace and conservatism and in return received the bullpen and vile abuse of the corporations and their tools. I have seen brave men acting on my advice, which I believe to be for the best interests of our organization, silently submit to such damnable abuse as has made me blush for my manhood and call myself a coward, and I say to you to-day, unhesitatingly, that the time has arrived when organized labor must speak out in ringing tones. Pleading has become a mockery. Law-abiding citizens have been branded as cowards; the lower courts receive no notice and, for reasons best known to itself, the highest judiciary of the state fails to act. I have stated that of the two weapons to be placed in the hands of the wage-worker I would recommend the ballot. In San Miguel county to-day it would appear that for temporary relief some other policy should be pursued. I do not believe that there is a law on the statutes of a state in our Union or in the constitution of the United States which deprives a citizen the right of self-defense. I do not believe that there is a law which provides that one class of citizens shall be armed to the teeth and another class robbed of every means of defense, as has been done in Trinidad and Telluride, and the armed mob permitted to murder and drive like cattle their helpless victims. There are hundreds of your members in the San Juan who should return to their homes; in Telluride the Citizens' Alliance and mine owners await them with the rifle.

Further discussion of this situation by me seems idle, and I leave the matter in your hands.

The situation in Randsburg, California, where your brothers have made such a noble stand; also in French Gulch, Searchlight, Nevada, and other points where we have been involved in strikes, I feel can best be outlined to you by members of your Executive Board, who have been in the field continuously and are familiar with every detail. Circumstances with which I have been surrounded during the past two months have deprived me of all data necessary in compiling a report, and I feel that, knowing the situation as you do, apologies from me will be unnecessary. Under different circumstances it had been my intention to make a number of recommendations to the twelfth annual convention. My physical condition in the past fifteen days has made this impossible. Being in poor health at the time of my arrest, my surroundings have made it impossible for me to recuperate, and it has been a question as to whether I would be able to submit this unsatisfactory report before your adjournment. Before concluding there are a few thoughts which come to my mind that I believe should receive your consideration.

First, I would recommend that the emergency strike clause be stricken from our constitution. I do not believe that any emergency will confront a local which will force them on strike pending the time required to notify headquarters or the Executive Board member of that district. No set of officers can successfully manage an organization under a constitution which permits any number of its locals to go on strike at their will and notify the officers after so doing. This is an important matter in my opinion and worthy of careful consideration.

In my report to the eleventh annual convention I recommended the biennial convention. I still believe that a convention each twelve months is unnecessary, unless an emergency arises, such as is provided for in your constitution. The great amount of money required to cover the expense of convention applied for organizing and other purposes would, in my opinion, be of far greater benefit to your organization. In lieu of the annual convention I would recommend the immediate organizing of state unions in every state and territory where the Federation is established; that such state organizations hold annual conventions; that on odd years, when no convention is held by the Federation and prior to the convention of said state unions, one representative from each state, territory or province assemble at the headquarters of the Federation and, in conjunction with the Executive Board, audit the books and acquire a full knowledge of the condition of the Federation, then report to their state conventions. I have in mind much in favor of this system, but time will not permit me to go into further detail.

As the past year especially has convinced you that your officers may at any time be deprived of their liberty for an indefinite period, I would recommend the creating of the office and the election of an assistant to your secretary-treasurer. The importance of this office makes it necessary that the incumbent be familiar with every detail of the organization. This knowledge can only be acquired at your headquarters. The volume of business and the emergency which I have mentioned appears to make this change not only practical but one of absolute necessity.

The Executive Board will have explained to you the details of establishing the weekly edition of the Magazine. The Miners' Magazine has been of great benefit to your organization during the past year and not only should it be continued to be issued weekly, but plans should be devised to place it in the hands of every member of the organization. The ability of your editor needs no comments from me, and you will be fortunate indeed in retaining his services.

As instructed by the eleventh annual convention, the services of John H. Murphy as attorney were retained for the year. I am very sorry to say that Mr. Murphy's health has made it impossible for him to attend to all the legal business of your organization, but at all times he has displayed the deepest interest in the welfare of the Western Federation of Miners and should you decide to continue permanent counsel it would be difficult indeed for me to recommend one more able or devoted to your cause than Mr. Murphy.

The question of organizing is one of great importance and your incoming Executive Board should be provided with means for keeping in the field a number of organizers, especially in the northern and southern mining districts. The foothold obtained in this new territory should make it possible through a progressive campaign of organization to bring into our ranks all metalliferous miners.

I have been informed that representatives of the American Federation of Labor will request the privilege of extending to you an invitation to affiliate with that body. This request should be granted and an endeavor made to arrive at a more thorough understanding than has prevailed in the past. While there can be no successful argument advanced against the consolidation of all labor forces, yet the question of affiliation with the American Federation of Labor is one of great importance to our organization and can only be disposed of by a referendum vote of our entire membership; and, that we may arrive at a final settlement of this question, I would recommend that this mode of procedure be adopted. Regardless of what may be done in the matter of this affiliation, it appears to me absolutely necessary that closer relationship be established within the coal and metalliferous organizations. We have, in the state of Colorado, two bodies of miners engaged in the struggle for the same cause—their interests identical—still in many instances working at cross purposes. In order that a better understanding may be reached, I would advise that representatives be appointed to meet with like representatives of the United Mine Workers for the purpose of permanently settling the question of jurisdiction, also the establishing of a transfer card system as well as a joint system of operation in territories wherein both organizations are represented.

I would recommend that the incoming Executive Board be instructed to inaugurate a vigorous campaign against the re-election of a Republican administration in the state of Colorado and that the expenditure of funds for that purpose be left to their judgment, and that every possible means be used for the election in this state of a Legislature pledging themselves to the passage of the eight-hour law.

In conclusion, I desire to extend to our membership my sincere thanks for the courtesies shown and the assistance rendered me in the past; my relations with the Executive Board have been of the most friendly and they are entitled to your highest commendation for the faithful manner in which they have conducted the affairs of our organization during the past year.

The valuable services of your secretary-treasurer would indeed be difficult to duplicate; although the entire responsibility of the organization has at times devolved upon him, he has ever proved equal to the emergency. The faithful performance of the business of his office, the able and correct manner shown in the accounting of the funds which have passed through his hands, his fearless advocacy of our cause, cannot fail to meet with the praise of every member of the Western Federation of Miners.

As to myself, I have no complaint. I believe that every possible means have been resorted to for securing my release, and if my persecution has opened the eyes and set to thinking our membership, then I feel that at least I have accomplished something. When accepting the position of president of your organization I did so fully aware of all its responsibilities, and let the outcome be what it may, I will ever be found upholding the principles and honor of the Western Federation of Miners. He who would falter to-day is not worthy of membership, and if I can be of service to you in the future in any capacity, I am yours to command.

I sincerely trust that your deliberations may be of great benefit to those you represent, and to the great army of wage-workers throughout the land, and that our organization may ever be found battling for the cause of humanity and the emancipation of the wage slave.

With kindest regards to all delegates, I am, yours for the cause,

CHARLES H. MOYER,

President of the Western Federation of Miners.

Resolution No. 52. That portion of the minutes of Executive Board ordered at yesterday's session to be discussed to-day, now taken up, the matter referred to appearing in minute book, pages 76 and 79. That portion of the minutes now read.

Executive Board Member Murphy states that those minutes are only a sketch of the report made by Sullivan and McDonald, and asks for a full report from those men. He further states the conditions at Anaconda and the actions of Sullivan and McDonald while there.

Chair rules on point of order. Ruling appealed from.

Motion made and seconded that appeal be laid on the table. Motion carried.

Murphy continues explanation

A. J. McDonald explains the work of the committee in Montana, and reads report of their proceedings while in Montana.

Moved and seconded that Brother J. C. Sullivan be given the floor immediately after roll call in the afternoon to explain as to what was done by him when a committeeman one year ago in Montana. Motion carried.

Committee on Memorial exercises report that they have called on the street car company and that said company advise them that they can not furnish special cars for that service.

Adjourned at 12 m. until 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention was called to order at 2 p. m. by Vice President Williams. Brothers McLean and Allen took up the password. Roll call, absent C. H. Hickson and Max Malich.

The following telegram was received:

Florence, Colorado, May 28, 1904.

William D. Haywood, Room 625 Mining Exchange Building:

Our secretary, Brother Ed Birdsall, died at 7:30 a. m., May 27th.

T. J. CONIBAR.

J. C. Sullivan takes the floor and states that if he is permitted to make a statement in the Anaconda, Montana, matter he first wants assurance that he will not be interrupted. This assurance being given, he proceeds.

Moved and seconded that the minutes of the meetings of the Executive Board be accepted and filed. Motion carried unanimously.

Report of Credential Committee on request of C. A. Rice, that Brother William Kuhns be permitted to vote proxy for him.

No. 53.

Denver, Colorado, May 28, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Western Federation of Miners:

As it will be impossible for me to attend the balance of the sessions of the convention, I hereby delegate my proxy to Brother William Kuhns of Central City Union No. 56. CHARLES A. RICE.

We recommend that the request be granted.

W. J. McMACKIN, Chairman.

G. W. GREEN.

Moved and seconded that the report of the Credential Committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

Majority report from Grievance Committee.

Denver, Colorado, May 28, 1904.

A majority of the Committee on Credentials hereby recommend that Great Falls Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 16 be allowed four votes; that the same be held by these proxies: Ed Long, 2 votes; Pat Brennan, 1 vote; F. L. Reber, 1 vote. And that we recommend to the convention that in the future no union be given recognition which fails to furnish quarterly reports, on which their standing is based.

G. W. GREEN,
JAMES H. RODDA,
NICK COMES,
JOHN LAWRY.

Minority report from Grievance Committee.

Denver, Colorado, May 28, 1904.

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee on Credentials, recommend that Great Falls Mill and Smeltermen No. 16 be not allowed the four votes recommended by a majority, for the following reasons:

First—The Committee on Credentials is bound to base the votes of unions on the quarterly report of January 1st of each year. Great Falls Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 16 has failed to send any such reports.

Second—Great Falls Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 16 has violated the constitution and by-laws of the Western Federation of Miners by its failure to furnish the secretary-treasurer with reports and its refusal to use the due stamp system, as the report of the Executive Board shows.

Third—We believe that it is establishing a dangerous precedent, especially in the case of strong unions. Fraternally submitted,

ALBERT RYAN,
W. A. MORGAN.

Moved and seconded that the majority report of the Credential Committee be adopted.

Moved and seconded as an amendment that the minority report be adopted. For 25, against 50. Amendment is lost. Original motion carried.

Resolution in reference to the death of Brother Edward Birdsall of No. 184.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Western Federation of Miners:

I hereby desire to offer the following resolution:

Whereas, We, the delegates to the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners, in convention assembled, have received information that our brother, Ed Birdsall, was summoned from our midst this morning in response to the call which all must obey; and,

Whereas, Brother Birdsall was the custodian of the confidence and regard of his brother workers as secretary of Florence Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 184, and delegate to District Union No. 1; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the delegates here assembled, that in the death of Brother Birdsall our organization has been deprived of one of its most useful members; that we hereby express our appreciation of his efforts in our cause in the past and deplore the loss we now sustain; that our heartfelt sympathy be extended to the relatives and friends of our deceased brother, and that this resolution be given official publication.

J. A. BAKER.

Moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. Motion carried unanimously by a rising vote.

The Grievance Committee reported as follows on Resolution No. 33:

No. 33.

Whereas, This convention has accepted an invitation from the Trades Assembly to attend a ball, to be given on Saturday, May 28th; be it therefore

Resolved, That our presiding officer be required to lead the grand march.

W. W. HILLIS, No. 138.

Denver, Colorado, May 27, 1904.

Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

We, your Grievance Committee, wish to recommend the following on Resolution No. 33:

That the acting president of the Western Federation of Miners at this convention be and is hereby requested to lead the grand march at the ball to be given in Coliseum hall on Saturday evening in behalf of the striking miners of Colorado dressed in Underhill overalls and jumper, digging boots and gum hat. Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McDONALD,
W. F. DAVIS,
J. E. CLIFFORD,
SAM RADOVICH,
THOMAS McGRATH,
FRED SIDNER,
CHARLES A. RICE,
H. L. LANE.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee be adopted. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on Education and Literature:

No. 3 Lake City, Colorado, May 21, 1904.
Officers and Delegates of the Western Federation of Miners, in Twelfth Annual Convention Assembled:

Greeting—In consequence of a long, protracted lockout and the subsequent blacklist of a majority of our members, we are financially unable to secure representation by delegate, hence we submit to your body a brief summary of our rights, interests and demands.

Official Organ.—The cohesiveness of the organization and the proper economic education of our members, as well as the extension of our jurisdiction, absolutely demands a compulsory subscription of the official organ. Further maintenance of the present planless educational policy is suicidal. The A. L. U., the A. S. E. and U. B. R. E. all united with the Western Federation of Miners through the parent body, have adopted the system of sending their official organs to every member of their organizations in good standing, with the result of a gain of 100 per cent. since the introduction of this policy. Therefore, we urge that you enact such legislation as will result in every member's receiving the official organ, and we suggest that revenue for said purpose be derived from local dues, fees or assessments or per capita tax. American Labor Union Journal fund of 4 cents per month is derived from local dues; U. B. R. E. Journal from per capital tax. We further demand that the policy of the official organ conform to the policy of the Federation, as determined from time to time by the conventions. The last convention endorsed Socialism, but the Miners' Magazine, during the recent Denver municipal campaign condemned one wing of the capitalist parties and by its silence concerning the other wing virtually endorsed the other; and at no time during such campaign did it ask its members to vote for the Socialist nominees. Therefore we ask you this question, and we demand an answer: Did the Magazine repudiate the decree of the convention or did the convention repudiate the Magazine?

Attempted Abolition of Sympathetic Strike.—It has been currently reported from so many sources that a preconcerted and well-organized plan (backed by the funds of the smelter trust, Mine Managers' Association and Citizens' Alliance) has been consummated for the purpose of abolishing the sympathetic strike, at the session of the convention, that we can no longer ignore it. We denounce it as a barefaced blow at the heart of the Federation, and instigated for the sole purpose of disrupting our organization. We further denounce the supporters of this movement as paid conspirators and traitors, without qualification and without reservation, and repudiate in advance any such infamous treason in our ranks. "An injury to one is the concern of all." In the event that the convention gives the lie to this immortal axiom through the success of this hellish conspiracy, Henson Miners' Union No. 50 secedes from that hour.

Political Action.—Judging from the compromising antagonistic attitude of the head officials of the Colorado State Federation of Labor during the recent Denver municipal campaign, from the same attitude of Member of the Executive Board Murphy of Butte, according to capitalistic interviews and the American Labor Union Journal, from the recent pro-democratic vomits from the fake "labor" papers of the state, from the strenuous opposition to Denver as the convention city, and from the innumerable other coincident portents, it is manifest that the dupes and tools of the corporations have determined to attack the most vital point in the armor of the Federation, and attempt to deliver our prostituted franchises to the enemies of the working class.

We are on the eve of a state and national election. The convention dare not ignore an issue more vital than "hours" and "wages." Shall we vote for ourselves or our masters? For Debs and Moyer, or for more Republican bullpens in Colorado and more Democratic bullpens in the Coeur d'Alenes? We demand that you face this paramount issue like men, not cowards, and candidly tell us which?

If we strike industrially for an increase of fifty cents per day, the non-union industrial scab robs us of $182 a year; that's why we hate him. But when we strike politically for the whole of our earnings, constituting an increase of $6 per day, the "union" political scab robs us of $2,000 a year—that's why we detest him and further repudiate both him and his weak-kneed, sycophantic lick-spittle, Gomperistic organization, henceforth and forever.

It is deplorable that we, as workingmen, should thus have occasion to ask other workingmen not to go on record as pledged to scab on us at the ballot box, not to cut labor's throat at the polls, not to continue voting our sons into slavery and our daughters into debauchery. The inexorable law of self-preservation admits of no compromise and we therefore urge this convention to reaffirm its adherence and loyalty to its previous working class political program, and thus maintain the glorious Federation in the van of class-conscious and class-militant organized labor, which exalted position it could never have attained but for its Spartan devotion to the universal economic and political solidarity of the sons of toil. Should you reverse yourselves regarding united working class political action, and thus condemn millions of your brothers and sisters to a perpetual program of strikes, lockouts, blacklists, injunctions, starvation, bullpens and military assassinations, you give us infinitely greater cause to abhor you and resist you than did the Hessians of '76 give the patriots of the first American Revolution, and your names in history will rank beneath that of Benedict Arnold.

Our charters bear the motto of emancipation: "Labor creates all wealth; wealth belongs to the producer 'hereof.'" But if this body turns traitor to that principal, and murders the child of its conception, then erase that heroic inscription from your polluted parchments and accept from us that prostituted document that shall no longer dishonor our walls.

We insist that this protest and plea be incorporated in the minutes of the proceedings of the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners.

HENSON MINERS' UNION No. 50, W. F. M.
FRANK POTESTIO, Pres.
EUGENE OTIS, Secretary.
M. L. SALTER,
J. FISHER,
Committee.

Denver, Colorado, May 28, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled:

Gentlemen—We, your Committee on Education and Literature, submit the following report on the communication of Henson Miners' Union:

On that part touching the official organ, we recommend the following: That it would be a good educational policy to send the official organ into the home of every member in good standing in the Western Federation of Miners; to accomplish the same, a list of all members in good standing should be furnished by the secretaries of the different locals to headquarters of the Western Federation of Miners, to be put on the subscription list of the official organ. And we recommend that the police policy of the official organ be controlled by the Executive Board of the Western Federation of Miners, and that an assessment of $1 per member per year to create a separate fund to defray expenses of the same be levied.

On that part of the communication touching on independent political action, while we believe that it is to the best interest of the organization to reaffirm the action taken by the tenth and eleventh annual conventions of the Western Federation of Miners, we recommend that this be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

We further recommend that that part of the communication touching on the sympathetic strike be referred to the Committee on Strikes and Lockouts.

THOMAS STRICK,
M. F. NEY.

Report adopted as read.

Resolution No. 59. Reference to employing attorney. Referred to Grievance Committee.

Report of Grievance Committee in reference to charter for State Union for California.

No. 43. Denver, Colorado, May 26, 1904.

Whereas, The president and secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, having been applied to for a state charter by Liberty District No. 6, Western Federation of Miners, on January 14, 1904, to be known as California State Miners' Union, Western Federation of Miners; and,

Whereas, Said application was made by the following ten unions: Tuolumne Union No. 73, Summerville Union No. 87, Soulsbyville Union No. 109, Sierra Gorda Union No. 39, Wood's Creek Union No. 127, Jamestown Union No. 185, Columbia Union No. 182, Jacksonville Union No. 202, Calaveras Union No. 55, Independence Union No. 166; and,

Whereas, The said application having been refused, as will be shown by the accompany letter of President Moyer; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the delegates of Summerville Union No. 87, Tuolumne Union No. 73, Sierra Gorda Union No. 39 and Calaveras Union No. 55, do hereby request that this matter be brought before the twelfth annual convention, that such action shall be taken so that a charter shall be granted for a state union, to be known as the California State Union, Western Federation of Miners.

Report of Grievance Committee on jurisdiction of Jackson and Wood's Creek Miners' Unions in Resolution No. 13. Committee recommend that Wood's Creek Union be given jurisdiction.

No. 13. Chinese Camp, California, May 17, 1904.

William D. Haywood, Secretary-Treasurer Western Federation of Miners, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sir and Brother—Enclosed find petition from this union to be presented to the twelfth annual convention of our organization. We are not sending a delegate. Yours fraternally,

A. J. MOORE, Secretary.

Chinese Camp, California, May 17, 1904.

To the Honorable Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

We, the members of the Wood's Creek Miners' Union No. 127, Western Federation of Miners, do pray that your honorable body define the jurisdiction of this (Wood's Creek Miners' Union No. 127) union, and its power, for the following reasons:

First—That the Executive Board of the Federation has, through J. T. Lewis of said board, ordered this union to issue transfers to Jacksonville Union No. 202, Western Federation of Miners, of members of this union (Wood's Creek No. 127) who were and are still working in, as we claim, our jurisdiction, such in our opinion, being contrary to Article III, Section 1 of the constitution and by-laws of the Western Federation of Miners.

Second—We also claim jurisdiction of the Eagle-Shawmut mine as our jurisdiction by the right of prior organization of our union, which was organized August 31, 1901, by J. C. Williams, who was at that time member of the Executive Board for this district, and who organized Wood's Creek Miners' Union from men employed at said Eagle-Shawmut mine.

Third—If the action taken by the Executive Board in allowing said members to transfer to Jacksonville Union No. 202 is final, this, Wood's Creek Union No. 127, Western Federation of Miners, is virtually non-existent, as it has no power to compel men employed in its jurisdiction to become members of Wood's Creek Union.

Fourth—We claim that to this union (No. 127) belongs the jurisdiction of Eagle-Shawmut mine, as all men employed there are paid off in this town, and all business transacted here. This town also being the postoffice address of said mine. There is no other mine in operation near this camp.

We urge that your honorable body take action in this matter at once, and by so doing define the rights and privileges of Wood's Creek Miners' Union No. 127. Respectfully submitted,

WOOD'S CREEK MINERS' UNION No. 127,
SIMON GOUDGE, Pres't,
A. J. MOORE, Fin. Sec'y.

Denver, Colorado, May 28, 1904.

We, your Committee on Grievance, beg leave to submit the following to the members of the twelfth annual convention for your consideration,

We do respectfully recommend that the Wood's Creek Miners' Union be given jurisdiction over the Eagle-Shawmut mine. Yours respectfully,

A. J. McDONALD,

Report of Resolution Committee on No. 31:

No. 31.

McCabe, Arizona, May 4, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners—Greeting:

Since the adjournment of the eleventh annual convention, one year ago, there has been an exacerbation of that disease—capitalistic avarice—which is so prevalent to the social and economic life of this era of competition; and,

Whereas, This capitalistic avarice has left the imprints of its arrogance and insatiable covetousness, in the state of Colorado, in a debauched judiciary, a prostituted legislature, an unenforced constitution, an industrial conflict, a reign of militarism and a bankrupt commonwealth; and,

Whereas, On one side of this industrial conflict there is a malevolent and mammonistic Mine Owners' Association, in connivance with whom is the executive mal-administration and its aperturances, that pusillanimous parasite, Peabody, the so-called-governor, and the unscrupulous and asinine nonentity, Sherman Bell, an ochlocratic Citizens' Alliance, and a ribald militia, using all their innate hatred of humanity and their demoniacal machinations to subjugate labor to the level peonage; and on the overworked, ill-requitted toilers of the mines and smelters, endeavoring to uphold and sustain the constitutional laws of the state, and withstanding this onslaught of corporate greed and moral iniquity with a fortitude and forbearance that has commanded the admiration and plaudits of the civilized world; and,

Whereas, The officers and Executive Board of the Western Federation of Miners have, during the past term, proven, by their diligent, assiduous and self-sacrificing efforts in behalf of the organization, their competency to lead labor to the full remuneration of its toll; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of McCabe Miners' Union No. 118, in regular assembly, do hereby express our confidence in President Moyer, Secretary-Treasurer Haywood, and their colleagues, and our approval of their conducting of the affairs of the Federation in the past, and be it further

Resolved, That we do abhor and condemn the aggravating imperiousness of the parasitical sycophant, Peabody, and the nocturnal mob violence of the Citizens' Alliance in their vassalage to the Mine Owners' Association, and be it further

Resolved, That we condemn that fatuous and inane object of modernism, Teddy-ism and strenuosity, who, by his indifference to the social and economic welfare of the wealth producers of the United States, has made the question pertinent, "Is Colorado in America?"

Moved and seconded that report of committee be not concurred in. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on Grievance:

Teller, Colorado, May 19, 1904.

Mr. Amosa Bunch, Secretary Miners' Union, Creede, Colorado:

The following is a statement of the differences between Cloud City Miners' Union No. 33 and myself:

I was secretary of Cloud City Miners' Union No. 33 for six terms or three years immediately after the Leadville strike, and served the union faithfully during that time. The Finance Committee reported favorably on my accounts. I left Leadville broke and came to Creede and started to work and sent for my family. After some time I received a letter from James McKeon, secretary, saying that they were going to prefer charges against me for being short in my accounts as secretary of about $42.00. I answered his letter, saying that they could take it out of the month's salary which they owed me and send me the balance. That settled matters for some time, when I again sent them a bill for $90.00 due me from Cloud City Miners' Union No. 33, and they refused to pay it, saying that I could collect it from the Federation if I saw fit.

The report went out that F. J. Moore had left Leadville with the Union funds, and although I repeatedly wrote to the union, not one of my letters were ever read before them, and I had to take my medicine until Mr. McClusky was elected secretary and he promised to have it brought before the union and settled.

I am paying dues and assessments to this strike and I challenge anyone as to my unionism and it is well known in Leadville what part I took in the strike as Edward Boyce and others could tell that I never faltered in my duty.

And what is the cause of all this? you may ask. Simply because I have opposed a ticket with scabs upon it when it was supposed to be a union ticket in a Leadville county election. The principal candidates upon which are now leading members of the Citizens' Alliance at Leadville; this I can prove. I helped to organize the Leadville union and was identified with it until I left there, and have more friends in Leadville than the knockers have, ten to one, and it is our enemies we should be fighting against instead of men who are always willing to try and advance true labor reform.

The shortage in my accounts is nothing more than clerical errors which may happen to anybody keeping accounts, and I could have easily paid it if they had asked me for it like men, but no, they wished to injure me, and they have failed. Take four men out of the Leadville union and you can't find a man in it who would say a wrong word against me.

In closing I will say, let us all stand together and try and assist our brothers who are struggling in Cripple Creek and Telluride, and also our noble president, who languishes in a prison cell simply because we are not as strongly and thoroughly united as we should be.
Yours fraternally,

FRANK J. MOORE.

Denver, Colorado, May 27, 1904.

We, your Committee on Grievance, beg leave to submit the following to the officers and members of the twelfth annual convention, now assembled, for your consideration. We do respectfully recommend that the grievance of F. J. Moore be referred back to Cloud City Miners' Union No. 33. Yours respectfully,

No. 17.

To the Officers and Delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Brothers—We hereby recommend that article 3, section 1, be amended to read as follows:

"The officers of the Federation shall consist of a president, a vice president, a secretary-treasurer, and an executive board of nine members, including the three general officers before named, of which the president shall be chairman, all of whom shall be elected by the majority vote of the delegates from their respective districts, except the president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, who shall be elected by the majority vote of the delegates to the convention, and shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and qualified and enter upon the duties of their office." Respectfully submitted,

CREEDE MINERS' UNION NO. 20.

This amendment was endorsed by Creede Union No. 20 unanimously. AMOSA BUNCH, Secretary.

No. 16.

To the Officers and Delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Brothers—We hereby recommend that article 3, section 1, be amended to read as follows:

"The officers of the Federation shall consist of a president, a vice president, a secretary-treasurer, and an executive board of nine members, including the three general officers before named, of which the president shall be chairman, all of whom shall be elected by the majority vote of the delegates from their respective districts, except the president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, who shall be elected by the majority vote of the delegates to the convention, and shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and qualified and enter upon the duties of their office." Resolution No. 21.

Sec. 4. That any member sixty days in arrears, working on fair properties during strike and in jurisdiction of strike district, refusing to pay said arrearages, shall be published as a scab and suspended from the local he belongs to.

No. 25.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Western Federation of Miners—Greeting:

We, the undersigned members of the Western Federation of Miners, beg leave to submit the following recommendations for your consideration:

First, that the Executive Board of the Western Federation of Miners be abolished, and that there be substituted in its place a committee of three to act in conjunction with the president of the Western Federation of Miners, said committee to be known as the National Grievance Committee, and shall have all power of conducting the business of the Federation in regard to the handling of strikes and lockouts. It is intended that the members of the national committee shall act as organizers when not engaged in other work. It is intended that the salary of this committee shall be $5.00 per day and transportation expenses.

Second, that in every state and territory where the Western Federation of Miners is organized there shall be a grievance committee to be known as the State or Territory Committee and shall be elected by a referendum vote of the members of the local unions of the state, the person receiving the greatest number of votes shall be the chairman of the committee. The chairman of the committee shall receive all of the funds that are to be used as relief and shall have the distributing of the same. The salary of this committee shall be $5.00 per day and transportation expenses while they are engaged in the work of adjusting grievances or handling strikes.

Third, each district union shall appoint a grievance committee, the same to be subordinate to the State and National Committees at all times. The District Committee shall have the power to settle all grievances and strikes in its jurisdiction, subject to the approval of the State and National Committees. In case the District Union Grievance Committee is at any time unable to reach a settlement of a grievance, it shall then be submitted to the state committee; in the event of that committee being unable to settle the same, it will then go to the National Grievance Committee. After a matter has been before the committee and not settled, then it shall go to the local unions by referendum vote; they shall decide whether they shall call a strike or not.

We further recommend that the constitution of the Western Federation of Miners be amended to conform with the above request.

E. L. WHITNEY,
SHERMAN PARKER,
M. F. NEY.

No. 26.

Sec. 1, Art. IV. The revenue of the Federation shall be derived from a charter fee of $25.00 and an annual per capita tax of $4.00 per member in good standing, two of which will go in the general fund, and two of which will go in the emergency fund to be used in case of strikes and lockouts, said tax to be paid until the emergency fund shall have reached the sum of $300,000, then said per capita tax shall be reduced to $2.00 per member in good standing.

VICTOR UNION. NO. 32,
M. F. Ney.

We, the Committee on Constitution, hereby report as follows:
Resolutions Nos. 16 and 17 are identical. We recommend that Nos. 16 and 17 be not adopted, as action has already been taken on all matters contained therein.

Resolution No. 21. We recommend as a substitute to section 4, that any member sixty days in arrears, working within the jurisdiction of the Western Federation of Miners, and refusing to pay his arrearage, shall be expelled from his union and published as a scab. We recommend that substitute be adopted.

Resolution No. 25. We recommend that it be referred to the incoming Executive Board to be reported on at next convention.

Resolution No. 26. We recommend that it be referred to the twelfth annual convention without comment.

R. E. ALLEN, Chairman.
J. H. LINEHAN, Secretary.
ARTHUR W. FILION,
ED LONG.
R. R. CRUMB,
FRANK SCHMELZER.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention called to order at 2 p. m., Vice President Williams in the chair. Brothers Hagglund and Davis took up the password. Roll call shows C. H. Hickson absent and Max Malich sick.

Committee from the Trades Assembly on the Labor Temple proposition wished to be heard.

Moved and seconded that the committee be admitted. Motion carried.

Committee admitted. P. N. McPhee explained the nature of their business. G. S. Wells of the International Association of Machinists also outlined for the convention the nature of the business they wished to put before the convention and explained fully their intention to buy a building and convert the same into a Labor Temple, and headquarters for all unions in the city and a headquarters for the Western Federation of Miners. H. S. Hindman of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was the third member of the committee and endorsed all that had been said by the brothers who spoke before him. Committee retired.

Moved and seconded that the appeal of the committee be placed in the hands of the Good and Welfare Committee. Motion carried.

The following communications with their enclosures were read:

Victor, Colorado, May 30, 1904.

Mr. W. F. Davis and Delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention,
Western Federation of Miners:

Enclosed you will find a few hand bills that we got out to-day that gave the scabs and "tin soldiers" a bunch that they will remember some time to come. The scabs tried to have a parade this forenoon and got out about 300 in all. This afternoon we had about 2,500 in line and all of the orders were well represented. Scabs are scarce around Victor to-night and have nothing to say. See the Record for a send-off in the morning. Yours,
W. B. EASTERLY.

NOTICE TO ALL LAW-ABIDING CITIZENS OF COLORADO.

You are hereby notified to assemble at the corner of Fourth and Victor avenue at 1:30 p. m. to assist in commemorating and decorating the graves of our heroic dead. All fraternal orders are invited to attend. A full band will furnish the music. By order of

COMMITTEE OF AMERICAN CITIZENS.

Victor, Colorado, May 30, 1904.

Mr. W. D. Haywood, Secretary-Treasurer Western Federation of Miners:

Dear Sir and Brother—The coupons have arrived O. K. I have just returned from participating in OUR Decoration Day parade. The militia, mine owners and Citizens' Alliance (which latter includes the scabs) had theirs this morning, and I wish you could have seen the contrast. We made them look worse than 30 cents. It was a surprise even to ourselves, considering the hurried arrangements, but the meagre showing made by our enemies seemed to be an inspiration to the boys and the Ladies' Auxiliary and they did themselves proud. In the morning parade, the militia and the scabs who followed them numbered about 100. The Elk lodge, out of a membership of over 600, had twenty-seven men in line, and half of them were there against their will, as arrangements had been previously made for the unveiling of the monument and the dedication of the "Elks' Rest" for the forenoon and those who were officers couldn't refuse. After them came perhaps eighty school children, then about forty citizens, eleven members of the G. A. R. (this latter from actual count) and last, but not least, in avordupois and self-importance, came Papa Reardon, J. B. Cunningham and a few others of their ilk in carriages bringing up the rear of a forlorn hope.

We didn't feel like standing idly by and allowing the bluff to go unanswered, so it was decided to show them what we could do in the way of parading, and I guess they'll remember it for some time to come. Circulars were struck off (with a speed known only to those familiar with "extras") calling upon all liberty-loving citizens to assemble at the corner of Fourth and Victor avenue and participate in the proper and fitting observance of the day set apart to the memory of the nation's honored dead, and the response was far beyond our most sanguine expectations. I am told by those who counted that there were over 800 who marched behind the banner of No. 32. The Ladies' Auxiliaries mustered 247; Newsboys' Union about 40, school children 100, besides the lodge of Red Men, city officials, Pocahontas lodge, citizens afoot and in carriages, and other organizations which I failed to identify, such as clerks, barbers, the fire department of Goldfield, etc., and the Portland wasn't shut down, either. The scene so inspired the boys that the occasion betokened the Fourth of July rather than the 30th of May, furnishing a stiffening element to the weak-kneed, the shadow of sure defeat to the scab and his owner.

Fraternally yours, HARPER.

The unfinished report of the Committee on Constitution was taken up.

Vote on substitute motion on Resolution No. 25. Votes for, 50; against, 26. Substitute carried.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee on Resolution No. 26 be concurred in.

Amended and seconded that Resolution No. 26 be adopted as read.

Amendment to the amendment, that the word "two" and all after the word "fund" be stricken out, and that the following shall be added: "The secretary-treasurer shall, upon the receipt of the per capita tax, send three due stamps for each dollar per capita paid."

Moved and seconded that further discussion on Resolution No. 26 be deferred until to-morrow and that Mrs. Emma F. Langdon, author of "The History of the Cripple Creek Strike," be granted the floor. Motion carried.

Mrs. Langdon was escorted before the convention by Brother Fred Leonard, and introduced by President Williams. She made a splendid talk, setting forth the conditions under which she had published the book and made a request of the delegates to each take a number of the books home to their respective locals and place them in the hands of the membership. Mrs. Langdon delivered an eloquent eulogy to the membership of the Western Federation of Miners and assured the delegates that she was with the Western Federation of Miners to the end, whether it be victory or defeat. At the closing each delegate was presented with a souvenir calendar bearing the likeness of the brave little woman and author, who, in the face of the military, got out the Victor Record, when the office force was thrown in the bullpen, and personally placed it in the hands of the military officers on schedule time at 6 o'clock a. m. the next morning.

Discussion upon Resolution No. 25 in reference to per capita tax, which was deferred yesterday, was taken up.

Moved and seconded that we dispense with the motion before the house and give Brother Pollard an opportunity to read his report before voting as it bears upon the subject. Motion carried.

Brother Pollard read his report as follows:

To the Delegates of the Western Federation of Miners in the Twelfth Annual Convention Assembled:

Dear Sirs and Brothers—As a delegate selected to go to the state of Michigan, I beg leave to submit to this honorable body my report of work in that section for the eight months last past.

On the 8th of September, 1903, I received a telegram from President Moyer requesting me to come to Denver. I left Cripple Creek at 1:30, stopped at Victor, met Brothers Croskey, Davis, Parker, Sullivan, Griffith, Harper and others, then at 3:40 p. m. left for Denver, reaching there at 9:20. On the morning of the 9th I left President Moyer and others at the office and at 3:45 p. m. left for the East. At Omaha the car I was in jumped the track the morning of the 10th and at Cromwell we ran into a mud hole and we reached Chicago five hours late, and as I had to wait until 11:00 p. m. of the 11th for a train to Calumet, I visited many of the leaders of organized labor of the city. Among them were the editor of the Union Labor Advocate, brother J. R. Fitzpatrick, organizer for the Chicago Federation of Labor; W. H. O'Brien of the Bridge Builders; Berry of the Railway Employees; Higgins of the Bottlers; Beebe of the Hay and Grain men; T. J. Ryan of the Truck Drivers, and Brother Thomas Hughes of the Deliverers' Union, and met the editor of the Chicago American; visited the Waiters' Union; here I met H. Robinson, ex-secretary Colorado State Federation of Labor.

Then I took the train for Calumet and reached this place at 2:30 p. m. of the 12th, and I soon met the agent of the mine owners, who had notices in the papers, and the agents here hiring men. At one office the agent had eighteen men waiting for orders and tickets, but poor Dan lost his nerve and said he was hiring no men, but while I was talking with him he had his wife at Hancock and she offered a check for free transportation for 500 men and $1.00 each if the agent would agree to furnish them, but the agent was next and her terms did not suit him, so he would not agree to hire slaves for the mines. She told this agent that she knew the mine owners and Peabody were not going to hire any more union men and that the Western Federation of Miners must be destroyed. I met a cigarmaker by the name of Webber. He told me where I would find the printing offices. I visited the English, Italian, Finnish and Austrian papers and had notices and circulars printed. Visited Cigarmakers', Electrical Workers', and Molders' Unions. Met men at the mines, mills and smelters and sent circulars in every direction. On the 23d of September I received a telegram from Brother Haywood to go to Sault Ste. Marie and left at 10:30 p. m. and reached the Soo at 10:20 a. m. of the 24th. Here I found thousands of idle men in both the American and Canada Soo. On the morning of the 25th one Otto Fowle, a banker, came out into the street where I was talking to a group of men and said he had received a telegram from Mr. Carlton of Cripple Creek to hire all the men he could get, wages $4.00 and $4.50 per day of eight hours and free transportation.

On the 27th Brother Frank Cochran of Victor arrived and was with me. We visited the Canadian Soo and heard there were hundreds of men coming down from Michamecotten. We had circulars printed and sent them out over the country. We visited all the large hotels, steel works, public library, city hall, fire station, employment agents and postoffice. Men were coming very fast and the 28th found us in a rioting mob with the ferry boats tied up. We hired a man with a small boat to carry us to the American side. There were two men shot and several jailed because they would not keep still and starve. We visited several unions at this place, distributing Magazines, and on October 2d I left for Marquett. Here I visited the Carpenters' Union. Visited the penitentiary; here the prisoners, numbering 239, were busy making overalls and cigars.

October 4th I took the train for Negaunee. Here I met some miners and learned there was a miners' organization at Ishpeming. Taking an electric car, I reached Ishpeming at 2:30 p. m., and soon found Brother Mathew Wasley, who made me acquainted with Brothers Harper, Hancock, McCabe, Paddock, Meager, Allen, Rodcliff and others. We talked over matters and they showed they had already heard of the trouble in Colorado. Brother Cochrane came up from the Soo. We visited the mines at Ishpeming. Then we visited with the miners and on the 13th we had McDonald's Opera House at Negaunee filled to overflowing. Brothers Wasley, Cochrane and myself spoke and for nearly three hours the city marshall, judge, lawyers and business men sat with the miners and listened to the truth. On the 20th we had a meeting and organized the first union, No. 212, of the Western Federation of Miners in Michigan. The following named brothers were elected as officers: President, James Collins; vice president, John Petterson; financial secretary, W. J. Mitchell; recording secretary, William May; conductor, J. B. Roscolo; warden, Bert Bogetto.

They started off in good shape.

Then leaving Brother Cochrane here, on the 26th I took the train for Ironwood. Here I found hundreds of idle men. I visited Hurley, Wisconsin. Here I found the mines cutting their forces and many idle. I visited Beesemen, Michigan, where I found the same conditions. I distributed circulars and talked with many about organizing and they all would say, "Get Calumet or the copper boys and we will all follow." One mine in Ironwood laid off 440 men. I met and talked to them.

I received a telegram from Brother Cochrane saying that he was going home. I visited the Cigarmakers' and Clerks' Unions, and on November 7th I took the train for Calumet. I stopped at Hancock. From there I visited Huron, Atlantic, Baltic, Trimountain, South Range, Painsdale, Frida, Beacon Hill, Stanwood, Red Lodge, Ripley, Dollar Bay, Woodside, Mason Mills, Hubbell, Grover and Lake Linden. At Lake Linden I met A. T. Schmelzer, a brother of Brother Frank Schmelzer of Silverton, Colorado. He made me acquainted with others, and we talked about organizing, but they all had their eyes on the miners of Calumet, so I kept visiting the mines, mills and smelters, talking with men in all the different places. On November 13th I learned that one George Pringle had left for Idaho Springs because he could get better wages than he was receiving at Painesdale. I kept writing letters, sending out circulars and working among the men, holding meetings, distributing Magazines to men in the above-named towns, and besides there, in Red Jacket, Blue Jacket, Laurium, Wolverine, Allouze, Mohawk, Osceola, Boston, Franklin, Frenchtown and Hancock. I visited Barbers', Molders', Electricians', Clerks' and Printers' Unions and had the pleasure of visiting the Trades Assembly of Houghton and Hancock, and on December 6th had a general mass meeting at Hancock, at which Brother G. S. Crable, president of Trades Assembly; T. Johns of the Printers', C. J. Speillman of the Electricians' and your representative spoke for organization and united action. This meeting had its effect and set the whole people to talking and working quietly among the men. We held a meeting in Laurium January 31st and organized the first Miners' Union in the copper country, and it is known as Amygdaloid Miners' Union No. 217 of Laurium. The officers selected were as follows: President, M. E. Condon; vice president, John Ervasty; financial secretary, Patrick Shea; recording secretary, John Bennetts; warden, Joe Schultz; conductor, John Evitash; treasurer, James O'Donnell.

In this union there are men from the great Calumet, Hecla, Tamaracks, Osceola, Centennial, Kearsarge and other mines. The news of the starting of this union soon spread among the men, and on the 20th of February I held a meeting at Lake Linden and started the Torch Lake Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 218 of Lake Linden, Michigan. They selected the following-named brothers as their first officers: President, A. T. Schmelzer; vice president, Thomas Pope; financial secretary, Jacob Braus; recording secretary, Andrew Mertes; treasurer, Fred Palglase; conductor, George La Motte; wardens, Edey Dupus, Carl Class.

After starting this union I met with the boys at Hancock, but soon found there was something wrong, and found a detective working to keep them from organizing. I pressed him so close he soon left town, and on the 20th of March I started a Miners' Union at Hancock. This is the Quincy Miners' Union No. 76 of Hancock, Michigan. They chose as their officers the following brothers: President, William Goggins; vice president, William Cornow; financial secretary, John Hefferman. And the other offices were filled by the union with good, able men.

Again I heard there were agents out looking for men. I had circulars printed and sent them all over the East and South, and kept working among the men in the different towns, and on March 27th, with five of the boys from Calumet, we visited Painesdale, and more people turned out than could get into the hall. After talking a short time I called Mr. Louis James to take the names of those who would like to join a union. He soon reported he had 130 names. We cleared the hall of all of those but who paid the initiation and started Champion Miners' Union No. 221 of Painesdale, Michigan. They chose their officers as follows: President, Philip O'Brien; vice president, Herman Horenin; financial secretary, Louis James; recording secretary, Daniel McCormick; conductor, John Pentinan; warden, Herman Esola.

Had a letter from Brother Mathew Wasley requesting me to attend the Mineral Mine Workers' convention April 11th; also a telegram from Brother Haywood instructing me to attend. On April 7th took train for Negaunee; visited Negaunee Union the 8th, found the union in good shape, and met many miners who spoke of joining the union. Met Brother Lingol of Telluride. He startled the people by telling of the treatment of the miners under Peabodyism.

On April 12th I visited the Mineral Mine Workers' convention and met a fine lot of men. I spoke to them of affiliation and listened to their discussions, and when the vote was taken it was unanimous to join with the Western Federation of Miners. I was with them all day and in the evening they had a grand reception, and the only thing that kept me from having a larger audience was the lack of room.

On April 13th I took the early train for Calumet, leaving the boys to finish up their business. Visited all the new unions and took in many new members. April 23rd took train for Ishpeming, and had good meeting; initiated a lot of men and started the Ishpeming Union off under the banner of the Western Federation of Miners. Their number is 222. The president is John Haney; financial secretary, Edwin Harper; and the other offices filled by honest, able men.

I had promised to be in Hancock the 24th to help the boys start a district union, and took the train from Ishpeming for Houghton and was with the delegates in Hancock at 2 p. m. When I reached home I found a telegram, letters, Magazine and papers. Then I visited Dollar Boy, Freda, Atlantic, Mohawk and Allouze, and on the 8th of May organized a union at Allouze, initiating thirty-three men as a starter. They selected as their officers the following: President, August Jarvey; financial secretary, Charles J. Peterson; recording secretary, James Jocking.

We arranged for a meeting at Mohawk the 15th at 10 a. m., and one at Allouze at 2 p. m. The weather was so stormy that the boys did not wish to go out. I took the electric cars for Wolverine and from there walked two miles to Allouze and had a fine meeting. Initiated twenty-six new members, had the officers go through the order of business in regular form and told them I had received a telegram from Brother Haywood and that I would likely leave soon for Denver. They all seemed anxious to express their views and send words of encouragement to their brothers in servitude under Peabodyism. They also expressed a desire to become more thoroughly organized and closer united, and after they had selected three men to represent them in the district union I placed them in communication with their brothers of the other unions and returned home. Here I found the Magazines, letters, papers and a telegram; met several of the boys, and all seemed in the best of spirits, and will say, since I left Cripple Creek the 8th of September, 1903, I have traveled 7,266 miles, spoken to people in the United States and Canada, written between four and five hundred letters, sent many telegrams and distributed between thirty and forty thousand circulars, visited many papers and had printing done in English, Italian, Austrian, Finnish, Polish and Swedish languages, and will say in Upper Michigan we find a population of 261,288 people who speak forty-two different languages, and in Houghton county there are 66,063 people who depend wholly upon the mines of that section. Much of interest might be said of the mining sections of Michigan and am pleased to state that the efforts we have made have resulted in placing seventeen charters under the banner of the Western Federation of Miners, and much praise is due Brother Wasley for his noble work. And in the great territory comprising District 5 we find South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan, comprising a territory of 268,060 square miles and a population of 6,641,693 people and almost unorganized, and would recommend that if we are able that we keep organizers in the field, as I believe there are many thousands of men who can be organized. Hoping that my efforts meet with your approval, I remain, fraternally,

(Signed) JOY POLLARD.

Moved and seconded that the report of Brother Pollard be accepted and placed on file. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that the regular order of business be resumed. Motion carried.

Final report of Committee on Grievance of Rossland Miners' Union.

We, your Committee on Grievance, re legal advice, recommend that the following report be sent to the Executive Board, Western Federation of Miners, at Denver, Colorado, requesting them to engage a legal adviser to defend the unions of British Columbia, as provided by the eleventh annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners.

We believe the fight now being put up by the Rossland Union in the lawsuits, namely, the War Eagle and Center Star vs. the Rossland Miners' Union and its officers, is the concern of all unions in District No. 6, and for that matter of the whole of the Federation, and we consider we have a right to such legal protection.

We also recommend to the Western Federation of Miners that they settle the bill of S. S. Taylor, whom they employed to work in their interest in British Columbia and whose charges have not yet been paid.

All of which is respectfully submitted by your committee.

Denver, Colorado, May 29, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention Here Assembled:

We, your Committee on Grievance, do hereby recommend to the convention that the Executive Board be requested at once to employ legal talent for District No. 6 for all cases pending and any other emergency cases that may arise. Yours respectfully,

A. J. McDONALD,
W. F. DAVIS,
J. E. CLIFFORD,
SAM RADOVICH,
THOMAS McGRATH,
H. L. LANE.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee be adopted. Motion carried.

Adjourned at 12 m. to meet at 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention called to order at 2 p. m. by Vice President Williams. Password taken up by Brothers Langford and Radovich. Roll call shows C. G. Kinnison and Alma Neilson absent; Max Malich sick.

The following was read:

No. 66.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention, in Convention Assembled:

Whereas, It has been circulated around Denver and to some of the delegates of the twelfth annual convention that the Cripple Creek District was working full crews, therefore we recommend that a committee of five be instructed to go there and find out conditions, and report to this convention, said committee to be named from the floor and must be unconcerned men.

WILLIAM TYACK,
E. F. BOYLE,
LOUIS JAMES,
W. T. STODDEN.

Moved and seconded that resolution be complied with. (Not put.)

Moved and seconded that Resolution No. 66 be suspended and the delegation from the Cripple Creek district be allowed to fully outline the conditions of the strike in the Cripple Creek district at this time. Motion carried.

At 2:45 p. m. Delegate Sherman Parker of Free Coinage No. 19 takes the floor and explains the cause of the strike and conditions in general prevailing in the Cripple Creek district at the present time.

Member of the Executive Board D. C. Copley also explains the inauguration of the strike.

Delegates W. F. Davis of No. 19, F. M. Ney of No. 32, E. L. Whitney of No. 82 and W. A. Morgan of No. 80 also reviewed the situation in detail. All were unanimous that the Federation would win in the end.

Adjourned at 5:30 p. m.

Ninth Day, June 2nd.

Communication from Hon. Freeman Knowles, Deadwood, South Dakota:

Deadwood, South Dakota, May 28, 1904.

Mr. William D. Haywood, Secretary Western Federation of Miners, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sir and Comrade—Through you I desire to express to the annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners my sincere thanks and deep appreciation of the honor they have conferred upon me in electing me an honorary member of that noble organization. I esteem it a far higher honor than that conferred upon me when the people of my own state sent me to represent them in the Congress of the United States.

I am aware that men of my profession are excluded from membership in your order, and properly so. We can do you no good as members of your order, but would be an element of discord. We can assist you at the ballot box, and I take this opportunity to assure you that there is a vast army of professional men who are with you, soul and body, and who will rejoice to see the laboring classes resume their God-given rights to all the good things of earth, and to the full products of their toil. We realize that the present class struggle has been brought about by the tolling masses voting every function of government into the hands of the robber classes, thus enabling that class to make laws that have already reduced the workers to serfdom. The toilers constitute a vast majority in every state in the Union, and in every country on earth. When they get sense enough to exercise their ballots in the interests of their own class and seize control of every branch of government, then they will be able to enact laws for themselves, instead of for their oppressors. Then they will find the executive, the courts, the army, all on their side, instead of against them.

I rejoice that your noble order has beer, the pioneer labor organization to see and proclaim the true remedy. Upon the economic field Rockefeller is equal to a million laborers, while at the ballot box the poorest laborer is equal to the millionaire. What folly to fight the robbers on their own field, where they have such enormous advantage, when labor may choose its own field, namely, the ballot box, where it has an overwhelming and irresistible advantage.

I would not be understood as censuring the strike. Indeed, I heartily approve of every step taken by the Western Federation of Miners in Colorado, as a protest against absolute serfdom. Your noble order has exhibited a heroism unequalled in this generation. The time will come when monuments will be erected to the noble men of your order who have suffered for the cause of labor in Colorado.

But the only true remedy is a complete recognition of the great truth that the earth and all the means of production are justly the property of all; that labor is the only source of wealth, and he that will not work, neither shall he eat. When the toilers recognize this truth, and vote for it, then will labor come by its own. Very fraternally yours,

FREEMAN KNOWLES.

The following communications were read:

Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, May 23, 1904.

William D. Haywood, Secretary Western Federation of Miners.
To the Delegates and Officers of the Western Federation of Miners, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sirs and Brothers—At this time, when you are in convention assembled, we desire to extend to you our heartiest sympathies in the cause of the workmen of Colorado, and on behalf of the labor unions of Wyoming valley to assure you of their heartiest good wishes and earnest support. We have been in the field here since the middle of February, and the welcome received, together with the generous contributions forwarded from the respective unions visited, warrant us in saying that the progress of our struggle for existence is being eagerly watched by union labor throughout the entire valley and the results of your convention awaited with great interest.

Trusting that success will crown your efforts and that your deliberations in convention assembled will be such as to warrant the continuance of interest already manifested by laboring men through the country, we remain, sincerely and fraternally yours,

F. E. McCAFFERTY,
J. J. O'DONNELL.

Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, May 24, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Greeting—More than six months ago I came to Cincinnati, Ohio, as a representative of the Western Federation of Miners to solicit aid for the striking miners and mill and smeltermen of Colorado, and have visited most of the larger cities of Ohio and some other states, soliciting aid and giving publicity to the strike conditions in our state. I have attended about 280 different locals and central bodies composing every craft known to organized labor, and with but few exceptions have been received with cordial welcome and in many instances with much enthusiasm. The mention of the fact that we belong to the Western Federation of Miners would often create bursts of applause, and where this kind of demonstration would occur you may depend that the audience was of the most intelligent thinking and reading class.

Not only the union man of the middle and eastern states, but the whole world is looking on with breathless attention in wonder and amazement at the noble struggle for unionism, for liberty and for humanity on the one side and the inhumanity and diabolically outrageous conduct of those sordid usurers of wealth on the other. The lawlessness of the military, the nefarious actions of Governor Peabody, the stringent measures of the mine, mill and smelter owners, the arrogance and damnable plots of the Parryites are some of the conditions that the average easterner cannot comprehend or understand, that why in a boasted country of freedom such defiance of law be allowed. Permit me to suggest to your honorable body that you pass a resolution commending our brave brothers who have so unjustly, yet so nobly suffered in this most righteous cause, and assuring them of the appreciation and respect in which they are held, and that their worthy names deserve to live with and beside the names of the martyrs for humanity in all times and ages. I am, fraternally yours,

A. W. GARRISON.

Denver, Colorado, May 30, 1904.

William D. Haywood, Secretary-Treasurer Western Federation of Miners:

Dear Sir and Brother—We had a Decoration Day service in the Cripple Creek District to-day. In the morning parade the national guard of the state of Colorado was in the parade and all the law-abiding citizens refused to walk in a parade where those scab herders are allowed. So we had some posters printed and called a parade of law-abiding citizens at 2:30 p. m., and if the brothers in convention could have seen the second parade, they would realize that the standard of the Western Federation of Miners is stronger than ever to win this struggle. The union men of the district, after to-day's parade, are more confident than ever. We had No. 32's banner in the parade this afternoon, and there were over 700 union men behind the banner. We had close to 1,500 men and women in line and the Ladies Auxiliaries turned out over 300 strong. It was very near being a union parade. We made Peabody's tin soldiers very sick to-day. I am sending you some of the handbills we had printed and those doggers still look good to the people of the district.

We were expecting a delegation of delegates here last Saturday, but were disappointed. We would be glad to have them come and see the situation as it exists here at the present time. Well, I will close for this time. Fraternally yours,

FRANK COCHRANE, Secretary No. 32.

Resolution on the release of McKinney by Victor Women's Auxiliary No. 2:

Whereas, One Charles H. McKinney, a self-confessed train-wrecker and perjurer, has been turned loose upon society by the action of District Attorney Henry Trowbridge, who has seen fit to have the charge against this self-confessed criminal dismissed; and,

Whereas, It is the common belief that certain undue influences have been used to obtain the dismissal of the charges against the said McKinney, this powerful and insidious influence being used by a criminal society of Pecksniffian humbugs, who while posing as the simon pure exponents of law and order are responsible for most of the crimes perpetuated upon the citizens of this district in the last eight months; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By Victor Women's Auxiliary No. 2 that we condemn the action of District Attorney Trowbridge in this matter, and we call upon the Hon. William P. Seeds, judge of the Fourth Judicial District, to exercise his power in having empaneled a grand jury, whose duty it shall be to thoroughly investigate the actions of District Attorney Trowbridge, and, if possible, find out what influences have been used to cause him to allow self-confessed criminals to go free, while union men, against whom no charges have been proven, have been held in jails and bullpens and prosecuted and persecuted to the fullest extent.

MRS. SOPHIA KING, President.

Resolution No. 67, read and referred to Committee on Constitution.

Report of Ways and Means Committee:

Denver, Colorado, June 1, 1904.

Committee called to order with quorum present. The committee considered the application of Dennis Sullivan for relief and ask for further time to report, and request Mr. Sullivan to appear in person before the committee.

Second.—The committee recommends in the case of John Webster that the member of the Executive Board for District No. 3 be ordered to formulate a petition setting forth the facts in the case, and said petition be circulated throughout the state of Montana; and further request that the delegates of this convention sign said petition. Respectfully submitted,

M. S. CARSEY, President,
M. R. DEMPSEY, Sec'y.

Session called to order at 2 p. m. by Vice President J. C. Williams. Brothers Gibson and Fulmer take up the password. Roll call showed Max Malich sick, Sherman Parker, E. L. Whitney and W. D. Haywood excused.

The following communication was read:

Denver, Colorado, June 2, 1904.

To the Western Federation of Miners, in Convention Assembled:

Dear Sirs and Brothers—As it has been some time since we have placed the Hurlbut Grocery Company and the John Thompson Grocery Company on the unfair list, and we have been informed that the management of the incorporated store conducted by the Western Federation of Miners is still patronizing the above places and also individual members of your organization, we take this step to see if we can persuade members of organized labor to cease patronizing unfair places. Hoping you will give this matter your attention and inform your locals of the same, I remain, yours fraternally,

JOHN MARKLEY, Secretary-Treasurer.

Moved and seconded that the communication be referred to the Executive Board for action. Motion carried.

Minutes of Executive Board read and ordered filed.

Headquarters Western Federation of Miners,

Meeting of Executive Board, 12:15 p. m., June 2, 1904.

Moved and seconded that Sherman Parker accompany the committee to Cripple Creek District. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that matter of defunct Barker Union No. 12 be taken up immediately after adjournment this afternoon. Motion carried.

Adjourned at 12:30 p. m.

Report of Credentials Committee read.

Denver, Colorado, June 2, 1904.

To the Delegates Assembled in Twelfth Annual Convention:

I wish to leave my proxy of two votes with Brother C. B. Duke, to use as he sees fit.

H. G. SEAMAN, No. 38.

I hereby tender my proxy for Idaho Springs Union No. 136 to William Kuhn of Central City No. 56, and respectfully submit same to your Credential Committee for their favorable consideration.

C. H. HICKSON, No. 136.

I, the undersigned, wish to give my proxy to Joseph Corby.

Appeal from the decision of the Chair taken. The Chair is sustained, 41 to 16.

Moved and seconded that the appointment of a committee to visit the Telluride district be deferred until the committee returns from Cripple Creek district and report upon the condition there. Motion carried.

Resolution No. 69 by Ryan with reference to strikes in Cripple Creek and San Juan districts read.

No. 69.

Whereas, We, the delegates of the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners, have carefully examined into and given full consideration to the cause of the strikes in the Cripple Creek, San Juan and other districts of Colorado, and the reasons for the continuance thereof; and,

Whereas, We find that the said unions were fully justified in resorting to the strike to compel the mine owners to grant their employes the conditions which a majority of 40,000 voters demanded for them; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the delegates of the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners, individually and collectively, hereby approve of the stand taken by our brothers in the Cripple Creek, San Juan and other districts of Colorado, and pledge to them the moral and financial support of the Western Federation of Miners.

(Signed) ALBERT RYAN.

Moved and seconded that Resolution No. 69 be adopted.

Moved and seconded to amend that Resolution No. 69 be referred to the Resolution Committee.

Moved as a substitute for all motions pending that the word Colorado be inserted in the place of particular districts, and as such that the resolution be adopted. Substitute carried.

Ways and Means Committee recommend that Resolution No. 56 be adopted.

Moved and seconded that report of committee be concurred in. Motion carried, and resolution referred to Engrossing Committee.

The committee on Ways and Means reported as follows:

Deer Lodge, Montana, May 22, 1904.

To the Members of the Western Federation of Miners:

Mr. President and Brothers—In taking up my pen to address a few lines to you in behalf of myself, I feel incapable to do so in a proper and becoming manner. My task would be so much easier if I could but have the privilege to address you in person. I beg your indulgence, Mr. President and brothers, for a few minutes.

A little over a year ago I forwarded all the details of my case to headquarters. I have every reason to be satisfied for so doing. It caused an investigation to be made in regard to my standing with the Federation as a union man and brother. I received two visits from Brother Ed Hughes, a visit from Brother J. P. Murphy, Brother Shea and others, whose names I forget. If any of these brothers are present at the twelfth annual convention I hope they will present their report to the convention.

A year ago Brother Robert Orr, delegate from No. 57, Aldridge, the lodge I belong to, returned from Denver with instructions for my own local to take some action in the shape of a petition for my release. I have the assurance of Brother J. P. Murphy by letters, and Brother Ed Hughes, that they have ever been ready to handle the same to the very best advantage. I wrote to Brother Robert Orr myself by registered letter. My letter found him at Wilkeson, Washington. I received a letter from him dated April 28th. He states my affairs were left in his hands and at his request they appointed two more brothers, Chet Smith and Theodore Brockman, and when he wanted them to do anything they were either busy with something else or working night shift, and the majority of those that are there are strangers to me, consequently there has been nothing done. I feel a little discouraged at this, but I have not lost all confidence in my fellow-men.

Mr. President, I am aware of the fact that those lying, dirty, filthy sheets, the Anaconda Standard and Livingston Post, made for me such a thing as I never experienced before in my life—lots of enemies, some, I am afraid, who should have been my friends. I did not understand this at the time, but before I had been under arrest for any length of time the mist fell from my eyes and I could see that this was the commencement of persecution—to arouse the reading public, to cause hard feelings toward me and to prepare them for anything that might happen. They even went so far as to say that I had set fire to the house to cover crime, but at my so-called trial the prosecution never attempted to prove this in court, for I had never bought 5 cents' worth of inflammable matter in the state of Montana; but it was not necessary for them to prove this. The papers said it was so, and the reading public believed it, along with other stuff they never attempted to prove. No warrant for arrest, no preliminary hearing; I gave my evidence first before the coroner. I spoke the truth in every respect, as far as I knew. I would far rather that the hand that guides my pen should wither than write one word to deceive. I was taken to Livingston and thrown in jail on the 10th of April and lay there till the 25th of June. Before I had been in Livingston very few hours, my friends—the Livingston Post and Anaconda Standard—came to my assistance with headline something like this: "John Webster had to be secreted from Aldridge to avoid lynching." I was in Aldridge all night on the 9th of April and a great part of the 10th. No man, woman or child said one word disrespectful to me in any shape or form. My identity was lost in Livingston in less time than it takes to write it. Recommendations, character, letters of all descriptions, union card, everything, with the exception of $8, vanished. John Webster, the natural, who had never seen the inside of a jail in his life, or ever was the defendant in any suit, not even a drunk; they killed him right in Livingston jail and built up in his stead an unnatural one charged with the crime of murder. No preliminary hearing, no chance to waive any rights whatever. They never assigned any motive whatever.

Mr. President and brothers, if I thought it was necessary to go through all the details I most certainly would do so, but my paper will not allow me to do so. Brother J. P. Murphy and Brother Ed Hughes, if they are present, will tell you of their investigations. I have never had the chance, even when I had a visitor, to go into details. I tried to get the transcript of evidence for last convention a year ago, but those fellows in Livingston wanted $200. I understand direct evidence, and also circumstantial, but I am here doing life on manufactured and hearsay evidence. The last time I wrote to Brother Murphy I sent him the record of the state's main witness—five years here for robbery, also eleven months in Livingston jail. I put witnesses on the stand that accounted for me every moment; but if I could have put angels on from heaven it would have cut no figure—they had to have a victim.

Judge Henry asked me if I had anything to say why sentence should not be passed upon me. I told him yes; that I did not wish to take up the time of the court but a few moments. The jury said that I was guilty; that I was not very much surprised after listening to the lying, malicious evidence given on that stand. I pointed to the prosecuting attorney and said: "The gentleman is sitting right there that can explain to this court the kind of evidence that I am convicted on better than I can. Your Honor, my mother's oldest son stands before you, the father of a family; in justice to them as well as myself, I declare to this court that these hands have committed no crime, and I shall live to see the day when John Webster will stand in Park county again a man amongst his fellow-men." I am no prophet, but I sincerely believe this prediction will come true, and that before long. It is common for judges to dwell upon the enormity of the crime, but Judge Henry simply says: "Prisoner, you could not expect the jury to turn you loose for the reason that you could not tell them what time you went into a saloon or what time you left. Life in Deer Lodge penitentiary." Quite correct, I could not tell, nor did I care whether it was night or day. I should have thought it was up to the prosecution to find out; but they did not attempt to do so. I would like to see any man who could who was in the same condition, unless they had some object in doing so. I had been having a good time with friends probably that I would not meet again, for

I was going to leave the following morning for Butte City. The very first opportunity I had to write here I asked what friends I had to investigate all they possibly could. I found out that the very first man into the house who saw the position that the woman and the old dog lay in, and helped to get them out, was with the doctors at the post mortem, was not subpoenaed by the state. I should have thought this man would have been one of the best witnesses that the state could have put on the stand. I did not know a thing about him until too late. This man now resides at Jardine, Park county; his name is George Allen. They did not even let it leak out that the old dog was a victim. The two doctors could not find any marks of violence whatever. I say the same now as I did six years ago: the woman and dog were both asphyxiated; there was no evidence to indicate anything else.

I also found better evidence for the defense than my lawyer put on the stand. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Pollow (now dead), this man Allen, Mrs. Miller. I sent down to Livingston. I was skinned out of $500 for my defense. I was here for life. I had played a lone hand and lost, and everybody who had made a county dollar seemed to be satisfied, with the exception of myself. If ever the chance presents itself I will never rest till the reading public reads the true facts, if it takes every cent I have in the world to publish it. I am as sensible to the injustice, the wrong, that has been done as though it only occurred yesterday. I have stood on the precipice, seen the yawning gulch below, heard the lying evidence to try and hurl me into it. I have watched the features of an ambitious man, quite willing to kill or sacrifice my life so long as he made a record for himself. One party trying to kill me in the name of justice, another party interested trying to save my soul, quite willing to sacrifice the man, but very concerned in respect to the soul and my future welfare. The soul does not concern me in the least. I am quite capable of taking care of that myself. But the man, Mr. President and brothers, is as helpless as a bird with broken pinions. Going on seven years now have I been deprived of my liberty, entirely at the mercy of my enemies. During that time some of them have crossed the Great Divide. The prosecuting attorney, sheriff, deputy sheriff, the editor of the Livingston Post (they found him dead in his chair with his shoes on). I do not rejoice at this, not by any means. I would rather that they should live, for I am curious to see what my accusers look like when an honest man looks them in the face. Before this can be accomplished I must have the co-operation and assistance of the power I belong to—a power composed of wealth producers, a power of honest men. Truth and solid facts I do not fear. Truth cuts some men worse than a two-edged sword. I am a convict; made so by some of the most damnable, unprincipled wretches that could ever get upon a stand to certify against a human being.

Mr. President and brothers, when I see the stamp of our organization I know and realize its full meaning, when it starts to talk through its officers. I fully understand its power in the cause of right and justice. It is to this power, my brothers, that I appeal to for help and protection from further persecution. I have suffered too much already for something that I have never done. Not so long since, all the civilized nations were indignant over the unjust treatment of Dreyfus. He may have met with more inhuman treatment upon Devil's island, but he never met with more of a railroad-ing than I have done. For months it has taken all that energy, talent and money could do, all the protection, to save some of the boys from the "pen" upon trumped-up charges. Ambition will stand at nothing, from lying testimony up to cold-blooded murder.

Mr. President, I do not know that I have any other friends in the state of Montana outside of organized labor. In fact, for thirty years I have recognized no other class, neither in England nor in this country. Conditions when I was a boy were such that I found myself in the mines before I was ten years of age; twelve hours constituted a day's work (oftener fourteen); then I earned a quarter. Through the winter months I never saw the light of day or the beautiful sun; if it happened to be a shining Sunday, I never saw it. I received no education—only experience. No wonder I soon learned to fight the octopus of greed, and I hope to fight it to the day I die, and when the wheels of nature refuse to perform their functions any longer, to be returned to old Mother Earth by the hands of honest toil—the class I belong to. I hope to lay this old frame down, a man in principle and true to my belief that a man's first duty is towards the woman that has the right to call him husband, the children that call him father. I firmly believe my second duty is towards my fellow-man. My third duty is to try and leave economic conditions in a better state than what I found them. I will take chances on the rest.

I ask you, Mr. President and brothers, who have met together in the twelfth annual convention now in session, to take some action in my behalf pertaining to my release. I am growing old (fifty-four), with freedom my days of usefulness will soon be over. The years I have had to endure of this kind of life are rapidly telling their tale. Seven years ago I was full of life and ambition and future prospects. Park county killed all, with the exception of the man. It would have been more humane had they cleaned their work up more in an artistic style. My eyes are aching and growing dim for the sight of those I dearly love. I appeal to you, my brothers, as a little boy would to its father for protection, who believe that an injustice to one is the concern of all. I ask the co-operation of all organized labor, both in and out of the state of Montana towards the freedom of an innocent man. I never saw the day that I was afraid to meet and bear the responsibilities of my own actions. It is pretty tough that either I or my friends should be placed in such a humiliating position where it is necessary for the benefit of the victim to ask for clemency for something he has never done. Over a year ago, and again very recently, Mr. Conley told me that Conley and McTague would do all they possibly could for me. My record is clean.

Hoping that you will take some action while in session, I remain,
Mr. President and brothers, yours fraternally,

JOHN WEBSTER.

P. S.—I hope to hear the joyful news that you have our dauntless, lion-hearted president, C. H. Moyer, in your midst; also that victory for the boys is close at hand. The time is drawing near when labor will not be very apt to forget.

Denver, Colorado, June 2, 1904.

We, your Committee on Ways and Means, after carefully considering the statements regarding the enclosed matter, recommend that no action be taken by this convention.

C. G. KINNISON, Sec'y.
M. S. CARSEY, Chairman.

Moved and seconded that the report of committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on Ways and Means.

No. 60.

Denver, Colorado, May 31, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Western Federation of Miners:

Gentlemen—Being sick, and unable to work for two years, with miner's consumption, and being an old member of the organization, I appeal to you for assistance to take me to a lower altitude. Fraternally,

DENNIS SULLIVAN.

Denver, Colorado, June 2, 1904.

To the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Greeting—We, your Committee on Ways and Means, recommend that this convention donate Brother Dennis Sullivan $40, that he may go to Arizona.

C. G. KINNISON, Sec'y.
M. S. CARSEY, Chairman.

Moved and seconded that report of Committee on Communication No. 60 be not concurred in. Motion carried.

Voluntary collection taken up for this brother, amounting to $60.70.

Report of Special Committee on Affiliation.

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Greeting:

Brothers—We, your committee appointed to meet a committee of the American Federation of Labor for the purpose of discussing the advisability to bring about a consolidation of the different national organizations, beg leave to report as follows:

On May 26th we met Mr. Max Morris, Chris Evans and White at 317 Apple building, Denver. The meeting was entirely informal. The questions propounded and the answers thereto were approximately as follows:

Q.—Would your organization in any way interfere with our local unions or our membership in the case of mill and smelters, blacksmiths and their helpers, carpenters or any others working in and around the mines, mills and smelters and now belonging to the locals of the Western Federation of Miners?

A.—Not in the least, by Mr. Evans. By Mr. White: At the Scranton convention, 1903, a resolution was adopted guaranteeing absolute autonomy to the United Mine Workers of America and all of the national organizations. Later, by Mr. White: Engineers and others belonging to national organizations, who went to work around the coal mines, were requested by the United Mine Workers of America and advised by the American Federation of Labor to join the locals of the United Mine Workers of America.

All three of the committeemen emphatically assured us that absolute autonomy would be granted the Western Federation of Miners in the transaction of its own affairs in case of consolidation. Both Mr. Evans and Mr. Morris positively stated that in case members of the National Association of Steam Engineers should be employed within the jurisdiction of a local of the Western Federation of Miners, those locals would have the right to request them to join such local and would be advised to do so, but, of course, could not be compelled to abandon their former organization, and no charter would be granted by the American Federation of Labor in opposition to such local.

Brother H. D. Calvin made a statement that a certain Mr. Holman had instituted, against the protest of Amador Miners' Union, a dual union to the detriment of the former. To this Messrs. Morris and Evans replied that such action was not in line with the policy of the American Federation of Labor and would, upon proper investigation, meet the condemnation of that body.

The following questions were then put before the committee of the American Federation of Labor:

Q.—Does your organization submit questions concerning the interests of its entire membership to them to a referendum vote?

A.—No, it does not. At the same time, should any of the affiliated organizations adhere to that policy, the parent body would not interfere in the least.

Your committee then considered and will hereby give an estimate of the proportion of influence of your organization's voice in the convention of the American Federation of Labor. At the Boston convention, held from November 9 to 23, inclusive, 1903, there were seated 496 delegates, representing 370 organizations, with a total vote of 14,038, the pro rata of their representation being one vote for each 100 members in good standing.

Your organization, with its present membership of 25,000, would be entitled to 250 votes in the convention of the American Federation of Labor, further bearing in mind that the present membership of the Western Federation of Miners is the lowest in years, and under normal conditions our organization should be entitled to a vote of from three to four hundred. In other words, with your present membership you would cast two per cent. of the entire vote in the convention, and under normal conditions three to four per cent.

Bearing in mind the wide division of opinion, as well as material interests of the constituent bodies, it will readily be seen that a three to four per cent. vote would wield an influence in the affairs of that organization.

Now brothers, realizing the importance of this movement, we have given it our most conscientious consideration, and the following questions now confront us as a result:

First—Can the labor movement throughout the land derive any benefit through division of its ranks and keeping alive competition among the workmen through dual organizations?

We believe that the closer the bonds that are to bind us into a common universal brotherhood the greater will be the strength and the influence at our disposal and easier it would be for us to give relief to any one or any number of our fellowmen. In this respect we further believe that the economic side of this proposition is worthy of your attention.

Second—If there are conditions existing in the American Federation of Labor which are not compatible with the best interests of the working class, which would be the better way for us to follow in order to remedy them?

In answer to question No. 2 we will say that if such is the case, numbers of our fellow-workers must be suffering from those conditions and, therefore, it becomes our holiest duty to hasten to their assistance and make such amendments as will prove beneficial to all, ourselves not excepted.

Third—In case of individual differences, would it be wisdom on our part to nurse conflicting sentiments and thereby retard the progress of the labor cause?

Relative to question No. 3, we fail to see that the grievance of any individual is greater than the common welfare of all, and if redress is due any one, the only way to receive satisfaction would be to enter their ranks and use all our influence and all other peaceable means to that end.

Fourth—Is there any possibility for our prestige to suffer through affiliation with the American Federation of Labor?

Question No. 4 is best answered by referring you to the promises made by the committee of the American Federation of Labor that absolute autonomy would be granted.

Fifth—Would it not be far better to co-mingle in congenial fellowship with our fellow-workers, promote friendly feeling and thereby hasten the coming of the day when labor shall receive all it is entitled to?

The principle involved in this question is so plainly manifested in everyday life that it should not require the recommendation of any one to prove its worth.

We are in no way inclined to dictate to this convention any course of procedure, but we would beg leave to submit to you the conclusions we have come to, after carefully investigating the premises surrounding this proposition.

While we realize that conditions are still such as to permit us to merely exist as men and citizens, the time will come when the producing class must succumb to the avarice of organized capital, unless something is done in the near future to check the onward rush of these inhuman pretenders. If any delegate upon this floor knows of an incident that might prove injurious to our organization in case of consolidation with the American Federation of Labor, he should now arise and not only expose it but, if possible, offer a remedy, and after fully weighing all of the particulars let us define the policy of the Western Federation of Miners in no uncertain terms. If the majority stands for consolidation, then let us proceed along those lines without hesitation. If the majority stands against it, then it becomes our duty to inform the locals of our action in most comprehensible language. Let us set aside for the time being any and all individualism and bias, so that we may judge the question before us fairly and squarely and be able to return a verdict satisfactory to the entire membership of our organization.

In conclusion, we will hope that none of you will be guided by the opinion of another, so that not the will of a few, but the will of the entire membership of this convention may be expressed.

We would recommend that a representative from each state should be elected by this convention as a consolidation committee to meet a like committee from other national organizations for the purpose of formulating a plan by which all of these organizations may be brought under one head.

Hoping that the day is not far distant when all the laboring men and women of this great land shall stand hand to hand and shoulder to shoulder, and with unanimous accord proclaim the emancipation of the toiling masses, we remain, yours fraternally,

W. S. STODDEN,
SHERMAN PARKER,

Moved and seconded that this matter be laid over and come up as first order of business to-morrow. Motion carried.

Report of committee on Good and Welfare.

No. 1.

May 23, 1904.

Mr. William D. Haywood, Secretary-Treasurer Western Federation of Miners:

Dear Sir and Brother—I am instructed to request you to bring before your convention, or the committee who will consider the union store proposition, the advisability of having a representative at the National Co-Operative Congress, which will meet on the fair grounds at St. Louis June 16th and 17th, next. The matter has been discussed by this assembly, and now that your stores are so successful and are handling such a large volume of business, it is considered here that inasmuch as the greatest advocates of co-operation in the country will be present at this congress, it would be to your advantage to have a live, well-posted man represent your interests there. The pointers he might gain would be of inestimable benefit to us all.

The assembly has been considering the proposition of sending one of the managers of your stores here there for this purpose, but it was considered best to first consult your organization in the matter, as we are given to understand that you contemplate putting on a purchasing agent, and, if so, this should be the man to represent us and you there.

We also are given to understand that when the strike is settled it is your intention of making the union stores a co-operative concern and placing the stock on the market to be purchased by union men only. This, we believe, to be a wise move, and we have no doubt but that this stock will be readily taken by the union people here; we are, therefore, very much interested in the co-operative idea, and desire to work with you in gaining all the knowledge possible on the subject.

Will you please bring this subject before the proper committee, or your convention, and advise us of your action in this matter? Wishing your convention all success, I am, yours fraternally

R. E. CROSKEY,

Secretary the Cripple Creek District Trades and Labor Assembly.

In reporting on this communication, your Committee on Good and Welfare realize that the fostering of co-operative stores and enterprises of like nature is one of vital importance to the laboring class, and to the organization we represent in particular. However, we do not feel that at this time the Federation is able or that the knowledge that may be gleaned from sending a delegate to the Co-Operative Congress at St. Louis would justify our so doing. Neither do we deem it wise for the Federation to tender material aid to co-operative stores, except as a strike measure, as in the Cripple Creek District. We believe in encouraging the local unions to organize co-operative stores wherever possible, without aid from the Federation, in preference to building halls; by so doing they will double their efforts to make these stores successful.

We further recommend that that portion of the communication relating to a purchasing agent for the Cripple Creek stores be referred to the incoming Executive Board, the board having already had this matter under advisement and conducted the policy of the co-operative stores.

SHERMAN PARKER,
M. A. SULLIVAN,
J. B. SULLIVAN,
A. L. JOURDAN,
WILLIAM KUHNS, Sec'y.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee be adopted. Motion carried.

Report of committee on Good and Welfare.

We, your Committee on Good and Welfare, beg leave to submit the following request of the committee from the Union Labor Temple Association, which wished the Western Federation of Miners to purchase stock in their concern. It is the opinion of your committee that it would be unwise for the Western Federation of Miners to make any such investment at this time or until the conditions of the Western Federation of Miners become more settled. Faithfully submitted,

SHERMAN PARKER,

Moved and seconded that report of committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on By-Laws.

Resolved, By the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners that the present transfer card be abolished and that the membership card shall be used in lieu thereof. Said membership card shall have spaces for each month of the year whereon a due stamp shall be affixed when a member pays his dues; also spaces for the record of local and Western Federation of Miners assessments; blank lines for the signatures of the holder and a space to show the amount of sick benefits received for the year the card was issued. Further provided that when a member leaves the jurisdiction of his own union he shall deposit his membership card with the secretary of the unions under the jurisdiction of which he is working, and upon payment of all dues and assessments the secretary shall issue to him a new card. The secretary of the union issuing the new card shall immediately notify the union to which the member formerly belonged that the member has deposited his card, and for this purpose he shall use a uniform blank, to be furnished from headquarters, said form to contain the following data: Name, age, color of eyes, complexion, height, weight and any distinguishing physical mark. This identification card must be signed in ink by the member depositing his card in a local union other than his own. Further provided, should a member for any reason be without his card, he shall be held for the legal sum of re-instatement until his account be received from his local union, and only so much of said sum shall be retained as will be necessary to balance his account.

Report of Committee on Resolutions.

No. 44.

Randsburg, California, May 23, 1904.

Mr. W. D. Haywood, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sir and Brother—Enclosed you will find some resolutions which we would like you to kindly read to the convention. Yours fraternally,

F. S. JONES.

Delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention—Greeting:

First—For twelve long months we have stood the pitiless assault of avarice of capitalism, and now our treasury is depleted and we are unable to send a delegate to the twelfth annual convention, but beg leave to submit the following suggestions and resolutions.

Second—Whereas, We find by a number of experiences that members of unions who contemplate betraying their class and prostituting their manhood by going scabbing, through misrepresentation, attempt or do procure withdrawal cards with intentions of using it in the future in union camps where they are not known; therefore we are line 4 of By-Laws so that it would read, "Rejoin at any time the local union issuing the said card, or be entitled to a transfer card from said local to any local in the Federation for the sum of one dollar."

Third—Whereas, We are confronted with numerous instances where members of our organization care not for the wrong in scabbing provided they are not found out, or think they can evade present acquaintances, dodge descriptions or out-travel records; therefore, we are

Resolved, That it would be well to make it compulsory for each local to provide headquarters with a photograph or true likeness of each member or candidate for initiation. Such would be a safeguard for our loyal members and a punishment for the craven-brained, cur-hearted traitor.

Fourth—We would state that we believe our present member of the Executive Board, Brother J. T. Lewis, to be an earnest and conscientious worker and loyal union man; therefore his re-election would meet the approval of No. 44.

Fifth—The last and most important. We are constantly reminded of the evils of our present social system, a system that bows the knee of homage to the pampered few, and condemns the many to a bondage of privation and ignorance. When we get the largest crumbs that drop from the exploiters' tables we are inclined to be zealous upholders of the exploiting system, but when hunger and nakedness lifts the veil of bigotry, we see the injustice and cruelty of a system that is surely drifting us toward a slavery less human and more pitiless than was the negro slavery of the southern cane and cotton fields. Days lengthen into months, months into years and the years are coming and going like the ever-shifting shadows, still every time the clock tolls off an hour we shed a tear for a brother who has fallen in the unequal strife, the blush of shame mounts to our brow for the honor of a sister who has been as surely driven to the brothel as the negroes prior to a war driven to the block. We mourn for one of our children, who, before the baby lullaby has left their innocent lips, have to sacrifice their young lives in mine or factory (the altar of Shylockism) or we bow our heads in grief for our brother who is consigned to commercialism's scrap pile, after the adverse winds of three score years of toil and privation have withered his verdure. We would not counsel reform or staying the program of the "juggernaut car" of commercialism, but would completely overthrow exploitism. Revolution is the music that turns our souls to visions of a land of equality, peace and prosperity, homes without an idler, prostitute or criminal. We know that the aggression of the Western Federation of Miners has brought on us the concentrated fury of the Citizens' Alliance. If we are to go down, let us go down protesting against an unjust system, or let us stand battling for the overthrow of tyrannical greed and avarice and for economic, as well as political equality. Therefore we are

Resolved, That we will endorse the political stand of the tenth annual convention in our conventions, in the hall of No. 44, and at the ballot box.

C. KYLE SMITH,
S. F. JONES,
M. F. JOLAND.

Denver, Colorado, May 31, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention Assembled:

Your Committee on Resolutions, to which was referred Resolution No. 44 from Randsburg Miners' Union No. 44, beg leave to submit the following recommendations:

First—That the secretary-treasurer be instructed to send a letter of condolence to Randsburg Miners' Union No. 44, expressing our sympathy for them in their present trouble and our regrets that their financial conditions would not permit of their sending a delegate to take part in the deliberations upon the floor of this convention, and assuring them that their suggestions and resolutions will receive due consideration from the convention and further assuring them of the moral and financial support of the Federation in their present struggle and hoping that with such support they will be enabled to maintain their rights against oppression and greed.

Second—That that part of Resolution No. 44 relating to amending section 2 of article III of the By-Laws, while in our belief is worthy of adoption, should be referred to the Committee on By-Laws.

Third—That that part relating to providing headquarters with photographs of candidates for initiation should be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Fifth—That that last part which endorses the political stand of the tenth and eleventh annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners should be adopted, and for that purpose we have prepared the following resolution which reiterates, as near as possible, the words and sentiments of the resolution as adopted by the Randsburg Union, to-wit:

Whereas, We are constantly reminded of the evils of our present social system, a system that bows the knee of homage to the pampered few and condemns the many to a bondage of privation and ignorance; and,

Whereas, When we get the largest crumbs that drop from the exploiters' tables we are inclined to be zealous upholders of the exploiting system, but when hunger and nakedness lifts the veil of bigotry, we see the injustice and cruelty of a system that is surely drifting us towards a slavery less humane and more pitiless than was the negro slavery of the southern cane and cotton fields; and,

Whereas, Days lengthen into months, months into years, and the years are coming and going like the ever-shifting shadows, still every time the clock tolls off an hour we shed a tear for a brother who has fallen in the unequal strife, and the blush of shame mounts our brow for the honor of a sister who has been as surely driven to the brothel as the negress, prior to 1861, was driven to the block. And we mourn for our children, who, before the baby lullaby has left their innocent lips, have sacrificed their young lives in mine or factory (the altar of Shylockism), or we bow our heads in grief for a brother who is consigned to commercialism's scrap pile after the adverse winds of three score years of toil and privation have withered his verdure; and,

Whereas, In revolution we recognize the music that tunes our souls to visions of a land of equality, peace and prosperity and homes without an idler, a prostitute or a criminal; and,

Whereas, We fully recognize in the furious wrath of a venomous Mine Owners' Association and a truculent Citizens' Alliance, backed by an outrageous mob of uniformed scabs, headed by the prostituted administration of an iniquitous governor, the inevitable product of our unnatural social system; in this we recognize plutocratic commercialism staggering from the mighty blows delivered by the united efforts of organized labor; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will not counsel reform or staying the progress of the "Juggernaut car" of commercialism, but that the staggering mass must fall and that we, the Western Federation of Miners, will never stop until the complete overthrow of this infernal system of oppression and greed has been secured for the toiling masses of humanity; and be it further

Resolved, That in reaffirming the political policy of the tenth and eleventh annual conventions we urge all members of the Western Federation of Miners to be true to it and to use their peaceful conciliation and social persuasion to induce others to join hands with them at the ballot box in securing the overthrow of the present iniquitous system of government; and, be it further

Resolved, That we recommend the Socialist party to the toiling masses of humanity as the only source through which they can secure for themselves their complete emancipation from the present system of wage slavery, which makes the masses of humanity suppliants at the feet of the few for the jobs which they must have to sustain life.

Eleventh Day, June 4th

MORNING SESSION.

Denver, Colorado, June 4, 1904.

Convention called to order at 9 a. m. by Vice President Williams. Brothers J. B. Sullivan and T. W. Mollart took up the pass word. Roll call shows all present except those excused to go to Cripple Creek and Max Malich who is sick.

Minutes of previous day read and approved.

Resolution No. 72 was read and referred to Grievance Committee.

Resolution No. 73 was read:

No. 73. Pueblo, Colorado, May 29, 1904.
To the Officers and Delegates to the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled in Denver:

Resolved, That we unanimously thank the officers of the board in behalf of the position taken to better the conditions of the Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 216 of Pueblo, and further hope for the continuance of their services in behalf of most oppressed.

A. KLEMENCIC, Secretary.

Moved and seconded that Resolution No. 73 be adopted. Motion carried.

The following communication was received:

Colorado City, Colorado, May 28, 1904.

To the Honorable Body of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners, Denver, Colorado:

Dear Sirs and Brothers—We, the members of the Colorado City Mill and Smeltermen's Union No. 125 of the Western Federation of Miners, at a regular meeting, urge upon your convention to re-elect Brother D. C. Copley to the office he now holds as a member of the Executive Board. We have ever found Brother Copley true blue and fully competent at all times to handle the most vital issues, and in every respect staunch in the cause of the mill and smeltermen, and that of the Western Federation of Miners, fully believing that at this time that to lose him from the Executive Board would be a vital mistake. We wish it understood that Brother Copley, acting under instructions from the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, organized the mill and smeltermen of Colorado City, and in co-operation with the officers of the Western Federation of Miners, did everything in his power to avert the present strike in the Cripple Creek District, and only after the honesty and integrity of the Western Federation of Miners were at stake were the miners of the Cripple Creek District called out to support their brothers of Colorado City in a fight for a living wage.

We cheerfully recommend Brother D. C. Copley as a member of the Executive Board, knowing his re-election is to the best interest of the mill and smeltermen and the entire Western Federation, and a detriment to the Mine Owners' Association.

Sincerely trusting that your honorable body will show its appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Brother Copley to the cause of the Western Federation of Miners by re-electing him as a member of your Executive Board, we are, brothers, yours fraternally,

MILL AND SMELTERMEN'S UNION No. 125.

A. A. MOROSS,
A. J. BUNCH.

Moved and seconded that the report of committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on Grievance:

No. 59.

May 31, 1904.

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Brothers—Since December 1, 1903, Eureka Miners' Union No. 151 has been liable for the regularly levied assessments, when, in our opinion, conditions have been such since that time as to entitle us to the special consideration of this body relative to those assessments. Having no desire to demand your attention for any great length of time to consider this matter, I ask that it be referred to the Committee on Grievances, and I will gladly appear before said committee and give all the particulars in the matter so that they may be in a condition to know and make a comprehensive report to this body.

NICK COMES, No. 151.

Denver, Colorado, June 2, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled:

We, your Committee on Grievance, beg leave to report as follows: We do hereby recommend that the request of Eureka Miners' Union be not concurred in. Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McDONALD,
W. F. DAVIS,
SAM RADOVICH,
J. E. CLIFFORD,
THOMAS McGRATH,

Report of Auditing Committee.

Denver, Colorado, June 3, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

We, your Auditing Committee, beg leave to report as follows: That we have carefully examined and compared all books, accounts and vouchers of the secretary-treasurer with his official report, as submitted to your body, for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1904, and we find the same to be correct in every detail. Total revenues and disbursements for the fiscal year are as follows:

Balance in bank April 1, 1903.....	$ 20,780.72
Total receipts for year ending March 31, 1904..	286,687.02
Total	$307,467.74
Total disbursements	296,689.86
		$10,777.88
Outstanding warrants		32.85
Balance in bank March 31, 1904.....		$10,810.73

We highly commend W. D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer, for the splendid way in which he has kept the books, accounts and general business of the office, and we congratulate the Federation in having such a competent officer.

On motion both cases were referred to the Executive Board. Adjourned at 12 m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Denver, Colorado, June 4, 1904.

Afternoon session was called to order at 2 p. m. by Vice President Williams. Brothers Ferguson and Lane took up the pass-word. Roll call shows all present except those excused and sick.

Communications:

Telluride, Colorado, June 1, 1904.

To the Convention Western Federation of Miners:

I am enclosing you a clipping from Monday evening's Times in which you will notice that Senator Patterson has interested himself in the release of one T. J. Lee, a prisoner held by the Mexican government. You will excuse me for suggesting that a committee be appointed to call on Mr. Patterson, also Mr. Teller, and call their attention to similar cases in the state which they have the honor to represent and request them to lay the matter before the Department of State, as they have so kindly done in the Lee case.

CHARLES H. MOYER.

Clipping:

The State Department at Washington has taken up the case of Timothy J. Lee, brother of Police Captain Frank Lee, who is in prison at Zacatecas, Mexico, on account of a railroad wreck, which occurred while he was running a locomotive. The following correspondence is self-explanatory:

Denver, Colorado, May 20, 1904.

Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State, Washington:

Dear Mr. Secretary—I write you in behalf of a former citizen of Colorado, who is now in prison at Zacatecas, Mexico—Mr. T. J. Lee. He is a locomotive engineer and a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He ran for a number of years on the railroads of the state and about a year ago went to Texas to pursue his calling. From there he went to Mexico, where he became an engineer on the Mexican Central. Somewhere about the first of the present month the train which his engine was pulling was derailed. He did not have time to jump and was very badly injured. His brother is a captain on the police force of Denver and has lately received a letter, of which I enclose a copy. The letter explains itself. You would naturally know what action I would like to see taken and what should be done. Will you kindly read Mr. Lee's letter carefully and have done whatever can be done to mitigate the burdens he is compelled to bear, and secure for him the relief to which he is fully entitled? I am, very truly yours,

T. M. PATTERSON.

Department of State,

Washington, May 27, 1904.

The Hon. T. M. Patterson, Denver, Colorado:

Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 20th inst. calling the department's attention to the case of Mr. T. J. Lee, an American citizen who is held as a prisoner in a hospital at Zacatecas, Mexico, to answer for an accident to a railway train, of which he was the engineer.

In reply I have the honor to say that copies of your letter and its enclosure have been sent to the United States charge d'affaires at the City of Mexico for his information, with instructions to investigate the case and take appropriate action in Mr. Lee's behalf, both to secure humane treatment for him while he is recovering from his injuries and to see that he has an early and fair trial. I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

JOHN HAY.

Moved and seconded that a committee of three be appointed to call upon Senators Teller and Patterson to use their good offices in securing the release of President Charles H. Moyer as requested. Motion carried. Committee: Albert Ryan, M. R. Dempsey, H. M. Swan.

Resolution No. 75 referred to Constitution Committee.

Report of the Committee on Strikes and Lockouts.

No. 37.

Attempted abolition of the sympathetic strike.

It has been currently reported from so many sources that a pre-concerted and well-organized plan, backed by the funds of the smelter trust, Mine Managers' Association and Citizens' Alliance, has been consummated for the purpose of abolishing the sympathetic strike at this session of the convention that we can no longer ignore it. We denounce it as a barefaced blow at the heart of the Federation and instigated for the sole purpose of disrupting our organization. We further denounce the supporters of this movement as paid conspirators and traitors, without qualification and without reservation, and repudiate in advance any such infamous treason in our ranks. "An injury to one is the concern of all." In the event that the convention gives the lie to this immortal axiom, through the success of this hellish conspiracy, Henson Miners' Union No. 50 secedes from that hour.

We, your Committee on Strikes and Lockouts, recommend that that part of the communication from Henson Union No. 50 pertaining to sympathetic strikes be filed without comment and the secretary-treasurer be instructed to notify that union that no such action is in evidence.

Report of Committee on Grievance.

No. 62.

To the Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled:

About February, Mr. Matt Alberti, a member of Mercur Miners' Union in good standing, came to De Lamar and was taken sick; was under the doctor's care for five weeks and nurse's care for six days. On recovering we forwarded doctor's certificate for him to his union. They sent him $15, while their by-laws called for $7 per week and nurse hire. Since that time they paid no attention to our correspondence and refuse to pay any more. Trusting that this will meet with your consideration, I remain, yours fraternally, H. L. LANE, No. 72.

Denver, Colorado, June 2, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled:

We, your Committee on Grievance, beg leave to report as follows: We do respectfully recommend that this convention instruct the incoming Executive Board to communicate with the Mercur Union and have them adjust the difficulties between them and the Lincoln Miners' Union in regard to the case of Brother Matt Alberti. Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McDONALD,
W. F. DAVIS,

Report of Executive Board.

Denver, Colorado, June 4, 1904.

Executive Board called to order at 12:20 p. m., Vice President Williams in chair. All members present except Secretary Haywood and President Moyer.

Emil Peterson and Hans Hanson appeared before the board and stated their condition and requested financial assistance to help them on their way East.

Board concludes, after investigating all the circumstances of the case, that they cannot consistently appropriate the funds of the Federation in this case. A contribution from the members of the board of $1 each is made and given to the applicants.

Moved and seconded that Fred Selan of Ouray be referred to his own local union at Ouray, as he has been in the employ of strike committee in San Miguel. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that that portion of the local constitution of the Butte Ropemen's Union No. 214 that conflicts with the constitution of the Western Federation of Miners be stricken out, and that all men working at that calling in the jurisdiction of Local 214 shall become members of said union. Motion carried.

Special meeting of Executive Board 1:15 p. m., Tuesday, May 21, 1904.

H. C. Lane, of Lincoln Miners' Union No. 72 at De Lamar, came before the board on a grievance with Mercur Union No. 199 with reference to sick benefit of Matt Alberti.

Moved and seconded that C. H. Hickson of No. 136 is entitled to the same consideration as delegates from other strike districts. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that this convention pay to Fred Selan for services rendered thirty dollars. Motion carried.

RECOMMENDATION OF EXECUTIVE BOARD.

We, the Executive Board, are firmly of the opinion that the delegates to this convention can have but a very limited idea of the applications and demands that are made upon your organization through this board, not only during convention but at all sessions of the board. We assure you that in many instances the effort has been made to impose on your organization in this manner. We, therefore, recommend that the convention refrain from establishing precedents of this kind, and that all matters of this nature be handled through the various relief arrangements already made.

THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Moved and seconded that the resolution be adopted. Motion carried.

Member of the Executive Board J. A. Baker of the Sixth district read his report.

Slocan, British Columbia, April 10, 1904.

To the Hon. Charles H. Moyer, President Western Federation of Miners:

Worthy President and Brother—In compliance with Section 11, Article III. of the constitution, I herewith submit a report of my work and the conditions in District No. 6 for the current year.

In accordance with the instructions of the Executive Board my first act on returning to this district, after the meeting of the board succeeding the eleventh annual convention, was the adjustment of the account of G. F. Dougherty, which had been improperly submitted by him. This matter was finally adjusted about August 15th.

On July 15th I organized the Cambourne Miners' Union with thirty-one charter members. This union is in fair condition at the present time. They have met with some adversity since organizing, but the present conditions indicate a bright future before them.

From July 19th to August 10th I was working on my mining property, and during that interval was not in touch with the business of the organization.

On August 17th, in accordance with your instructions, I started for Van Anda to investigate the difficulties of the Texada Union, arriving at Van Anda on the 19th at 9 p. m. Very little difficulty was experienced in adjusting the trouble with Manager Grant of the Marble Bay mine, but Mr. Vaughn Ryes of the Van Anda mine was a much harder proposition to deal with. Those were the only two mines working in the camp. An adjustment was effected with both parties on a fairly satisfactory basis, the union now being fully recognized. As I made a detailed statement of this matter to your office at that time, I feel that it is unnecessary to repeat the same here further than to state that in an interview with Manager Grant of the Marble Bay mine he stated that Mr. Vaughn Ryes told him he would have nothing to do with a union of the Western Federation of Miners for the reason that they had killed a near friend of his in Colorado, Mr. Collins of Telluride. The industry of Van Anda is very light and the Texada Union cannot boast of excessive strength at present.

On leaving Van Anda I started for Mount Sicker, it having been represented to me that a large number of men at that point desired an organization. While en route I met Brother M. W. Moor at Nanaimo, he having just completed his work on the island and was on his way to Denver. He briefly outlined the local situation to me, with which I know you are already familiar. On the 27th I arrived at Mount Sicker and found the chances for successful organization at that time not nearly so favorable as represented. The Tye mine (largely controlled by Dunsmuir), through its manager, expressed the determination of combatting organization, and at that time was threatening to discharge a number of employees for the reason that they were members of unions elsewhere. The Lenora mine, which was not hostile, was regarded as unreliable, as they were operating with limited finances and might close down at any time. Those were the only properties working at Mount Sicker. Those conditions had a discouraging effect on the men, and after lengthy consultation it was decided to defer organization for the present. Before leaving I advised them to continue their efforts toward forming an organization and commissioned Benjamin Clegg, a former member of Texada Union, to organize them whenever the proper time arrived, giving him written instructions how to proceed.

I am pleased to note that the union has since been organized, but, unfortunately, they are not in a very prosperous condition. On my recent visit to the coast I learned that the Lenora mine had closed down and a number of the union men had been discharged from the Tye, which left the union in a weakened condition.

On September 9th I visited the Boundary District in response to a request from Brother John Riordan, secretary of Phoenix Union, to adjust a question of jurisdiction between Phoenix and Greenwood Unions over what is known as the Summit Camp. This difficulty arose wholly through the arbitrary action of Secretary Dougherty of the Greenwood Union. I have already submitted to you a detailed report of this matter, also submitted copies of the report to each of the unions above named.

On November 14th I visited Sandon Union in response to a call from their secretary, the object of the call being to request me to bring before the board for adjustment the numerous errors in the amendments to the constitution, as submitted from the general office; also to inform me that they hoped to be able to get along without the loan promised them by the Federation, and requested that the same be held in abeyance, to be drawn on later, if necessary. Both of those matters were dealt with by the Executive Board at the meeting in December last.

On November 24th I started for Denver to attend the meeting of the Executive Board, having to stop at Ymir, British Columbia, in an effort to organize the mill men at that point. This organization I did not succeed in perfecting. I arrived in Denver November 29th, and from that time until December 31st was in Colorado. As you are fully conversant with all the particulars of that portion of my time, I will not recount it here.

On January 2nd I arrived in Salt Lake, Utah, and on the 4th met Brother L. A. Prather, president Utah State Union, who described the conditions of the organization throughout the state in detail, and urgently insisted that I visit as many of the unions there as possible, he claiming that the members there felt that they had been grossly neglected by the general officers of the Western Federation of Miners and American Labor Union, and he predicted that my coming among them at that time would have the effect of in a considerable degree removing the dissatisfaction that then existed. For those reasons I decided to visit as many of our unions in Utah as possible.

On January 5th I met with the Valley Smeltermen in regular meeting. I found the union in a very weak and dormant condition, and I am bound to inform you that the prospect there looks very discouraging. The greatest trouble seems to be the lack of interest on the part of the men employed there and the diversity of nationalities. The union officers feared that the forcing of the assessments at that time would disrupt their union entirely. I advised them to do the best they could with the assessments, and when they had done all they were able, to send a full and complete statement of their condition to headquarters, to be dealt with by the Executive Board.

On January 6th I attended a special meeting of the new union at Stockton. The union was in its infancy, having about thirty-five members at that time. They were meeting with some discouragement, as the citizens there seemed opposed to their organization, and up to that time had prevented them from securing a place to hold their meetings. It was stated, however, that they would be able to secure a hall in the near future. I predict a bright future for the Stockton Union, although under present conditions they will not be able to acquire a very great numerical strength. But they have a number of intelligent and determined men, who, I feel assured, will render a good account of themselves. They unanimously approved the action of the Executive Board in levying the assessments for Colorado and promised to do all in their power to meet them.

On January 7th I attended the regular meeting of the Eureka Union and found the union in good condition, with about 350 members in good standing and meetings well attended. The members are enthusiastic and deeply interested in the work of the organization. They tried to persuade me to remain an extra day and hold a public meeting for all workmen, to show them the conditions that are confronting us all. This I would have liked to do, but under the circumstances did not feel justified in sparing the time. Before the meeting closed they unanimously passed a resolution endorsing the action of the Executive Board in levying the assessments.

On January 9th I visited Bingham Miners' Union and found them in fair condition; but, unlike Eureka, they have not the number of men taking the active interest in their organization, as a result of which their general strength is not near what it should be. Brother Prather was then planning some revival work there. They also approved the assessment levied for the members in Colorado.

On January 11th I visited Mercur Union at regular meeting. The meeting was not well attended, the apparent cause being that this date was pay day. A large number of the men employed here had recently been laid off without apparent cause; it had the appearance of a hostile move and was having an injurious effect on the union. The indications were at that time, however, that the men would be reinstated soon. They approved the assessments levied by the Executive Board, and while they were at that time unable to enforce it generally, they promised to do the best they could, and when they again get to work to make up whatever shortage there may be.

The large majority of the men employed there are foreigners and unable to speak the language of the country. But this difficulty is largely overcome by their able secretary, Brother Louis Roberti, who speaks four languages and gives all of his time to the work in hand. The business element in that locality strongly upholds the union.

On January 14th I went to West Jordan, according to appointment. Secretary A. W. Charter advertised by posters two meetings for this date—at 1:30 and 3:30 p. m.—so as to meet all shifts. These notices were up for three days in advance, and during this interval Brother Charter made a personal canvass among the men to get them to attend the meetings, which most of them promised to do. After this preliminary work, I am sorry to have to state that there was not a quorum for either meeting. Now those men are working twelve hours for $1.50, and some, I was informed were working for $1.35. Their union had about eighty-five members in good standing, while there are upwards of 1,000 men employed there and, apparently, the employers there are not very antagonistic—at least some of them. The manager of one smelter told some of them that he knew the men were not being treated right and that if they could get the others to give better wages and conditions he would gladly meet anything that was done; but as they were all confronting the same market conditions he could not do it alone. I will relate one incident that was told me there, to give you an idea of the courage of those men. A number of them came to the conclusion that they should take steps to obtain better conditions, so they held an informal meeting and outlined a list of their demands and put them in writing; they then appointed a committee to interview the management with the same. The committee took the paper and quietly made their way to the company's office; the office window being open, they threw the paper through the window and then ran as if they were being pursued by the grim monster. I made arrangements at this time to try and get a meeting of the men there on Sunday evening, the 17th, when I returned from Park City.

On January 16th I went to Park City and had a conference with the union officials, in which I found they had not yet submitted the notice of assessments to the union. They gave as their reason for withholding same that they had just assessed their members $10 each for hospital purposes, and they feared if in addition to this the assessments of the Federation were placed before them it would be the means of breaking up their union. I told them they had made an error in not submitting it to the union; that it was mailed to them as union business, and they as officers had no right to withhold it from the union, regardless of what action might be taken. They also informed me that the large majority of their members would not attend meetings and knew practically nothing about the affairs or objects of the organization; that a large number had been initiated at the mines and elsewhere and had never been in the union hall. In the evening I met with the union in regular meeting and explained the conditions of the Federation to them, and that of the various districts where trouble existed. Also the action of the Executive Board in levying the assessments and the reason for so doing, and, to my surprise, I was asked no questions regarding the latter, although I was bound to think that was the first they had heard of it. I will here note that I met Brother J. F. Flanagan at the meeting (he was delegate to the eleventh annual convention), and the officers informed me that on his return from Denver he had submitted no report to the union, and that this was the first meeting he had attended since the convention. In conference with the officers after the meeting I advised them to submit the notice of assessments without further delay and to do the best they could to collect them, and then to give a full and intelligent report to the general office, so that in case they did not meet the assessments the same could be acted on intelligently by the Executive Board. This union had at that time about 1,050 members in good standing. So far as I could learn by investigation all the complaints which Brother Prather told me of at the outset had emanated from Park City.

On January 17th I returned to West Jordan and addressed a small meeting, about fifteen in all being present, though all were invited, whether they were members in good standing or not. I did what I was able to enliven them to build up their union and take their place among men. But the attitude and indifference of the men there and at Murray is extremely discouraging.

During the intervals between the dates above mentioned I spent in Salt Lake soliciting among the unions of the various crafts for the Colorado strike fund. What success I met with in this work I have not so far learned, as I did no collecting, but advised all remittances to be sent to the general office at Denver.

On January 20th I arrived in Boise, Idaho, and immediately looked up the union representatives and Trades Council officials, and from that time to the 27th met daily with unions of the various crafts and solicited their assistance for the men of Colorado. I encountered one obstacle in this work at Boise. At each meeting I attended I met a committee from the Trades and Labor Council who were also soliciting the locals for funds to buy up a labor paper, and this, I am satisfied, rendered my work less effectual than it otherwise would have been.

On the evening of January 28th I arrived at Greenhorn, Oregon, in compliance with your instructions relative to the trouble existing there at that time. As I have already given your office a detailed statement of the trouble and its outcome, I will not recount it here.

The Greenhorn Union was in a very weak condition. I also found on inquiry that practically all the unions of the state were in nearly a similar condition and that there was no semblance of co-operation among them. I advised the men at Greenhorn to use every effort to build up their union, as in their present condition they could have no prestige whatever. I also outlined a plan of district or state organization for them so that they could be in touch with each other and be in a condition to co-operate. This met with their approval, and they agreed to undertake it at once. What success they may have achieved in this line I have not, so far, been informed. In order to assist them in building up their union I held a public meeting on the 30th in the interest of the organization. It was attended by nearly all the people in camp and, I think, had a good effect.

On the evening of February 1st I arrived in Spokane, Washington, and on the 2nd met with the Trades and Labor Council and stated my mission to them. They extended me all the courtesy and assistance possible, drafted resolutions on the Colorado situation, contributed a small donation (as their treasury was small) and appointed a committee of three to accompany me in visiting the locals. I was occupied in this work in Spokane until the 15th, when I went to Nelson.

On the 17th I arrived in Greenwood, British Columbia, in response to a request from the union relative to the absconding of their secretary, G. F. Dougherty. As I sent your office a complete statement of the conditions as I found them there I will not repeat it here. I remained there on the investigation and advising with the members until the afternoon of the 19th, when I returned to Nelson. I there undertook to have the provincial police take up the matter of Dougherty's apprehension, but unfortunately I found that the chief of the department was then at Victoria. I remained to attend the regular meeting of Nelson Union on the 20th, as I had heard there was some dissatisfaction there, and I explained to them in detail the general situation and conditions of the present struggle and they appeared to be fully satisfied with what had been done and was being done.

On the 22nd I arrived in Slocan and encountered a large accumulation of mail and business, which took me two days to attend to.

On the 25th I arrived in Revelstoke and made an effort to get some assistance there for Colorado, but found that organization there was practically dead, except the railway organizations, with whom I could do nothing except write letters of appeal, which I did. There is an American Labor Union Federal Union there, but they are almost out of business; simply struggling for existence.

On the morning of February 28th I arrived in Kamloops and met with our local there that evening and gave them the details of the general conditions. I found the union was not strong and only about a dozen members were in attendance at the meeting. I found there were no other active locals there except railway unions, and the same conditions confronted me there as at Revelstoke, and I pursued the same course there.

On March 1st I arrived in Vancouver and proceeded at once to look up the central labor bodies and met with the Trades and Labor Council and the Building Trades Council, both of whom received me cordially and promised to do all they could to assist us. I interviewed the attorney general, who resides at Vancouver, on the Dougherty matter, and after he had investigated the case he said that matter ought not to be overlooked and should be pushed without delay. He advised me to go to Victoria and take the case up with his deputy and the provincial police department.

On March 5th I went to Nanaimo, having been previously advised to do so, and met with the union in regular meeting. I had informed them in advance of my coming. The scenes at the meeting are almost impossible to describe; there is no semblance of order, the most bitter personalities are resorted to and the president seems powerless. There is a ring there of the Ralph Smith crowd who are resorting to all conceivable means to break up the union or pull it out of the Western Federation of Miners. They had formerly decided that they would not pay the assessments, but at this meeting they reversed their former decision and ordered the assessments to be paid. This action was taken on the grounds that if they withdrew from the Western Federation of Miners it was their duty to first square themselves with the organization. They then decided to take a vote two months hence on the question of withdrawing from the Western Federation of Miners, but a number of them expressed their determination to hold the charter, regardless of how the vote goes. Outside of asking me a few questions during the business proceedings they did not accord me a hearing at the meeting.

On the following evening, March 6th, I met with the Nanaimo Socialist Local and outlined to them the present industrial conditions and the causes which produced them. This element, at least, we can count on as our friends.

On March 7th I went to Victoria and at once took up the Dougherty matter with the chief of police and the attorney general's department. After investigation they decided to take the case up and push it through, but they found that the complaint, warrant, etc., issued at Greenwood, did not contain the necessary statements. My time was taken up from that time to the 10th in getting those matters properly adjusted, and I think there is no doubt but we will get the gentleman and deal him out a little British justice, although, so far as I am aware, his whereabouts are not yet positively known.

During my stay in Victoria I met with a number of local unions in the evenings and solicited their assistance for Colorado, but with what success I am unable to say.

On the 11th I returned to Vancouver and from that time until the 25th was meeting with the various locals there in the interest of the Colorado strikers.

On the 28th I arrived in Revelstoke. The secretary of the Federal Union, American Labor Union, there had written me regarding the advisability of organizing the miners there, or else to use my influence to have them, for the time being, affiliate with their union. On investigation I found there were not a sufficient number of miners employed to safely launch a union. I proposed the Union-at-Large to some of them, but they said they would prefer to wait. Another obstacle is that their work is so far away that they could not possibly attend their union. In the evening I addressed a public meeting in the interest of the Federal Union and advised the miners to join that union for the present, explaining that whenever it was practicable a charter from the Western Federation of Miners would be issued to them, or they could transfer to any of our existing locals. There were very few workmen attending the meeting; they seem to be a very indifferent lot. The lumber jacks there are working for $30 per month, but Canadian Pacific railroad influence seems to control nearly every one there. At the close of the meeting a small collection was taken up and ordered sent to the Colorado strikers.

As the instructions governing my work which I was expecting from your office did not arrive, and as I feared the work I was doing in this section would not prove sufficiently remunerative to justify me in putting in more time in that way, I returned home to Slocan.

I am just in receipt of information from the secretary of Camp McKinney Union that their union disbanded on the 26th of last month and he is sending their charter and effects to me. The mines there are said to be worked out and the camp will now be closed indefinitely.

The mining industry in British Columbia is in some sections fair, while in others it is almost nil. On the whole, it can be termed in a very dormant condition, although in some sections there is good prospects of a revival.

The conditions of the organization in this district are not all that could be desired. There seems to be still an undercurrent of dissension from an element who advocate segregation. But this is a proposition which the majority refuses to consider, and, while it is a stumbling block in the way of our progress, yet I hope we will be able to dispose of it without serious injury to the organization.

I have in mind a number of recommendations, which under other conditions I would offer. But, in consideration of the circumstances with which you are surrounded, I do not think it advisable to inflict any more problems on you at this time, but, rather, to lend our united efforts to assist you in dealing with the matters we have in hand.

In conclusion I would say that while indignity and suffering, which accompany and are a part of the present inhuman struggle, is most horrible to contemplate, yet I am firmly of the belief that the outcome will show that the same has had a most beneficial effect in the way of enlightening the people, for whose right to exist we are exhausting every effort. Member Executive Board District No. 6, W. F. M.

Adjourned at 5:20 p. m. until 9 a. m. Monday, June 6, 1904.

Twelfth Day, June 6th.

MORNING SESSION.

Denver, Colorado, June 6, 1904.

Convention called to order at 9 a. m. by Vice President Williams. Brothers Thomas Nelson and George B. Handy took up the password. Roll call showed Max Malich sick and B. P. Smith excused.

Minutes of previous day's session read and motion was offered that the report of Member of Executive Board Baker be laid over for further consideration. Motion carried. Minutes approved.

Resolution No. 77 referred to Constitution Committee.

Grievance Committee report on Resolution No. 72 in reference to Calaveras Union:

No. 72.

Denver, Colorado, June 3, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners, Assembled:

Gentlemen and Brothers—Owing to the deplorable condition of affairs in the jurisdiction of the local I represent, the officers and members of said local deem it advisable to send a delegate to the twelfth annual convention with instructions to place before your honorable body a proposition that will enable said local to maintain their rights against a certain mining company, known as the Utica Mining Company, and for this purpose I have prepared the following resolution, which, in my opinion, conflicts in no way with the course the Federation pursues in other cases.

Whereas, It being fully demonstrated that the conditions confronting Calaveras Miners' Union No. 55 are such that their officers and active members cannot procure employment from the mining companies of Angel's Camp; and,

Whereas, The superintendent of the Utica Mining Company informed the president of Calaveras Union, in presence of witnesses, that any one advocating any change in the workings of the mines of Angel's Camp could not work for the Utica Mining Company; and,

Whereas, Owing to the hazardous work of mining the ten-hour work day is an impediment to the health of the miner and a curse to society; and,

Whereas, The Utica Mining Company is the most aggressive of all the mining companies of Angel's Camp in discriminating against organized labor; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Calaveras Miners' Union is being most unjustly imposed upon by the Utica Mining Company; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Western Federation of Miners, in their twelfth annual convention assembled, do hereby pledge their moral and financial support to the Calaveras Miners' Union No. 55 in their present trouble.

J. C. HAMMIT.

Denver, Colorado, June 5, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled:

We, your Committee on Grievances, beg leave to submit the following for your consideration:

We recommend to the convention that Calaveras Miners' Union be notified that the Western Federation of Miners is behind all locals affiliated with their organization; also, we recommend that the Calaveras Union be instructed to not take any action leading to a strike, other than in perfecting of their organization in inducing all men employed in and about the mines of Angel's Camp to join their union, until such time as the member of the Executive Board, whoever he may be, shall appear on the ground after the adjournment of this convention. Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McDONALD,
SAM RADOVICH,
W. F. DAVIS,
J. E. CLIFFORD,
FRED SIDNER,
H. L. LANE.

Moved and seconded that report of committee be adopted.
Motion carried with two dissenting votes.

Report of Committee on Resolutions.

No. 2. Terry, South Dakota, May 19, 1904.
Mr. W. D. Haywood:

Sir and Brother—At our last meeting, held May 18th, be it Resolved, That we, the members of Terry Peak Miners' Union No. 5, of the Western Federation of Miners, endorse the action taken by the officers of the Federation and the members of the Executive Board in the struggle in Colorado, and that we give them our moral and financial support in the future as well as we have in the past, if needed; and, that our delegates be instructed to support the present officers for another term.

HENRY GIBSON, President.
GEORGE HENDY, Sec'y.

No. 37. Butte, Montana, May 18, 1904.
At our regular meeting, held on Wednesday, May 18, 1904, the following resolution was adopted:

That we, the Butte Stationary Engineers' Union No. 83, do extend to our president and secretary-treasurer, together with the Executive Board, our sympathy and financial aid in the present crisis, and that we pledge ourselves to that end; and we further pledge ourselves to use every honorable means in our power to relieve our brothers from their present nefarious position, in which they have been placed.

O. L. FARNHAM, Acting Pres.
JOHN T. BACKUS, Sec'y.

No. 61.

Mr. President and Delegates of the Convention:

Brothers—Owing to the present situation of the Western Federation of Miners, and the laborers in general; and, as we have no other weapon at present other than to strike (and it seems after we have struck, as the saying might be, we seem to have the dirty end of the stick); and, as we have no laws, seemingly, to protect our laborers, or the laborer in any industry, and his productions from the eager grasp of capital for speculation, we need our representatives in the Legislature and the sheriffs of our counties, to begin with, picked from our body and pledged to a labor platform—a platform that all classes of labor can and will vote, I believe. And I believe we have the right metal in our convention to-day, and there are many more behind. I do not see anything in the two old parties to stay with, and as for Socialism, the name seems to almost knock some men down. It is far ahead of the times; people must have time to educate themselves to it. Give our medicine in small doses and it will be the educator. Call it what you may, let us do something to do away with strikes, or have some laws on our side so when we do strike we can strike harder.

Report of Special Committee who were sent to Cripple Creek, to investigate:

No. 79.
To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Gentlemen—Your Special Committee, appointed to go to the Cripple Creek District and investigate the conditions as they exist in that place, beg leave to submit the following:

We find that the delegates in this convention from that District submitted a true state of affairs as they exist. Your committee, however, is of the opinion that a policy should be pursued, if this fight is to be won, on the line of bringing back the old union men who are working on unfair mines. These men are making it possible for the mine owners to operate their properties, inasmuch as the experienced men make practical workers out of the unfair men and scabs at all times.

Your committee was accorded a cordial reception by the secretary of the Mine Owners' Association and by those present. From the standpoint presented by the mine owners, they would lead one to believe that the strike, so far as the Western Federation of Miners is concerned, is broken and that they have all the men they could use, and substantiate this statement by saying that they had fully as many men employed as they had previous to the strike, and, while they are not producing as much ore as previous to the strike, nor was it of as good quality, yet their product was increasing, and from their standpoint this time on a paying basis, admitting at the same time that at the outset of this strike the operators had lost money. He further stated to your committee that were it not for the union men his strike, so far as the operators were concerned, would have been lost long ago. He frankly stated that they could not have started their mines without the practical assistance of these practical miners. He also stated that numerous union men, so-called at one time in the district, returned to work and put them in shape to cope with the fight that was being made by the Western Federation of Miners. This fact is not contradicted by the strike committee and the union men of the camp. His main complaint was in the nature of a charge that the union men had violated their agreement with the Drainage Tunnel Company, claiming that the agreement was to the effect that if they would close down the El Paso mine they could continue their work on the tunnel. He does this to sustain his attitude that the union cannot be trusted. The question of such an agreement having existed is denied by the unions of the district. He further states that had the Western Federation of Miners' constitution been lived up to and the matter put to a referendum vote in the district no strike would have taken place. But your committee finds that the locals in the district took action in the respective unions and delegated the authority of calling a strike over to the District Union. We find that an anxiety and a desire on the part of the membership of the unions of that district for some arrangement that will lead to a settlement of this dispute exists, but the majority still show a determination to wage the fight to an end, if some honorable arrangement cannot be attained for a settlement. Respectfully submitted,

R. E. ALLEN,
MALCOLM GILLIS,
H. G. SEAMAN.

Moved and seconded that the report of the Special Committee be adopted. Motion carried.

Resolution No. 80 referred to Constitution Committee.

Resolution No. 81 was read.

No. 81.

Whereas, President Moyer, in his report, recommended that this convention provide for an assistant secretary-treasurer, who should be at all times at headquarters and fully conversant with the business of the headquarters; and,

Whereas, The Committee on President's Report, or this convention, have not provided for the same; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we believe it to be to the best interests of the Federation that there be an additional secretary-treasurer provided for at this convention, who can at once take charge of the office in case of accidents.

J. B. FULMER.

Filed by the chair.

Moved and seconded that Brothers Estes and Hall, president and secretary respectively of the U. B. R. E., be granted the floor immediately after coming this afternoon. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that we go to the Underhill factory tomorrow noon immediately after adjournment.

Amended that we go this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Substitute that we go at 5 p. m. Substitute lost. Amendment carried. Motion as amended carried.

Adjourned at 12 m. until 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention called to order at 2 p. m. by Vice President Williams. Brothers E. W. Gant and John A. Peterson took up the password. Roll call showed Sherman Parker and J. L. Morgan absent; excused, B. P. Smith; sick, Arthur Filion and Max Malich.

Brothers Sullivan and McDonald were appointed a committee to escort the representatives of the U. B. R. E. before this body.

Brother Hall, general secretary-treasurer of the U. B. R. E., was introduced and made a brief but telling address.

Brother Estes, president of the U. B. R. E., was then introduced and made a splendid talk in which he assured the Western Federation of Miners that as long as the Federation continued their progressive and aggressive policy, the U. B. R. E. is with us to the end, and related a good story with reference to Andrew Carnegie's request for admittance, which request was finally refused and his 15 cents was returned to him and he was told to go to hell.

The warden announced at this time that Mother Jones and William Howells, president of District No. 15, United Mine Workers of America, were waiting in the ante-room. They were escorted into the hall by the committee.

Warden also announces Ways and Means Committee of the State Federation of Labor, who were escorted into the hall.

William Howells of the United Mine Workers of America was introduced and made a brief address.

P. N. McPhee was then presented, and not wishing to make any remarks surrendered the floor, and Thomas Hyder was introduced and addressed the body with reference to the procedure of the Ways and Means Committee as it relates to the Western Federation of Miners, and organized labor of the state of Colorado, and asks that this body take some action commendatory of the work of the Ways and Means Committee.

President Williams then introduced that steadfast and true friend of labor, Mother Jones, who was greeted with great applause, after which she delivered an eloquent and telling address and appeal to the manhood of the delegates to stand for justice at the ballot box. She related in pathetic language the story of the oppressed worker in various localities. She explained the fallacy of an increase in wages as it applies to the prosperity of the wage-slaves.

Sister Emma F. Langdon, honorary member of the Western Federation of Miners, takes the floor and thanks the convention for the honor conferred and assures the delegates that she will be an active worker in the ranks. She feels highly complimented, being the only woman upon whom has been conferred the privilege of honorary membership in the Western Federation of Miners, and entitled to wear as such the official emblem, which she says the Federation shall never have cause to regret. In conclusion she again wishes to thank the convention for the honors conferred.

Visitors retire and the regular order of business is taken up. The following telegram was read:

Goldfield, Colorado, June 6, 1904.

W. D. Haywood, 625 Mining Exchange, Denver, Colorado:

Trouble in sight. Five hundred armed scabs in Victor. Something may drop any time.

J. F. GORI.

Moved and seconded that the Western Federation of Miners offer a reward of five thousand dollars for the apprehension and conviction of the parties who were the cause of the explosion which occurred at Independence, Colorado, which caused the death of sixteen or more persons.

Moved and seconded as an amendment that the matter be laid on the table pending action of committee on this subject. Motion carried.

No. 82. Grievance of Phil Nolan, with reference to sick benefit, referred to Grievance Committee.

Resolution No. 83. Referred to Ritual Committee.

Adjourned at 4 p. m. until 9 a. m.

Thirteenth Day, June 7th.

MORNING SESSION.

Denver, Colorado, June 7, 1904.

The convention was called to order at 9 a. m. by Vice President Williams. Brothers Hammitt and Main took up the pass-word. Roll call shows Max Malich sick, B. P. Smith excused, A. W. Gracias, Sherman Parker absent, and A. L. Bruce gone home.

Minutes of previous day's session read, corrected and approved.

Communication:

To the Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Brothers—On account of having to leave for Montana, I respectfully request that M. J. Connor vote my proxy on all matters coming before the convention. Fraternally, L. A. BRUCE, No. 107.

Moved and seconded that the request be granted. Motion carried.

Resolution No. 83 read and referred to the By-Laws Committee.

The following telegram was received:

Chicago, June 7, 1904.

William D. Haywood, 625 Mining Exchange, Denver, Colorado:

The enemy is desperate. You are on top. Stand pat.

EUGENE V. DEBS.

Report of Organization Committee on Resolution No. 25.

Moved and seconded that the report of Organization Committee on Resolution No. 35 be not concurred in.

Amended that it be taken up seriatim.

Substitute, that it be consigned to the waste basket. Substitute carried.

Report of Grievance Committee:

No. 82. Butte, Montana, May 17, 1904.

Statement of Philip Nolan relating to benefits due him from Jardine Miners' Union, and being withheld from him.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Gentlemen—On the 17th of November, 1903, I left Jardine, sick of chronic bronchitis, notifying the secretary of that union, Joseph Freil, of the fact and paying him $1 on my card, which paid me up to December 1st. I went from there to Chico Hot Springs; staid there eight days, from there to Pipestone Springs, and staid there eleven days; did this with the advice of Dr. Sheavin, who was in Jardine at the time and afterwards in Butte. From Pipestone I came to Butte, and went to see Dr. Sheavin again, he having come to Butte during the time I was at the Springs, and was under his treatment till the 5th day of January, 1904, when I got a certificate from the doctor and forwarded it to my union through Dan Donovan, recording secretary of the Butte Union, applying for my benefits, amounting to $60. In reply Brother Donovan received a letter from the secretary stating that the union owed me some benefits, but could not pay them without a notary's seal being attached to the doctor's certificate. I then went to the doctor again and got another certificate, we going before

John Hanley, notary public, and making affidavit to the facts as set forth in the application, forwarding the same to Jardine by James P. Murphy, member of the Executive Board, Western Federation of Miners. Brother Murphy also wrote them, asking them for a copy of their constitution and by-laws; also a statement of my standing in the union. They sent the copy of the constitution, also stated that I was in good standing, but so far as I can learn, neither Brother Donovan, Brother Murphy nor myself have ever received any further information from them. Believing that the Western Federation of Miners does not wish to see one of its humblest members wronged, and believing that I am being unjustly deprived of what is justly mine, I would respectfully submit the above to the consideration of your honorable body. Yours fraternally, PHIL NOLAN.

Witness: W. J. Weeks, principal.

State of Montana, County of Silver Bow, ss.:

Before me, Patrick J. Gilroy, a notary public in and for said county, this day appeared Philip Nolan, to me personally known, and acknowledged that he signed and executed the foregoing instrument.

Witness my hand and notarial seal, this 18th day of May, 1904.
[Seal.] P. J. GILROY,

Notary Public for Silver Bow County.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention,
Assembled:

We, your Committee on Grievance, beg leave to submit the following:

We recommend that the incoming Executive Board investigate the matter of Philip Nolan and inform Jardine Miners' Union of their action. Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McDONALD,
W. F. DAVIS,
SAM RADOVICH,
J. E. CLIFFORD,

Moved and seconded that report of Grievance Committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on Mays and Means:

No. 37.

OFFICIAL ORGAN.

The cohesiveness of the organization and the proper economic education of our members, as well as the extension of our jurisdiction, absolutely demands a compulsory subscription to the official organ. Further maintenance of the present planless educational policy is suicidal. The A. L. U., and the A. S. E., and the U. R. E., all united with the Western Federation of Miners, through the parent body, have adopted the system of sending their official organ to every member of their organization in good standing, with the result of a gain of one hundred per cent. since the introduction of this policy. Therefore, we urge that you enact such legislation as will result in every member receiving the official organ, and we suggest that revenue for said purpose be derived from local dues, fees or assessments, or per capitax tax. The A. L. U. Journal fund of 4 cents per month is derived from local dues; the U. B. R. E. Journal from per capita tax.

Submitted by Henson Miners' Union No. 50, Lake City, Colorado, May 21, 1904.

We recommend that the above communication be placed on file.
WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

Whereas, We are confronted with numerous instances where members of our organization care not for the wrong in scabbing, provided they are not found out, or think they can evade present acquaintances, dodge descriptions or out-travel records; therefore we are

Resolved, That it would be well to make it compulsory for each local to provide headquarters with a photograph or true likeness of each member or candidate for initiation. Such would be a safeguard for our local members and a punishment for the craven-brained, cur-hearted traitor.

We recommend that the above resolution be placed on file.
WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

Denver, June 6, 1904.

Your Committee on Ways and Means submit the following report, having examined the financial statements of the Miners' Magazine from April 1st, 1903, until April 1st, 1904. We find the receipts to be $3,121.60; expenditures, $7,878.09; leaving a deficit of $4,756.48. Your committee finds that the salary account has been increased, and, not being competent newspaper men, your committee recommends the consideration of the receipts and expenditures by the convention.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

Moved and seconded that report be concurred in.

Amended, that action be deferred until John M. O'Neill may come before the convention and make a report on the Magazine.

Statement of John M. O'Neill read, also financial statement of the Magazine from Secretary Haywood's report.

Denver, Colorado, June 1, 1904.

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

In order that the delegates to the twelfth annual convention may be able to form some accurate conception in regard to the Miners' Magazine, the official organ of the Western Federation of Miners, I hereby submit a condensed statement.

My experience during the past two years as editor of the Miners' Magazine has convinced me that the corporate and commercial interests to a great extent are arrayed in battle line against any and all aggressive journals that honestly and fearlessly represent the interests of the working class. During the past year you have been forcibly acquainted with the fact that corporations and commercial combinations have joined hands and have almost openly declared that their solidarity was for the purpose of exterminating or disrupting the membership of organized labor. The corporations, aided by the Citizens' Alliance, have waged a relentless warfare, not only against the Miners' Magazine but against every labor paper whose editor had the courage to speak the truth, and as a result of this warfare a number of labor journals have gone out of existence. The Citizens' Alliances, which have sprung up in nearly all of the metalliferous mining camps of the West, have been brought into existence by the Mine Owners' Associations as auxiliaries in aiding the mine operators to more successfully carry out their infamous schemes of bringing about the dissolution of the Western Federation of Miners. The business men who have become members of the Citizens' Alliances have become inoculated with a hatred and an enmity to the labor press and, consequently, no support or patronage can be expected from this modern commercial Mafia, which obligates its membership to use all their power and influence to render helpless every union that resorts to the strike or boycott.

The Miners' Magazine, as well as all other labor journals, during the past year, through commercial and corporate organization, has felt keenly the effect of the boycott from the "law and order" element, who, through their economic power, are practically a law unto themselves. The Miners' Magazine, upon the fact of its financial statement, has not been able to meet its expenditures. In other words, the Magazine directly has not paid its expenses; but, indirectly, the Magazine has returned handsome profits to the Western Federation of Miners. Without an official organ the Federation, to a great extent, would be like a ship in midocean without a rudder. It has been the only potent medium through which the organization has been able to present to the American people the unparalleled industrial conditions in Colorado. It has been the only powerful tribune through which the picture of corporate anarchy has been painted to enlist the sympathy of the progressive labor army of this country. The several hundred Magazines which have been sent to the labor exchanges from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from British Columbia to the Gulf, and the thousands of extra copies which have been scattered throughout the various labor centers of the United States, have added much to the cost of issuing the official organ. But thousands of dollars have come to the secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners through the sympathy aroused through the stories of wrong and oppression contained in the Magazine, and has made the official organ the most valuable asset of the Federation. The labor exchanges of the country have quoted extensively from the columns of the Magazine and the very force of the labor journals scattered in the various states of the Union have forced even the great metropolitan daily journals to at last give recognition to the battle between the hosts of capitalism and the Western Federation of Miners. Through the aid of your official organ the Western Federation of Miners has to-day a prestige and a standing never yet enjoyed by any labor organization in the world. The proof of the assertion is found in the fact that though you have been battling for more than a year against all the power and machinations of corporate wealth, yet the American Federation of Labor, in the midst of your conflict, has sent its ambassadors to plead with you to join hands and forces, because they have recognized in the Western Federation of Miners a body of men who know no surrender when the principles of right and justice are at stake.

If the Magazine be placed in the hands of the whole membership of the organization, there is no question in my mind that it would yield directly a handsome profit. When the business men realized that the Magazine was read by twenty-five or thirty thousand men who delve in the bowels of the earth, they would readily recognize the fact that an advertisement in the columns of the Magazine would be a profitable investment. At the present time the circulation of the Magazine has scarcely reached 5,000, an increase of a little more than 2,000 during the present year. Secretary-Treasurer Haywood's financial report will show the receipts of the Magazine from all sources, and likewise its expenditures.

As to the make-up of the Magazine, its mechanical appearance and finish, it is not equalled by the official organ of any national or international labor organization between the two oceans. As to its editorial merit, I will leave that to the judgment of the readers and the membership of the organization.

I have submitted this scattered and desultory statement in order that the delegates of the twelfth annual convention may have a better conception of the power and influence of your official organ, and to enable your Committee on Education and Literature to act more intelligently in submitting their report for your consideration. Yours fraternally,

JOHN M. O'NEIL,
Editor Miners' Magazine.

Moved and seconded that report of committee on first section be concurred in. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that report of committee on second section be adopted. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that the present status of the Magazine be allowed to remain unchanged. Motion carried.

Report of Organization Committee on Resolution No. 57:

No. 57.

Resolved, That the most salient and important subjects for discussion be arranged by a specially appointed committee the first day of the assembled convention in the form of a program to guide the deliberation thereof.

1. Set aside one day for discussion on strikes, boycotts and lockouts.

2. Best methods of organization, co-operation, education on unionism.

3. The relation of the Western Federation of Miners to other organized labor.

A. KLEMENCIC, No. 216.

Denver, Colorado, May 31, 1904.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

We, your Committee on Organization, recommend that Resolution No. 57 be not concurred in for the reason of its taking too much time of the convention.

Moved and seconded that report of committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on Grievances:

No. 78.

Denver, Colorado, May 31, 1904.

To the Twelfth Annual Convention of the Western Federation of Miners:

Brothers—Realizing the necessity of using every dollar to the best advantage at this time, and knowing the conditions in Utah do not warrant the maintaining of the present organizer in that state; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the services of O. M. Carpenter, as organizer, be disposed of in the state of Utah, and if the Executive Board see fit to place an organizer in that field, that they will put some one in who will try to do something.

EDW. F. DOYLE, No. 144.
JOS. P. LANGFORD, No. 144.
NICK COMES, No. 151.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled:

We, your Committee on Grievances, beg leave to submit the following:

We, your committee, after hearing the evidence in the case, do hereby recommend that the services of O. M. Carpenter as organizer in the state of Utah be dispensed with and that he be substituted by someone else, at the discretion of the Executive Board. Respectfully submitted,

A. J. McDONALD,
J. E. CLIFFORD,
FRED SIDNER,
THOMAS McGRATH,
SAM RADOVICH,
H. L. LANE.

Moved and seconded that report of committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

Report of Committee on By-Laws:

No. 74.

DISTRICT UNIONS.

Art I., Sec. 10. Strike out all of Section 10 and substitute therefor the following: Where two or more local unions exist, they may, if they deem it advisable, organize a district union for the purpose of doing business for the district. They may apply to the Federation for and receive a special charter, said charter to be issued at cost. Such district union shall be subordinate to the Federation and state union (if such exist), but shall be of higher authority than the local unions of the Federation in its jurisdiction. Each local union of the Federation within the jurisdiction of a district union shall be a member of said district union and shall recognize the authority of the same. The jurisdiction of the district union shall be defined by the president of the Federation, subject to the approval of the Executive Board.

STATE UNIONS.

Art. I., Sec. 11. Where a majority of the unions of any state or province deem it advisable to organize a state or provincial union, they may apply to the Federation for and receive a special charter, said charter to be issued at cost. Such state or provincial union shall be subordinate to the Federation, but shall be of higher authority than the district or local unions of the Federation within the state or province. All local unions of the Federation within the state or province shall be members of the state or provincial union and recognize the authority of the same.

Sec. 12. Present Section 11 shall be known as Section 12.

We, your Committee on By-Laws, recommend the attached substitute to by-laws be not adopted, as we hold the by-laws as they stand are more satisfactory.

A. A. MOROSS,
H. G. SEAMAN,
CHARLES C. MITCHELL,
A. J. BUNCH.

Moved and seconded that report of committee be adopted. Carried.

Whereas, We find by a number of experiences that members of unions who contemplate betraying their class and prostituting their manhood by going scabbing, through misrepresentation, attempt to or do procure withdrawal cards with intentions of using them in the future in union camps, where they are not known; therefore we are

Resolved, That it would be well to amend Article III., Section 2, line 4 of the by-laws, so that it would read, beginning at "any time," "The local union issuing said card or be entitled to a transfer card from said local to any local in the Federation for the sum of $1."

We, your Committee on By-Laws, finding the attached resolution vague and unsatisfactory, and being unendorsed, we recommend it be not adopted.

A. A. MOROSS,
CHARLES C. MITCHELL,
A. J. BUNCH.
H. G. SEAMAN,

Moved and seconded that report of committee be adopted.
Carried.

Report of Ways and Means Committee:

No. 85.

June 6, 1904.

Your Committee on Ways and Means recommends:

First—That the section of the communication from Henson Miners' Union relating to the levying of an assessment of $1 on every member of the Federation in good standing be placed on file.

Second—Your committee deem it pertinent to express its disapproval of the editorial department of that publication. We realize that the editor is simply pursuing a course consistent with the interpretation placed upon the action of the eleventh annual convention in declaring for independent political action by the officials of the Federation. Believing that such a policy is not conducive to the best interest of the Federation in the present crisis, we recommend that a course be followed to the end that the present system of Peabodyism be overthrown at the ballot box, for never in the history of the Federation has a situation confronted us that demands a union of liberty-loving citizens, regardless of past party affiliations.

Third—We further desire to call the attention of the convention to certain articles in the Miners' Magazine reflecting upon the officers of the American Federation of Labor and the United Mine Workers of America. In the opinion of the members of your committee, and in view of the fact that the United Mine Workers have generously contributed to the striking members of the Federation, such articles, to say the least, are uncalled for. The field is broad enough and the present struggle bitter enough to give ample scope to the consideration of all questions, without attacking fellow-workers simply because they may differ on political and social economics.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

Moved and seconded that the report of the Ways and Means Committee in reference to the political policy of the Federation, etc., be taken up seriatim. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that report of committee on section one of Resolution No. 85 be adopted.

Amended, that the report of the committee on section one be not adopted. Amendment lost. Original motion carried.

Moved and seconded that report of committee on section two, Resolution No. 85, be not adopted and expunged from the minutes.

Moved and seconded as a substitute for all motions pending that the matter be placed in the hands of the Executive Board and the editor of the Miners' Magazine do what in their judgment is to the best interest of the Federation in Colorado.

Previous question called for. Motion carried.

Vote on substitute by roll call.

Report of Ritual Committee on Resolution No. 83:

No. 83.

Strike out on page 10 of the ritual, in line 4, the following words: "President—Brother Conductor face the friends to the vice president, that he may charge them," and substitute a continuance by the president in the following words: "Friends, face the vice president, who will further charge you."

Also, change the top two lines on page 11 so as to read: "Friends, face the president for final instructions."

Also, change the black lines in small letters on page 14 to read as follows: "The president will instruct the newly initiated brothers to face the members and give three raps of the gavel."

ED LONG.

M. J. CONNORS,

To the Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention, Assembled:

We, your committee, beg leave to report as follows:

That the changes proposed are so small that in the opinion of the committee it will not justify the expense of reprinting the ritual, therefore we, your committee, would recommend that the ritual be not changed.

CHARLES O'BRIEN,

G. E. ERICKSON,

M. RAGENOVICH.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee be concurred in. Motion carried.

The Committee on Constitution reported as follows:

RECOMMENDATION OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD.

Section 1, Article III., line 2, page 9, strike out the word "nine" and insert the word "ten," to provide for a member of the board in District 7.

Article III., Section 3, add, "He shall receive $5 per day for his services, besides such an additional amount as may be necessary to defray his transportation and other expenses."

Section 9, line 8, page 13, erase the word "nine" and insert "ten." No. 77.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

I hereby move to amend Article V. of the constitution by striking out Section 2 of said article. The reason for so doing is that Section 2 is in conflict with Section 1 of Article V. Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH CORBY.

No. 80.

Denver, Colorado, June 5, 1904.

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Brothers—Whereas, The eleventh annual convention created District No. 7 and made no provision for an additional member on the Executive Board; and,

Whereas, Article 2, Section 10, page 13, beginning at line 26, provides that each district designated shall be entitled to one representative on the Executive Board; therefore, be it

Resolved, That there shall be elected at this convention a representative for that district.

M. S. CARSEY.

No. 75.

To the Officers and Members of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

I offer the following amendments, additions and changes to Sections 9 and 10 of Article III. of the constitution, page 13: Insert in line 8, after the word "president," the word "and"; strike out the following from line 9, "and secretary-treasurer."

In line 10, after the word "convention," strike out "all of whom" and substitute therefor "the president and vice president." With these additions and changes Section 9, Article III., will read as follows: "The Executive Board shall consist of nine members, including the president and vice president, to be elected by the delegates at each annual convention. The president and vice president shall be delegates at large and entitled to the same privileges as other delegates at the convention."

Also, strike out of line 16, Section 10, Article III., the word "Nevada," so as to make line 16 read: "No. 1. California and Arizona."

Also, strike out of line 19, Section 10, Article III., the word "Utah," so as to make line 19 read as follows: "No. 4. Colorado and New Mexico."

Also, add to Section 10, on page 13, the following paragraph, to follow after line 25, to read as follows: "No. 8. Utah and Nevada."

FRANK O'CONNOR.

June 6, 1904.

We, your Committee on Constitution, hereby report as follows:

On recommendation of Executive Board in regard to Article III., Section 1, line 2, page 9, we recommend as a substitute that the word "nine" be stricken out and the word "eleven" inserted.

In regard to Article III., Section 9, line 8, page 13, action has been taken in Resolution No. 30.

In regard to Article III., Section 3, we recommend as a substitute that the following be added: "He shall receive $7 per day and his transportation."

Resolution No. 77. We recommend that it be not adopted.

Resolution No. 80. We recommend that it be not adopted.

Resolution No. 75. We recommend that it be not adopted.

R. E. ALLEN,
FRANK SCHMELZER,
R. R. CRUMB,
ED LONG.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee on Article 3, Section 1, be adopted. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that the report of committee on Article 3, Section 3, be not concurred in. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee on Resolution No. 77 be concurred in. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that the report of the committee on Resolution No. 80 be adopted. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that the report of committee on Resolution No. 75 be adopted. Motion carried.

The following resolution was introduced:

Whereas, There has been no provision made by the eleventh annual convention for increasing the number of the Executive Board to provide for a member of said board for the Seventh District; and,

Whereas, the twelfth annual convention has adopted a resolution providing for same, but which cannot become a part of our constitution until the same is submitted to a referendum vote; and,

Whereas, Some considerable length of time will elapse before the same will become a part of the constitution, if passed by the referendum vote, leaving the Seventh District unprovided for during an indefinite period, which, to our belief, would be unwise; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the president shall appoint some one to take charge of District No. 7, with the same authority as regularly elected members of the board, said appointment to be subject to the approval of the Executive Board.

M. S. CARSEY.

Moved and seconded that it be adopted.

Amended, that it be referred to the Executive Board with full power to act. Amendment carried.

No. 87.

Denver, Colorado, June 7, 1904.

Whereas, A crime has been committed in the blowing up of the Golden Circle depot in the Cripple Creek District, we, the delegates of the twelfth annual convention of the Western Federation of Miners, deplore the act as a most dastardly crime and condemn the perpetrators thereof as enemies of the Western Federation of Miners and organized labor in general, and an outlaw at large; and,

Whereas, The secretary of the Mine Owners' Association has sought to use the sentiment created by this disaster to drive all union men out of the district, and in consideration of the above statement, be it

Resolved, That we, the delegates of the twelfth annual convention, assembled, hereby offer a reward in the sum of $5,000, to be paid on the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators of the crime.

CHARLES C. MITCHELL,
C. E. MAHONEY,
H. L. LANE.

Moved that the resolution be adopted after changing the amount to $750.

Amended, that the reward be stricken out.

Moved and seconded as a substitute that the resolution be adopted as read. Substitute carried.

The following telegram was read:

Prescott, Arizona, June 6, 1904.

William D. Haywood, Western Federation of Miners, Denver, Colorado:

The following passed unaimously to-day:

Resolved, That the sympathy of the Socialist convention of Arizona be tendered to Charles H. Moyer, and all other victims of the anarchistic capitalistic class, who have either been driven from their homes or confined in bullpens that have been erected by the said class in the state of Colorado.

PRESCOTT CONVENTION.

Communication:

To the Twelfth Annual Convention:

On account of a previous arrangement, I may be unable to attend at roll call this afternoon. I wish to delegate my vote to E. L. Whitney of No. 82. Yours,

W. A. MORGAN.

There being no objections it was so ordered.

President Williams announces that the time has arrived for the election of officers.

J. C. Williams is nominated for vice president by J. H. Linehan and seconded by Simon Kinsman.

Fred Leonard declines; Joseph Corby declines; John Shea declines; J. P. Langford declines; Ed F. Boyle declines.

Moved and seconded that the nominations now close. Motion carried.

Moved and seconded that the secretary cast the unanimous ballot for J. C. Williams for vice president. Motion carried. Secretary cast the ballot.

Brothers Long, Schmelzer and Lindsay were appointed tellers.

William D. Haywood, Mining Exchange Building, Denver, Colorado:

Don't give up the ship. Give 'em hell. Sent 5,000 words to-day to Appeal.

HENRY O. MORRIS.

Mrs. Langdon takes the floor and again thanks the delegates for the honors conferred upon her in being made an honorary member of the Western Federation of Miners and read a stinging letter which she has written to an eastern paper by request for an article on the labor conditions in Colorado. In surrendering the floor in great applause, she presents the delegates with buttonhole bouquets of pansies.

Report of Mileage Committee:

To the Officers and Delegates of the Twelfth Annual Convention:

Your Committee on Mileage respectfully submits the following report, as follows:

Your committee finds that in many instances the railroads did not grant the rates promised previous to the convening of the present convention, consequently the mileage is excessively large. Respectfully submitted.

ROBERT FERGUSON,
F. R. SCHMELZER,
FRANK COX,
WILLIAM HAGGLUND,
A. W. GRACIAS,

Installation of officers.

J. C. Williams, vice president; William D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer; Marion W. Moor, First District; L. J. Simpkins, Second District; James P. Murphy, Third District; Frank Schmelzer, Fourth District; James Kirwan, Fifth District, James A. Baker, Sixth District, were duly installed by Brother D. C. Copley.

Brother W. B. Easterly relates experiences in connection with the deportation of our brothers from the Cripple Creek district.

Brother Gori from Goldfield also tells of the dastardly atrocities that have been committed since the morning of June 6th at 2:15 a. m.

Delegates Boyle and Comes assure the convention that they will do all in their power to assist the brothers in Colorado financially to the bitter end.

Delegate H. A. McLean advises all delegates to arrange entertainments for the relief of our striking brothers.

Delegate Reber says that he will use his best efforts to have his union to do all in their power financially and morally to bring the present struggle to a successful termination, and suggests that the convention place every confidence in the present officers to raise ways and means for the carrying on of the fight indefinitely, condemning the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of President Charles Moyer in strong language.

Brother Matt Wasley will do all in his power to put the question before the members of his locality in the true light, and have them assist the Federation in every way possible.

Delegate Gillis counsels calm deliberation and to meet the issue in a determined manner, expressing every confidence in the officers of the Federation to cope with the situation.

Delegate Leonard also spoke.

Delegate Allen favors going up to the district and taking the law in our own hands, and to fight the enemy with their own weapons, and have the federal troops intercede.

Delegate Gillis suggests that the Executive Board draw up a circular setting forth the true conditions in Colorado.

Delegates Giffels and Lawry also spoke along the same lines.

Brother Joy Pollard favors a circular being published, same to be scattered all over the East.

Delegate Long believes it is a very good act for the Executive Board to get up a circular, believing that it would assist the delegates materially in reporting the conditions to their respective locals.

Delegates Gibson and Hillis also favor same proposition.

Delegate Ryan says in part that the only friend we have is the ballot and that William Hearst is no friend of the workingmen.

Delegate Mahoney says the only friend that we have is Eugene V. Debs.

Moved and seconded that the Executive Board be instructed to draft a circular giving the true condition of affairs in Colorado. Motion carried.

Delegate Stodden suggests that the Board have some friend, not a member of the Federation, to go into the Cripple Creek district and take charge of the stores.

Delegate Shea says the only means to adopt is to furnish the Executive Board with finances, as they are more able to act than this convention.

Delegate Carsey says he is willing to stand by the Federation come what may, also in favor of circular being printed.

Moved and seconded that it is the sense of this, the twelfth annual convention, assembled, to have implicit confidence in Executive Board to bring the struggle to a successful termination. Motion carried.

Delegate Lyford favors chartering a special train to bring the wives and families of deported men away from the Cripple Creek district.

W. W. Hillis, chairman of the Engrossing Committee, reports as follows:

Insert under Article I. of the by-laws, after Section 3, on page 19, the additional section, with the heading:

"MEMBERSHIP CARD.

"Throughout the jurisdiction of the Western Federation of Miners a uniform membership card shall be used. The same shall be the stamp card system approved by the tenth annual convention; the form and style of said card shall be arranged and designed by the executive officers of the Western Federation of Miners."

On page 9 of the constitution, Article III., in line 2, insert the word "eleven" in place of the word "nine."

Insert the following on page 25, after Section 3 of Article IV. of the by-laws, with the subhead of

"CORRESPONDENCE.

"Each secretary of a local union shall be required to keep a copy of all correspondence in a copying-book suitable for that purpose."

To be substituted on page 20 of the by-laws, lines 23 to 30, inclusive, under the head of

"WITHDRAWAL CARDS.

"Sec. 7. If a member takes a withdraw card from the union to which he belongs, and goes to work as specified in Section 1 of Article I. of the constitution, where there is a union of the Federation, he shall at once deposit his card in that union; failing to do so, he shall be held for dues and assessments from the time he starts to work, by the union within whose jurisdiction he may be employed."

Line 4 on page 14 to read as follows: "Five dollars per day, together with his transportation expenses."

"INTERCHANGEABLE CARDS.

"Sec. 4. Transfer cards and withdrawal cards issued by the Am. Labor Union and the United Mine Workers of America shall be accepted by local unions of the Western Federation of Miners, subject to the rules and qualifications governing members of such locals of the Western Federation of Miners."

On page 23 of the by-laws, Article II., to be known as Section 7, to read as follows:

"Every local union of the Federation accepting a member on a withdrawal card is required to have the secretary immediately notify the local union issuing the same."

Substitute the following for Article III., Section 9, page 13, of the Constitution:

"The Executive Board shall consist of eleven members, including the president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, to be elected by the delegates at each annual convention, all of whom shall be delegates at large and entitled to the same privileges as other delegates at the convention, and one shall be a practical coal miner and known as the representative of the coal miners, regardless of district."

Moved and seconded that report of Engrossing Committee be adopted. Motion carried.

Announced that all deported men from Cripple Creek meet at headquarters at 9 a. m. to-morrow morning.

Minutes of to-day's session read and approved.

Moved, seconded and carried that we adjourn sine die.
